

Osteopathic Unit Studies Mental Health

Mrs. Clark B. Walsworth of San Pedro, president of the Harbor District Mental Health Services spoke briefly to physicians and their wives when the Bay Harbor Osteopathic Society and its auxiliary met jointly for dinner at a San Pedro restaurant last Tuesday evening.

The short presentation was given relative to the Community-Mental Health Services Act. After dinner the auxiliary adjourned for its business meeting and was joined by Mrs. Walsworth who is chairman of the auxiliary's Child Health and Welfare program.

Plans were completed for the rummage sale to be held at 1146 South Pacific, San Pedro, Feb. 15 and 16. Proceeds from this project will be added to funds already allocated for the Research Fund for the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons at Los Angeles.

Plans for a spring party and committee heads were named.

Among members contributing to the auxiliary business meeting were Mmes. Milford Bauman, Torrance; Ernest H. Fogelberg, Rolling Hills; C. R. Houshe, Torrance; Robert Paterson, Rolling Hills; and Arthur D. Pedersen, Rolling Hills.

AMARANTHS TO MEET TONIGHT

"Advance Night" of Lomita Court 81, Order of Amaranth honoring line officers will be held tonight at the Torrance Masonic Temple.

Royal Matron Gladys Mothersell and Royal Patron Clyde Satterfield urge all members to attend. The Valentine motif will be carried out in the banquet room festivities directed by Mrs. Mothersell.

New Officers For Nursery

Election of officers for the spring session of the Coast Cooperative Nursery School was held recently at the Riviera school. Those chosen were Mrs. Leslie Libbea, president; Mrs. Trace Toovey, vice president; Mrs. John Mosher, secretary; and Mrs. John H. Collier, treasurer. Names of committee chairmen will be announced later.

The Fathers' Work Committee, under chairman Jack Spencer, will meet at the Robert K. Downs' home at 7:30 on Thursday evening, Feb. 21, for organizational purposes. The fathers' meeting will take place instead of the regularly scheduled Workshop of the mothers.

A number of the members of the nursery school attended the UCLA Cooperative Conference on Saturday, Feb. 2. The theme was "Co-ops Go to College." Reports from the conference will be heard and materials from the exhibit will be displayed at the Feb. 28 meeting. Those representing the Coast Cooperative Nursery were Mrs. Robert K. Downs, education chairman; Mrs. Leslie Libbea, president; Mrs. Manny Barkin, Mrs. Azile Kokos, director of the nursery, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Estey.

TULIP FESTIVAL

Attending the "Tulip Festival" staged by the Crippled Children's League of Los Angeles at the Beverly Hilton last Saturday were Mmes. Delbert Thomsen, Walter Clausing, Rod Norris and Ralph Ruffgraf of Torrance.

RESORT WEEKEND

Spending a long week end at their cabin at Lake Arrowhead, were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barrington, and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Barrington and their children, Lesley, Claudia, and Stacy; Mr. and Mrs. Scott Wilhelm; Mr. and Mrs. Forest Riegel and Cmdr. John Graham.

City of Hope Chapter Sees Films at Winter Luncheon

Nearly 200 South Bayans attended the winter quarterly luncheon meeting of the South Bay chapter of City of Hope held Jan. 30 at the Plush Horse to see the color film "Skyline, New York" and to meet and hear Mrs. Erik A. Gude of Palos Verdes, guest speaker.

Mrs. Gude is one half of the winning team on the quiz program, "Do You Trust Your Wife," showing every Tuesday night on Channel 2. This was her first experience speaking to a large club group and the wholehearted opinion of everyone was that she is most entertaining and delightful, according to the many reports the president of the chapter received. Mrs. Gude answered questions about the TV program, as well as the countries in which she has lived, and how she met and married Mr. Gude. Gude was a naval officer during the Korean war, having graduated from Annapolis in 1950.

