"My Fair Lady" Elegance Theme for Fashion Show

An air of quiet elegance will predominate when Las Vecinas presents its "Fair Lady" Fashion Show at noon on Thursday, April 4, in the Pacific Ballroom at the Statler Hotel. Antique white and gold candelabras with gold-encrusted candles and dainty floral bouquets will set the theme at each table. Programs and favors will also carry the rich sheen of gold.

Following cocktails and luncheon, spring fashions by Helft will be shown. The "Fair Lady" fashions will illustrate how women can be smartly dressed yet at their most appealingly feminine best.

The fashion show is under the direction of Mrs. T. R. Corazza and Mrs. Conway Candler. The decoration committee, headed by Mrs. Robert Anderson, is composed of Mmes. Quinton Johnson, Burt S. Durst, Thomas W. Backus, Bernard Beard, Mel Hellinger, Hewitt Coleman, Jack Hatch, George Vico, Theo Ledbetter and Fred Filgiano.

Mrs. John Diehl is the chairman of the door prize committee, and those working with her are Mmes. Frank Cowles, James Jordan, R. W. Klock, J. D. Smillie, Ernest Hoyt, R. G. Stout, William Reid, Robert L. Forshee, Bruce Mapes, Gerald King, August Muizers and Carl Wolff.

CARNATIONS FOR THE COLLEENS... to be distributed at the door were made by JayCettes at their meeting held to complete plans for the annual St. Patrick dance slated for Saturday evening at the Palms. The holder of the lucky shamrock will be given the door prize. Jerry Grey's "Marvels" will provide dance music from 9 until 1. Shown working on the shamrocks are, from left, Mrs. John Mangan, Mrs. Bob Johnston and Mrs. Leonard Radford.

Torrance Legion Auxiliary Hostess to District Meet

Approximately 200 guests were present for the luncheon and program when the Bert S. Crossland American Legion Unit Auxiliary entertained the 19th district of the American Legion Auxiliary at the Legion Hall here recently.

Mrs. DeVore Walden of Long Beach, district president, presided at the meeting, opening with a welcome to all visiting delegates among whom was Mrs. Sylvia Sehorn, of Shasta, state president.

In her speech to the group, Mrs. Sehorn emphasized the need for more patriotic women in the world today to uphold the fine principles of justice, freedom and democracy.

Mrs. August Flory of Merced, state chairman of Americanism, pointed out the homage paid to national presidents and stressed the active part the organization plays in character building in youth groups.

Membership achievement in community service was accorded the South Bay Unit 184 Auxiliary represented by Mmes. John Renke, Alice Newbanks, Myrtle Hines, Beryl Tower, Beryl Jones and Agnes Wright. Presentation was made by Mrs. Louise Lyman, district vice president.

The South Bay group was also commended for its donation of $100 to the new Little Company of Mary Hospital to be built soon.

Recognition was made to Mrs. Alice Newbanks by the state president for her 2000 hours of volunteer service at a Long Beach hospital. She received a hospital bar. Also cited for outstanding hours of service was Mrs. Pauline Rice, who received a hospital bar.

B'nai B'rith Meets Today

Next open board meeting of South Bay B'nai B'rith Women will be at the home of Mrs. Mack Brown, 1518 W. 152nd St., Gardena, on Thursday, March 14. Plans will be discussed in regard to a big rummage sale to be held on April 5.

Final arrangements are now being made for the Chapter's annual Passover celebration, "The Matzoh Ball." The setting for his dance will be the popular Alondra Club in Lawndale. Outstanding entertainment and many surprises will be in store for all who attend.

According to Cookbook-Adbook chairman, Mrs. Earl Erdman of Torrance, "Tasty Treasures," a collection of all types of unique recipes, is ready for distribution. For further information or transportation to the meeting, contact chapter president, Mrs. Bernard Snitzer, 2720 W. 174th St., in Torrance.

Gamma Psis Open Season

With the guests coming dressed as titles of records, Gamma Psis held their first spring rushing social on Tuesday, Feb. 26, at the home of Mrs. Robert Kessenich, 18911 Yukon Ave.

The party was in honor of Mrs. Doris Hoffman, Mrs. Christine Tuebert and Mrs. Dorothy Jodrey. Games were played and a treasure hunt held with records given as prizes.

The refreshments featured a large angel food cake decorated like a record, the names Gamma Psi and Epsilon Sigma Alpha written on the top. Plans are being made by the sorority for their next rushing event which will be a box social.

DOWS ENTERTAIN HOUSEGUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Dow, 25333 Oak St., Lomita, had as their house guests recently Oscar and Dorothy Bryan of San Francisco. They are the West Coast representatives for the Handweaver and Craftsman Magazine.

The Bryans were collecting material for a story on two-harness weaving. They took a number of pictures of rugs and serapes in the Dow home. Following their visit Mrs. Dow went to San Diego to hear Mr. and Mrs. Bryan give the first of a series of talks they are presenting on the west coast on two-harness weaving. They also showed a number of colored slides and some samples of the two-harness weaving done by Mrs. Dow.

ALL IN THE EAR

What you see in this girl's ear is Sonotone's new hearing aid - complete. IT'S WORN ENTIRELY IN THE EAR - no cord, no extra "button." This smallest Sonotone ever weighs only half an ounce, including smallest battery used in hearing aid.

Women, of course, cover everything with their hairdos. On men, this amazing hearing aid is barely noticeable from any angle.

You just have to see this new transistor masterpiece to believe it. Triumph of 25-year search by Sonotone engineers for hearing aid worn entirely in ear.
