If you chanced to view many persons in western garb going towards Perry School last Thursday evening, you should have followed. It was the meeting night of the Perry PTA when they presented their Founders Day program, "The Saga of Perryville."

Everyone was treated to a view of Elvira and Elvis Presley who be-bopped like no one has ever be-bopped before! It was interesting to note that the "baby" in the crib was not really a baby at all but instead, the husband of the PTA president, Ted Jackson.

Most excited gentleman in our community was D. Minear upon receiving a large sized picture of his son David, who is going to graduate from his favorite school in Luray, Kan.

Joann Runsted, 18236 Roslin Ave., who is a North High freshman hosted a canasta party on Friday, serving cold drinks and ice cream to her guests. Mother Runsted provided background organ music for the card playing group.

Get-well wishes are being extended to Gloria Hernandez who took a trek to the hospital this past week. Also to Jeanne Ellis who has had the stomach flu for the past six days.

Mrs. Delno Hart was very pleased with the coffee carafe set she won as first prize at the Feb. 25 North Torrance Canasta Lassies game. Mrs. Erich Schuster took home a ceramic planter, booby prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newton were a very surprised two-some when neighbors gathered round to sing anniversary wishes for the couple celebrating their 11th wedding anniversary. Everyone in attendance was loaded down with gifts and refreshments.

Dining at the Little Sir with Mrs. John Arensmeyer, Mrs. R. F. Dohner, Mrs. A. L. Blake and Mrs. Glenn Blake proved to be a very enjoyable evening and we are all looking forward to next year for we hope it becomes an annual affair.

A menu of fried chicken, potato salad, ice cream and cake along with a chocolate drink was enjoyed by the 14 guests who helped Connie Jensen celebrate her 11th birthday on Feb. 23.

The charming miss received several much-wanted phonograph records along with a couple of purses, socks, a sweater, shoes and a portable sewing machine.

Happiest person in town at this moment is Sally Wisdom, 18313 Roslin Ave., whose husband is doing a complete kitchen interior decorating job.

Edith Henning and her husband, Doug, got rid of a skunk which had decided to room in their garage and with nary any bad effects!

Happy birthday to Anthony Roza, 18336 Roslin Ave., whose family planned a special surprise.

Mrs. Amos Chadwick has been a pretty sick little lady.

Judy Gilmer will long remember her 10th birthday for she and nine of her girl friends took in Marineland on her birthday.

They later proceeded to the Long Beach fun zone where they enjoyed the many rides before returning home for ice cream and cake.

Among the many young adults who graced the dance floor of the Palladium having the time of their lives we saw Ellen Davis, Jim Ludlow, Patricia Scott and Glenn Anderson.

Mrs. Lewis LeFrancis, 1008 Firmona St., has an illness that has been keeping her very inactive.

Mr. and Mrs. William Allen along with daughters, Deborah and Candice hosted Valentine parties!

The grown-up party was to be held in the living room while the gals' was to be in the rumpus room. Before the evening was over they had combined their parties and with guests even overflowing the kitchen. They all settled to three hour game of charades.

After this, dozens and dozens of ham and beef fresh dips were devoured along with nine banana cream pies, four chocolate pies, gallons of coffee and two cases of Cokes.

Another family who celebrated Valentine's Day was the A. B. Waddell threesome.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Adams are going to celebrate their 15th wedding anniversary with friends and relatives in Oregon.

They had not returned to that state for 12 years so decided that their gift to each other this year would be a trip back home. They will fly and return about the middle of March. Kind neighbors are taking care of pet parakeet and cat.

Richard Collier, 18545 Regina Ave., has caused much comment with his sudden tallness.

Unfortunately, we always look upon these young people whom we've known for years as wee ones and can hardly believe when they relate their age as teenagers!

Lucky Ralph Harding arrived home to discover his favorite turkey dinner with all the trimmings prepared for his birthday on Feb. 17.

His favorite lemon meringue pie was baked, two of them, then he was presented with his gift from his wife and three youngsters, a portable television set.
