Christian Science funeral services for Mrs. Estelle Myrtle Viau, 61, of 1317 Amapola Ave., will be read at Stone and Myers Chapel Thursday afternoon at 2. Mrs. Viau, who had made her home here for the past 10 years, died March 18.

She is survived by her husband, Arthur C. Viau; two sons, Howard Dallimore of Bakerfield, and Walter Dallimore of San Lorenzo, Calif., and a sister, Mrs. Mabel Brummer of Ozone Park, N.Y.

Private burial rites will be held at Long Beach City Cemetery tomorrow.

Board Approves Gate Between School, Park

A gate between Seaside School and Sea-Aire Park was authorized Tuesday night by the Torrance Board of Education.

The request was made by the Recreation Department.

Victim Nabs Three Juveniles in Home

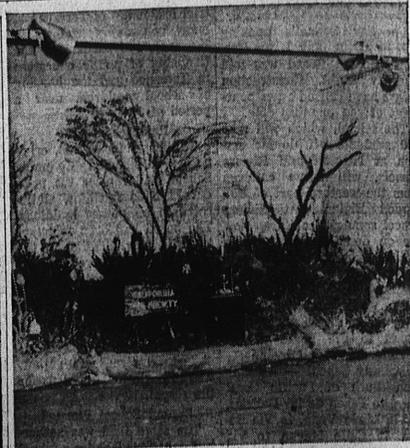

Three juvenile burglars were nabbed by a local woman at her home and turned over to police Tuesday.

Mrs. Harriet Glass of 3127 W. 188th St., said she found the youngsters, aged 9 and 10 years old, in her home when she returned.

The victim said it was the second entry of her dwelling in two days. Several lamps were taken in the first foray.

WINS SHOW HONORS . . . This entry of the City of Torrance at the International Flower Show was among the award winners, it was announced this week. Here Sandy Gish shows off the trophy presented by the sponsors. The exhibit was arranged by Florist Johnny Johnson for the Chamber of Commerce.

ANOTHER WINNER . . . The California Iris Society received a handsome trophy for its entry in the Flower Show now in progress at Hollywood Park. Mrs. Elsa Stone, president of the society, supervised the award-winning arrangement.

KITE WINNERS NAMED DESPITE HIGH WINDS

Despite high winds, the second annual kite contest sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department was held last Saturday behind the Civic Center. Kites ranged from one the size of a man's hand to another 12 feet high and nine feet wide.

Prizes were awarded in six categories and two age divisions for youngsters nine and under and for children ten and over. "Woody" Tiernan headed the kite-flying contest. All of the kites had to fly to be eligible for an award.
