Cub Pack 953C

Mrs. Clarabell Lang was elected president of the Mothers' Club of Cub Scout Pack 953C at the group's February meeting.

Others on the executive board include Mrs. William Martin, vice president, and publicity chairman; Mrs. Yutaka Mikami, secretary; Mrs. Lois Rance, treasurer; Mrs. Ethel Johnson, hospitality and correspondence; Mrs. L. R. McCown, and Mrs. Alfred Wagner, ways and means.

Cubs also held their annual Blue and Gold dinner, meeting with their families at Crenshaw school for a pot luck dinner. Bobcats Alfred Wagner Jr. and Jerry Schwarz were welcomed into the pack.

The following Cubs received awards:
 Den 1—Steve Walton, John Rance, David Rance, Chris Prescott.

Den 2—Rod Baillie, Art Ewart, Steve Price, Bill Russell, and Ray Andicochea.

Den 3—James McCown, Terry Martin, Glen Mikami, Alfred Wierenga, and Ronnie Chavez.

Den 4—Richard Butterfield. Den 5—Bobby Hiromoto. Den 6—Jerry Osborne, Jimmy Pederson, and George Fulton.

Den 7—Billy Ament. Mothers sponsored a skating party as a gift to the boys during the month also.

Brownie Troop 580

Brownie Troop 580, sponsored by the Howard Wood PTA, had its investiture ceremonies for three new members recently. Brought into the club during the ceremonies were Susan Clark, Erica Morgan, and Dianie DeWitt.

Two members of the troop received their world and year pins. They were Arylene Clark and Norma Wainwright.

Five girls received two-year pins. They included Shirley Frayne, Judy Wyrick, Kathy Tidmarsh, Jeannette Scirie, and Cleon McComas.

Corsages were presented to the mothers by their daughters, and refreshments were served after the formal meeting.

Leaders of the troop are Phyllis Morgan and Katherine DeWitt.

Brownie Troop 566

Brownie Troop 566 celebrated its first birthday with a party for their mothers last week. Mothers and Brownies played games and the new Brownies presented the older girls to their leaders, Mrs. Carl Wahl and Mrs. Jane Ackerman, who gave them their one-year pins.

President Kay Roberts presided and Dolores Jones called the roll. Carol Goodrich read a review of the first year of the organization.
