

Beau Jardin Club Elects New Officers for 1957-58

Mrs. John Cariveau is the new president of the Beau Jardin Garden Club. She was elected at a meeting of the club held at the home of Mrs. William Cressy, 22414 Warm-side Ave. Mrs. John Regan and Mrs. Fred Worgul were co-hostesses.

Serving with Mrs. Cariveau will be Mrs. Donald Drorbaugh, vice president; Mrs. Fred Worgul, recording secretary; Mrs. Kenneth Harmon, treasurer; and Mrs. Albert Yackle.

The new officers will be installed at a ceremony and dinner at a Manhattan restaurant, on March 26, with Mrs. Darrell Smith, honorary member, installing.

The program of the evening was a talk by Mrs. Donald Drorbaugh on the "Passion Vine." The flower of this vine has the symbols of crucifixion and the plant itself is said to be "the most wondrous example of the cross of the Lord ever discovered in forest and fields."

A flower spelling game was played which was won by Mrs. John Beattie who had a perfect score.

A Passion Vine was won by Mrs. John Cariveau, and a Bird of Paradise, donated by Mrs. John Cariveau, was won by Mrs. John Blair.

A lovely shamrock flower centerpiece and refreshments carried out the St. Patrick's Day theme. Present at the meeting were Meses, William Adkins, John Beattie, John Blair, L. D. Burt, John Cariveau, William Cressy, Donald Drorbaugh, Leo Hayes, Robert Hill, Kenneth Moe, John Regan, Fred Worgul, and Albert Yackle. Guest present was Mrs. James Foster.

Golden Wedding Bells Ring For Mr. & Mrs. Harry H. Coil

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Coil, 15130 Raymond Ave., Gardena, who celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary on Saturday, March 16, were honored guests at an open house on Sunday given by their sons and wives.

Mr. and Mrs. Coil, who came to Torrance in June 1928, moved to Gardena in 1941. All of their children were graduated from Torrance High school. They are the parents of Edward Coil of Compton, Ken of Lynwood, Ronald of Lomita, Vernon of Torrance, and James, who is serving with the Merchant Marines. All except James were here for Sunday's celebration. Their grandchildren are Dennis, Nancy, Penny, Coleen, and Kenneth, who is stationed in Virginia with the Army.

Mr. Coil was retired from Columbia Steel in October 1953 after a service of 25 years as pipefitter foreman. Here for the week end was a sister, Mrs. Lola Sullivan of Puente, who was present at the wedding which took place in Brigham City, Utah, on March 18, 1907.

The Coil home was beautifully decorated for Sunday's reception. Carrying out the golden anniversary theme, a floral arrangement was made of white stock gilded gold, gold leaves and bird of paradise. Other artistic arrangements were of giant yellow chrysanthemums, yellow daffodils and white gardenias.

Approximately 100 guests from the area attended the reception. Four granddaughters, Mrs. Dennis Coil, Joy, Nancy, and Penny Coil, presided in the dining room.

On Saturday evening, 25 relatives attended a dinner at the Hacienda Hotel honoring the golden wedding celebrants and also the 23rd anniversary of a son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Coil. All of the sons except James and all of the grandchildren except Kenneth were present at the dinner. Other relatives were Mrs. Lois Sullivan of Puente, Mr. and Mrs. John Lybrand and Mrs. Richard Chase of San Francisco, Mrs. Charles Chase, Lodi,

Party Fetes Son Leaving For Africa

A family party at the home of Mrs. Regina Cunningham, 825 Sartori, served a twofold purpose last Sunday afternoon. It was a St. Patrick celebration as well as a farewell party for Mrs. Cunningham's son, Kenneth Cunningham, 1923 Reynosa, who will leave soon on a year's assignment to Tripoli in North Africa. Mr. Cunningham is in customer's service with Northrop Aircraft and has been assigned to the company's airbase in North Africa.

Tentative plans are for his family to join him there later in the year. As soon as school is out, Mrs. Cunningham and Jorie will go to Washington state to join her parents and her son, Daniel, who makes his home there.

Those attending Sunday's dinner party were: Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cunningham and Linda, Dona, Nancy and Judy of Hawthorne; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Milligan, Pat, Mike and Jamie of Bellflower; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham and Jorie.

WHAT MILADY WILL WEAR... for spring and summer will be shown at the fashion show sponsored by the Lydia Circle of the First Christian Church in Fellowship Hall at the church on Monday evening, March 25, at 8 p.m. Style creations will be furnished by a Torrance shop and Mrs. Lee A. McCoy will be the commentator. "Fashions Around the Clock" is the theme of the show which will feature top fashions for all hours of the day. Mrs. William Parker is serving as general chairman. Staging a preview are (from left) Mrs. William Stupy, Mrs. Raymond Stewart and Mrs. Clem Bolles.

Entertains
