At the Little Church Around the Corner in Inglewood, Margie Ann Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Lane, 4019 W. 175th Pl., became the bride of Raymond E. Miller in a lovely ceremony last Saturday evening, Jan. 26, at 8 p.m. Wearing a street-length Bianca original of white silk faille-taffeta with a Chantilly lace jacket, Miss Lane was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a crushed satin cap with a veil of silk illusion and she carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and green ivy. The matron of honor was Mrs. Royce Upson, who wore a black velvet sheath accented with a pink chiffon drape and she carried the bridesmaids, Mrs. Marvin Griswold and Mrs. Robert Pritchett, were similarly dressed in black velvet sheaths, highlighted with the pink chiffon drapes. Their bouquets were also composed of pink elf roses.

The little flower girl, Gloria Jean Thompson, was daintily dressed in pink organza with black velvet accents. Musical selections were sung by Bob Bowman, who was accompanied by Ruth Larkin. The best man was Don Schmitz and the ushers were Robert Pritchett, Harry Lane Jr., and Roy Miller. After the wedding, attended by 200 guests, the reception was held in a room adjoining the sanctuary. Mrs. Roy Sorenson was in charge of the guest book. Rev. Gordon Marshall officiated at the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Miller are both students at El Camino College. She is a sophomore, majoring in liberal arts, and he is majoring in mathematics. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Miller, 13028 Doty Ave., Hawthorne. The bridal couple will spend a portion of their honeymoon at the Sands in Las Vegas and the remainder at the Furnace Creek Inn at Death Valley.

CHILDREN'S THEATRE PRODUCTION MARCH 2

Rehearsals are under way for the Children's Theatre production of "The Emperor's New Clothes" to be given Saturday, March 2, under the sponsorship of the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra. Two performances will be given—one at 10:30 and the other at 2:30 p.m.—at the Dana Junior High school, 15th and Cabrillo, in San Pedro. Albert-Carl Furst, who plays the Emperor, is a member of the board of directors of the San Bernardino Civic Light Opera Company and has appeared in their productions of "Kiss Me Kate," "Annie Get Your Gun," "Oklahoma" and "South Pacific." He has helped design the sets and made the set models for this year's show. Others in the cast are Doug Dowell, Jr., as Fritz, Leo Neuman as Hans, Ed Skillman as the lord minister, Glenn Cahill, Jr. as secretary of defense, Jean Cahill as Sieglinde, and Doris Welton as Brunhilde. Jerry Skillman plays Tristan, Virginia Hunter, Isolde, and Scott Welton is the child.

The two directors, Nancy Andrews and Ridge Walker, are residents of Lomita. They have done many children's shows, including the presentation of "Snow White." They did summer stock in Manistee, Mich., for 10 weeks this past summer.

The cast and members of the crew were entertained last Sunday by Mrs. Richard Park, president of the Peninsula Committee of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, in her home. She was assisted by Mrs. Phillip Abbott and Mrs. Malcolm Gyllenberg.