After a short business meeting presided over by Mrs. V. J. Coverstone, and a report by Mrs. W. J. Pyatt about the Jan. 13 regional roll call of City of Hope in which she stressed the democratic concepts expressed at City of Hope, the founder and president emeritus, Mrs. Herman Markowitz, presented Al Douglas of TWA who showed the films of the chapter's trip project which will raise funds for the children's wing. The pictured airflight to New York and places visited showed much that is included in the project "Broadway Excursion," which includes eight features on the theater tour. The award is to be made in May at a benefit party. Each one was asked to help on the project which will in turn help in the fight against tuberculosis, cancer, heart, and leukemia through intense research and patient care.

Chairmen have been named to distribute the "Broadway Excursion" tickets and any board member of the chapter may be contacted for supplies. TWA, Inc., assisted in planning the trip, and also presented favors to all guests at the luncheon.

Four new members were welcomed: Mmes. John Aust of Hermosa Beach, R. R. Smith of Torrance, Ernest Myer of Palos Verdes, and Mrs. Gude.

New Sea Aires In 'Do-Si-Do'

Newly organized Sea Aires square dance group held its third dance on Feb. 2, at the Sea Aire Field House, Reynolds and Luping Dr. This group, which is sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Dept., meets every first and third Saturdays. It is for beginners with experience and intermediates. Clarence Barrow is the caller.

Attending the last dance were: Bette and Neal Howard, Bill and Carol Armont, Ralph and Erma Engstrom, Floyd and Jane Schack, Harky and Aline Westfall, Dick and Ethel Craig, Tom and Chuck Thompson, Fae and Don Thompson, Randall and Edna Thompson, Tommy and Irene Hollingsworth.

Also, Bill and Roberta Parker, Bill and Marie Ure, Floyd and Nancy Hollingsworth, Walt and Lee Virgil, Bill and Dolores Marleau, Cleve and Beverly Sprague, Bill and Tammy Thompson, Harley and Rae Eye, Mary and Doris Hale.

Others were Bill and Lena Graham, Betty Jo and Milton Graham, Betty and H. R. Danielson, Sandy Elliotts, Joy and Steve Swenson, Madeline and William Buckley, Mary and Sal Cardinal, Pat and Mark Caldwell and Home and Virginia Morgan.

The next dance is set for Feb. 16.

Pi Phi See Africa Film

Regular meeting of Pi Phi Chapter, of Beta Sigma Phi sorority was held on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Paul Peterson.

A brief talk on parliamentary procedure was presented by the parliamentarian, Mrs. B. J. Garrison.

The program, "Beauty in Objects of Natural Beauty" was given by the program chairman, Mrs. Stephen Nicely. This consisted of films taken by Mrs. Nicely's husband, who was stationed in Africa. Many lovely scenes and landscapes were shown of the country of Africa.

It was decided that the meeting of April 10, will be devoted to the Cancer Crusade, with all members participating in the Cancer Crusade March.

Mrs. Kenneth King, who has been on a leave for two months, was welcomed back by all members.

It was announced that Mrs. Donald A. Bromley of Inglewood, Queen of the Sweetheart's Ball, given Feb. 9, would be crowned the night of the ball by the mayor of Manhattan Beach, Thoms P. Foye, instead of B. J. Garrison as was previously stated.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Paul Peterson. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 20, in the home of Mrs. Donald A. Bromley, 10242 Darby Ave., Inglewood.

AFIS Pupils To Address ME Society

Three students from foreign lands who are studying in Torrance high schools and being cared for in foster homes in this area will be the guest speakers at the meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church this morning.

Carl Hoybye, from Copenhagen, whose foster mother is Mrs. E. Pulliam; Christa Volkman, of Vienna, whose foster mother is Mrs. Dale Harter; and Tom Quaglin, son of Mrs. Emma Garrison, will be guests of the society for luncheon, at noon, and for the afternoon session. Miss Kathleen Taylor will represent the Methodist Youth Fellowship group and Mrs. John B. Mosley, president of the Torrance Council of United Church Women, will introduce the students. The theme of the day will be "Whom Shall I Send?" and the worship service will be led by Mrs. A. Sielaff.

The morning session will begin with meditation at 10 o'clock followed by a business session with Mrs. C. P. Olson, president, in charge. Mrs. Roy Goree, program chairman, has arranged for Mrs. Lillian Baker, spiritual life secretary of the WSCS to speak to the group at the morning session.
