 By reason of the annexation of this area, known as the "Lomita Area," substantial benefits will accrue to the present and future residents therein. A well informed local government concerned with and sympathetic to the problems of the Lomita area and its residents will be substituted for a government with headquarters twenty miles away. This local handling of local problems combined with the City of Torrance's low tax rate and its well directed police, fire and other civic agencies will improve the desirability of the area to industrial, commercial and residential development.
