Pair Terrorized By Bandits at Torrance Dairy

A teen-aged boy and a young woman clerk were terrorized Tuesday night by two bandits who robbed the Verberg Dairy at 2093 W. 174th St., of about $250, according to police.

Betty White, 22, of 2635 W. 175th St., and William Verberg, 15, of the 174th St. address, were threatened with a revolver brandished by one of the robber team.

The gunman shoved young Verberg from his perch on a counter and forced the woman to put cash from the till into a paper bag. The second bandit, who entered shortly after his accomplice, kept watch by the door.

The men escaped in an auto parked near the store. Both wore sunglasses and were described as in their early twenties and of medium complexion. One was about six feet tall and the other some five inches shorter.

John T. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom M. Jones, 3020 Winlock Rd., and Arthur L. Laury, son of Mrs. Clela Parsons, 3338 Dalemead, are scheduled to graduate from recruit training Saturday at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," will include a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

Lomita Man Sought for Exposing Self

Sheriff's deputies yesterday were seeking a man who could be the "masked nude" who has made periodic forays in Lomita clad only in a paper bag over his head.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wallace, 2263 Pacific Coast Hwy., said they watched Monday a man wearing no pants get out of a car and made obscene gestures in front of their home. The following day, the man returned and blew kisses at the window, they said.

The man matched the description of a man whom Mrs. Tanya Collins, 26532 Lucille Ave., reported had been following her for several nights and who had invited her into his car.

Deputies reported were told that the man also bears similarities to the "masked nude," who has been sought for two years after making periodic appearance to women in the area.
