Mr. Winters Finds Air Drafty As Nail Proves His Undoing

By VERA WRIGHT
FR 2-2258

Douglas Winters will make sure from now on that he checks the seat of his trousers before boarding a bus.

Although it seemed rather drafty, he still didn't realize that upon arising from the bench to board the bus a nail acting like a pair of scissors made off with a 4 1/2-inch piece of Doug's trousers!

After rising several times to permit ladies to sit down he realized that he was the center of attention. He never did find out why till he reached his front door where 4-year-old son Dougie quickly informed him.

It's no wonder he leaves an hour early and arrives home an hour late these evenings!

Wee Lassie Jeannette Ellen Woods celebrated her second birthday on Tuesday.

Grandma Patton, Jessie Cable, Pat Dohner, Madeleine Brooks and Vera Wright were gathered together by Alice MacKenzie, 4332 W. 179th St., to help Claudine R. Blake celebrate her birthday March 13.

Handsome Glenn Blake, husband of the honoree, helped keep the party a surprise, which goes to prove that sometimes men can keep a secret!

The Cecil Davis family, 18337 Roslin Ave., who have suffered the loss of a relative in their home state, Oklahoma, Clara and Cecil Davis and son, Ernie Wayne, just returned after having attended the funeral proceedings.

Diane Lee always celebrates her birthday on St. Patrick's Day!

The sweet lass who is now 11 is planning a picnic at Griffith Park but what she doesn't know is that 15 of her best friends will be meeting her there to help her celebrate as well as join her horseback riding and bicycling.

Ten fried chickens, two gallons of potato salad, potato chips, olives and five gallons of punch topped off with homemade ice cream and layer cake should make for interesting eating. I hope that Diane won't be too tired and sleepy to view her very portable television set when she gets home! This will be an extra surprise for she recently purchased a party frock which she thought was her birthday present!

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ashley, 18320 Ashley Ave., recently hosted the February meeting of the Los Angeles Harbor Grange 774.

The couple received many compliments on their refreshments—jello, salad, coffee, and cake.

Among those in attendance were Nellie Gillette, Master Steven McMahon, B. Harriman, Grace Holdaway, Elaine Holdaway, Larnes Davies, Dola Weavers, Mettie Craig, Mrs. H. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson.

Rev. and Mrs. Leland Pisel, Mr. and Mrs. S. Keeping, Tony Keeping, Mr. and Mrs. R. Babet, Mr. and Mrs. C. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. C. Scrivens, Mr. and Mrs. R. Toth, Mr. and Mrs. B. Uken, Mr. and Mrs. R. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. L. Preston, Mrs. C. Prentice, Douglas Williams, Mrs. E. Simons, Mrs. F. Richardson, Mrs. L. Anderson, Mrs. Elmer Ecker, Mrs. A. Condon, Mrs. C. Davis and Mrs. B. Bragunier comprised the interested group from the El Nido First Baptist Church who were anxious to view Chinatown with its many quaint shops, bright lights and foreign splendor.

A 100 per cent Chinese dinner was enjoyed by the group before the end of the tour.

Mary and John Kenyon, who celebrate their 10th wedding anniversary on the same day Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wright celebrate their 17th, which is on Monday, March 18. The John Kenyons are celebrating by taking a week-end jaunt to Las Vegas, all expenses paid, through the courtesy of their relatives!

Mrs. Glen Runsted, 18236 Roslin Ave., hosted the March 11 party of the North Torrance Canasta Lasses. Peach cobbler and coffee were served to Mrs. Sarah Hooker, Claudine Blake, Alice MacKenzie, Wanda Hart, Therese Schuster, Vera Wright and Pat Dohner while Mrs. Delno Hart opened her first prize gift and Mrs. Roy Dohner opened the hooby prize.

Mrs. A. Martin and Mrs. A. Ashley hosted a birthday party for their offspring, Sandy Ashley and Kim Martin, at 18321 Ashley Ave., the Martin domicile.

Those viewing the birthday cake shaped like a carousel, ate ice cream, cake and popcorn and drank lemonade were Kim Martin, Sandy Ashley, Roberta Foster, Janet Bray, Sheila Sullivan, Ronnie Martin and Darryl Campbell.

Mrs. Amos Chadwick entertained with brunch at her 18304 Roslin Ave. home while guests Mrs. Jerry Westmoreland and Mrs. Glen Runsted assisted in marking the many articles donated for the El Nido PTA rummage and white elephant sale.

Willa Lee Harris hosted a group of ladies who attended El Camino to listen to a well-known famous anthropologist, Dr. Ashley Montagu, speak on a well liked subject—women.

While sipping coffee and enjoying a repast of date nut bread the group interchanged ideas and compared notes on the speaker, his subject, and their children.

Corned beef and cabbage topped off with apple pie and cheese were enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart on their 19th wedding anniversary.

Since that menu is the Stewarts' favorite, their many neighbors combined their efforts to provide them with their favorite meal. Seconds and thirds were permissible. I'm told that it was just a good thing that John Ellis doesn't like corned beef and cabbage. Otherwise he would have eaten more than three platesful!

Mark the date, April 28, on your calendar.

That is the day that the American Field Service, Torrance Chapter, will hold a breakfast in the civic auditorium to raise funds to help bring more foreign students to Torrance. We should all get behind this way and means venture—100 per cent.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wingard with son Harold Jr. are spending a week with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Spencer, in San Diego.
