BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

RETAIL CANDY STORE

Haas Chocolates of Oakland, California, will soon open a local retail candy store in Torrance and would like to contact a responsible man or woman who would be interested in acting as owner-manager.

This is an opportunity for association with a 74 year old firm which has been famous for Quality Candies since 1882.

No previous experience necessary as Company will completely establish the store and provide company supervision.

This is an exceptional opportunity and applicants must have excellent character and credit references.

APPROXIMATELY $4,200 WILL HANDLE

Interested parties write, giving Phone Number and Address so that local confidential interview may be arranged. Write Haas Chocolates, 6021 College Avenue, Oakland 18, California.

Brundins to Host Music Club Friday

Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brundin, 805 Teri Ave., will be the hosts for the Inglewood Music Club for their regular monthly meeting.

Approximately 25 members are expected. Those from Torrance are Mr. and Mrs. Earle Peterson, Mrs. Ralph George and Rev. Don Shelby. Mrs. Peterson, Richard Brundin and Rev. Shelby will sing during the evening and they will be accompanied by Mrs. Brundin, who will also play some piano solos.

During the latter part of the evening, the group will join in singing choral music with one of the four directors present directing the group. The directors are Nell Hill, head of choral music at El Camino College, Rev. Don Shelby, minister of music and assistant pastor at the First Methodist Church in Torrance, William Galen, choir director at the Lutheran Church in Inglewood, and Earle Peterson, who is music instructor in the Long Beach schools.

Invitations were sent out in the shape of black grand pianos with white lettering. The house decorations will carry out the same theme. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the evening.

FABULOUS FASHIONS . . . for Spring were viewed by 375 guests at the Court of Our Lady of Victory Fashion show at the Plush Horse last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Frieda Fine served as commentator. Two outstanding fashions modeled here, are worn by Mrs. Ernest Russell, left, an imported sheer cotton in stripes and checks, featuring the new romance sleeves. The unpressed pleat is also another feature. At the right, Mrs. Delmar Bach models an after-five for the mother to be. This is in black chantilly over aqua satin and black velvet. It has the off-shoulder neckline and a Taffoni velvet skirt. With this she wears a black velvet picture hat.

Shower Fetes Mrs. Bingham

Mrs. Charles Bingham, the former Jeannie Woodall, was complimented at a pretty blue and yellow baby shower last Wednesday evening. The party was given by Mrs. Jack Tobin and Mrs. Edgar Lush at the Tobin home, 500 Rindge Lane.

A blue and yellow umbrella stood over the shower gift array and a decorated cake with a blue and yellow cradle was on the table.

After the games, the honoree opened her gifts. The hostesses then served refreshments.

Attending the shower were: Mmes. Floyd Woodall, William Tallon, William Green, William Atwood, Emmett Jennings, Frank Paour, Edward Powell, Luke Wyson, Harvey Rushvett, Calvin Browning, Mitzie Davis and Misses Pat Raybon and Diane Davis.

Sending presents but unable to attend were Mmes. Jack Page, Frank Raybon, Glenn Raybon and William Johnston.

Rush Party For New Unit

Mrs. William Kincaid, 2528 Via Rivera, Palos Verdes Estates was hostess last night in an informal rush party for the purpose of forming a "Sister Chapter" to the Gamma Omega Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, a non-academic, cultural and philanthropic sorority. "Sister Chapter" guests attending from Torrance were Mrs. Don Lynch, Mrs. George Benson, Mrs. Kenneth Hutchins, and Mrs. Jack Wallin. Mrs. William Weathers of Hawthorne and Mrs. Arthur Grigg of Gardena were also interested guests learning more about ESA.

Handweaver Guild Show On Weekend

Mrs. Phyllis Dow, 25333 Oak St., Lomita, past president of the Southern California Handweavers' Guild, will display her skill at spinning with spindles at the Guild's Annual Exhibit and Fashion Show to be held at Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles. Saturday and Sunday, March 9 and 10, are the dates of the exhibit, and it will be open from 1 to 9 p.m. on Saturday and from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Sunday, March 10.

The fashion show, under Mrs. C. M. Gale, will be given at 2 p.m. each day, according to Mrs. Anna Marek, president. Sportswear, casual, after-five dresses, suits and coats, for men, women and children, made of fabrics woven by the members will be modeled in the auditorium.

Of great interest will be the Mary Meigs Atwater Collection which features ancient and very valuable textiles collected from Europe, Central and South America, Mexico and Canada, as well as a number of old coverlets so prevalent in colonial days in this country. Her very large and valuable collection of books on weaving, many of them out-of-print and very rare, will also be on display. Included too are the several books and innumerable articles written by Mrs. Atwater and the crafts and samples she made to illustrate them. It is hoped that this collection can be readied and installed in the Los Angeles County Museum in the near future, according to Mrs. Marek.

The Guild, which is the largest organization of its kind in the United States, having approximately 500 members, has just passed its 10th year as an organization.

Las Vecinas Chorus Sings For Kiwanis

As a result of a very successful musical presentation at the February meeting of their own club, the Las Vecinas choral group was asked to entertain the Palos Verdes Kiwanis Club last Wednesday at the Palos Verdes Country Club, according to Matt Brunning, program chairman.

As part of their inter-club program, the Lomita Kiwanis Club was invited as special guests to the meeting. Lt. Gov. Clyde Walker, of Division 19, also spoke at the meeting.

Members of the Las Vecinas choral group, directed by Mrs. E. R. Harvey, are Mmes. Max Webber, George Creighton, Marion Phillips, John Kinsey, Thomas O'Malley, Theo Linhart, Ross Dorsett, Theodora Ledbetter, Thomas Bissett, Walter Hall, Willard Wanks, Jack Warner, Fred Filgiano and Peter Jurisich. They were accompanied by Eileen Paddelford.

The program consisted of Las Vecinas' version of the Hit Parade. The various numbers were presented somewhat in skit fashion, complete with costumes. Mrs. Webber and Mrs. Creighton appeared in short dresses as Patience and Prudence.

Music Topic At Nursery

The parent education class of the Torrance Nursery School held a music workshop Monday evening, Feb. 18, to teach the membership how to use the autoharp. This instrument has been recently purchased by the school to use in singing with the children.

Mrs. Don McLean brought her guitar. Mrs. Ralph Carr and Mrs. Henry Morgan played the piano. These women had practiced previously to acquaint themselves with the autoharp and had selected several songs to teach the other members.

A surprise feast of hot dogs, buns and coffee was provided by the directory, Mrs. Milton Barter, to round out the pleasant evening of community singing.

The monthly pot-luck dinner of the Torrance Nursery School will feature Eva Schindler, of the Education Division of UCLA, as speaker. The dinners are held every fourth Monday at the Torrance High School teachers cafeteria at 7 p.m. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

For information regarding application to the Torrance Nursery School, call Mrs. Ray Richhart.

Mothers Club Holds Meet

Mothers Club, Job's Daughters Bethel 50, met at the home of Mrs. Carl Osterlip on Eldorado with Mrs. Ray Neeley as co-hostesses.

A report was read on the club's successful Jell-o Club project just completed and Mrs. Jesse Rowe announced the present ways and means project, a vanilla and spice sale, is progressing nicely.

Plans were made for the serving of the annual Torrance Council of Parent-Teacher honorary life membership dinner, staged last Monday at the Masonic Temple.

For the inspirational message, Mrs. William Hornbeck read a poem, "Things I Wish I Had Known When I Was 31."

Mrs. William O. Hoy, president, announced the March meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. George Powell. The hostesses then served refreshments to the 25 mothers attending.
