

Presbyterians To Hear Dr. Kerstetter

Dr. Robert D. Kerstetter will be the guest preacher at First Presbyterian Church this Sunday at 1842 Gardena Blvd. with the sermon topic "Living For Jesus." Dr. Kerstetter, formerly pastor at Hollywood Lutheran Church, is conducting the building fund crusade which will officially begin Sunday, Feb. 10, to raise $75,000 for new church construction for the Gardena Presbyterian congregation.

The senior choir will sing "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord," by Powell-Weaver. The senior Westminster fellowship will join the Gardena youth groups for the youth vespers on Sunday, 5 p.m., at First Methodist Church, according to Sonya Carlson, moderator.

The building fund crusade committee will meet Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. for a third briefing session with Dr. Kerstetter, as announced by William O. Wilson, general chairman.

Women Set Luncheon
One hundred top donors to the United Jewish Welfare Fund Women's Division campaign will be feted at the annual Pacesetters luncheon to be held Monday, Feb. 11, at the home of Mrs. Mark Taper, 816 N. Alpine, Beverly Hills.

Tartar Teen Talk

By OLLIE LESSIN

Civic pride was aroused in every Tartar as Doctor Hull, Mayor Isen and other prominent civic leaders made the presentation of the All-America City flags to the various schools in our school district last Friday.

After an enthusiastic raising rally in the gym, most Tartars turned out to see our varsity team beat Mira Costa for the second place spot in the Bay League. They won 54 to 50. Gene Crenshaw was high-scoring man with 16 points, followed by Richard Ruffel with 14 points and Mike Bertollet with 11 points. The J. V. Team also won with a close score of 39-38.

After the basketball game last Friday, the National Thespians held their installation of new members and officers. The new president, elected for a third term, is Eddie Shaw; vice president is Elsa Barlow; Pat Bernhart, secretary; Jim Weyant is treasurer; and Gary Parton is the new clerk. Newly installed members are Bob Jacobson, Diana Cook, Penny LaMont, Linda Gibson, Bob Cash, Mary Smithcart, Larry Martin, Duke Aguiar, Georgia Sanford, Bobby Hedge, Howard Mathews, and Judy Bowles.

The Thespians and their guests were entertained by slides of school dramatic activities past, and by songs from Diana Cook, Alice Mewborn, Bob Jacobson, Karen Brunel, and sponsor Von Hershey. Elsa Barlow and Karen Brunel received the Honor Thespians Award for meritorious achievement. After eating pizza, and dancing for much of the evening, the Thespians finally called it a night.

Torrance High was represented in the All-America City award by Tom Quaggin, who drove the station wagon, Barbara Hester, and Richard Bentwood and Mary Yoshioka, who sat out on the open tailgate.

The variety show, "What's Happening," will be held Feb. 15 and 16 in our auditorium at 8 p.m. Adult tickets are 75 cents and student tickets are 50 cents. This year's show features 45 big acts. Of its three sections, one takes us to New York, where emcee Jim Weyant shows us the most interesting things in his city's Broadway musicals. The next group of performances come from New Orleans, emceed by Claudia Smith. The show winds up in our own Hollywood, where Steve Smith introduces numbers from the soundtracks of famous movies.

Tuesday saw the installation of the new student council, headed by President Don Kelley. Presenting Don with his gavel of office was our old student body chief executive, Richard Bentwood. Richard has been one of the finest presidents we have ever had, and all future presidents will have a lot to live up to in integrity and leadership.

All Tartars who feel they may have news of interest to everyone please drop it in the Tartar Teen Talk box in the counseling office. I hope this column will keep you informed about every aspect of school life: academic, social and athletic.

The North Hi Breeze

By LEILA SANTOR

Taking a trip to the snow at Mount Wilson were members of the Scholarship Society and several other Saxons who managed to be there. Approximately 50 students went with sponsor Richard Venturini, Harry Phillips and Miss Kay Leslie, faculty members.

Saxons are going to have popcorn coming out of their ears with all the popcorn sales coming up. Among the organizations who are selling in the coming weeks are the Junior Class, Art Club, Forensic Society, KNHS and many others.

Everyone who attended North High's second variety show "Through the Years" says that it was really done well.

The performances of the band members in the German Band and Dixieland sequences were especially good, and the Charleston done by Nancy Ewing and Marilyn Jordan seemed exceptionally authentic as well as entertaining.

North High's first Intramural track meet will be held this February.

Each class will enter two students in each event. Girls are going to run a 50-yard dash. Boys will take part in the usual track events.

Barbara Sieburn was chosen Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow at North High! Good luck in the future contests.

"She Wore a Yellow Ribbon" is the movie to be shown to the junior class as their reward for being the winners in the Clean Campus campaign.

39 Classes Slated in Spring Adult School

Adult education classes for the second semester will include everything from history to cake decorating, according to Victor U. Kilburn, director of Torrance Evening High School. Students can register at the first class meeting. Further information may be obtained at FA 8-2272.
