

New Noble Grand Plans Agenda; Names Chairmen

One of the first acts of official duties of the new noble grand of the Torrance Rebekah lodge, Mrs. Maud Milburn, was to appoint Mrs. Olive Veatch as chairman of the polo drive for the organization.

The coming card party of Feb. 6 at the Masonic Temple, 2336 Cabrillo Ave., will be under the sponsorship of the Rebekah lodge and the proceeds will be turned over to the chairman of the Torrance division, Postmistress Mrs. Clara Conner. Mrs. Freida

Shaffer will be the hostess at the card party.

The silver offering of the Jan. 9 meeting was also turned over to the polo fund.

Mrs. Veatch will have a busy month for February as she is also area chairman of the Heart Foundation for the city of Torrance. She has been quite busy for some time past getting workers organized for the drive on Sunday, Feb. 24.

On Sunday, Feb. 17, the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of District 66 will dance to the music of Lawrence Welk at the Aragon ballroom, Lick Pier, in Ocean Park. This is under the sponsorship of the good fellowship chairmen of the various lodges. Mrs. Pat Young has been busy making arrangements for the Torrance Rebekahs.

Mrs. Milburn appointed on the sick committee for the month of February Olga Brown, Christine Ferguson and Marie Fischer.

About two hundred visitors witnessed the impressive installation ceremony conducted by the district deputy president, Mrs. Vera Moxley, and staff of the Neta Dena lodge at the recent meeting.

Organization Hears Noted Educator

Chester Lancaster, president of the Redondo Beach Exceptional Children's Foundation, was the speaker at the recent meeting of the Lucky Willing Workers, Inc., held at the Gardena Community Center.

He spoke of the retarded child's life in school and how much progress had been made in the two years by the children in the foundation. He stressed the urgent need for larger accommodations because of the many more children who could benefit by the opportunity for schooling.

Mildred Barnes presided at the meeting and Mabel Fairbanks led the pledge of allegiance. The door prize was won by Ann Diamond and the white elephant by Mildred Barnes.

Father McGee of St. Anthony's was chosen minister of the month. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Pierce of San Pedro were guests for the evening. Ann Diamond, who is on the board of directors, was honored on the occasion of her birthday. Refreshments were served.

The public is cordially invited to attend the next meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 24. The board meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gold in Gardena this week.

Cookie Sale Is Topic of Scout Adults

Torrance Neighborhood Association of Adults in Girl Scouting met on Tuesday, Jan. 22, at 7:30 p.m. at the Catholic Annex.

Mrs. Lee Stamps, chairman, reminded the group that any adult wishing to receive training must contact her so the training registrar has a record.

Mrs. Rufus Sandstrom, cookie manager, asserted that each Brownie or Girl Scout selling cookies must be accompanied by an adult. The cookie sale will be on Feb. 8 to 23.

The recent Christmas caroling by Girl Scouts at El Prado Park was participated in by 200 Scouts. Mrs. E. C. Osterlind thanked the Senior Scouts of Troop 1299 for their help in maintaining order.

Partial camperships were described by Mrs. E. C. Osterlind as camping scholarships for girls or troops for a camping experience.

A report of Representative Council was given by Mrs. P. M. Crossman.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. J. B. Melton left last Saturday for her home in Meridan, Miss., after a visit here with her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Claude M. Wheeler, Bill and Jeri, 1028 Felbar, Mrs. Melton came to Torrance just before Thanksgiving. She and the Wheelers visited all the places of interest in the area.

TORRETTES TO-SKATE

Torrette Y-teens announced their plans for the early part of February. A skating party has been planned for Thursday, Feb. 7. The girls will meet at the Y for the trip to Long Beach.

The Torrettes plan to spend the week end of Feb. 9th and 10th at Crestline.

A day camp is planned for Torrance under the direction of Mrs. A. A. Krauszer if she can secure adequate help to maintain it.

The meeting was concluded with the showing of a film on "Adventuring in the Arts." Questions followed, led by Miss Joan Laugharn of the south Girl Scout office.

CHARITY BALL FOR NURSERY SLATED FEB. 2

Ladies of Columbus, Ave Maria Council, along with other councils of the Los Angeles area, will hold their fourth annual charity ball on Monday, Feb. 2. The affair will take place at the Veterans' Memorial Auditorium, Culver Blvd., at Overland, in Culver City. All proceeds will go to the Little Flower Nursery on West Adams in Los Angeles. For tickets, contact Grand Lady Mrs. Joseph Mark.

Ave Maria Council will hold its first business meeting of the year on Monday night, Feb. 4, at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Hawthorne.

LOOK! NEW FORD TRUCKS for '57

LOOK again! They're modern through and through

The boldly modern styling you see just hints at how deep-down modern the '57 Fords really are!

New Ranchero rides, handles and looks like a modern car. It's a rugged truck that carries over half a ton—more than many standard pickups. Ford's all-new Tilt Cab Series brings modern design to the big-truck field. It's America's lowest-priced* Tilt Cab line.

New Ford pickups back up their modern styling with higher power, completely new cabs, a new kind of ride. Styleside bodies are biggest of any pickup.

The trucks shown here just touch the sweeping changes in the new Ford line for '57. See your Ford Dealer for complete details on the truck to fit your job.
