

Hubert Rampley New President Of Pacific Hills Homeowners

By BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4438

The Pacific Hills Homeowners' Assn. held its board meeting at the home of Mrs. John Paul Jones, Dalemead St. The officers of the coming year were elected with the name of Hubert Rampley, Winlock Dr., heading the list as president. Vice president will be Don Fillman. Ferry Alford, this year's president, will serve the association as secretary. E. J. Robinson, also of Winlock Dr., will retain the post of treasurer, a position he has filled for part of this last year.

Sergeant of arms will be Bert Pemble, Newton St. Serving on the board will be Lyle Johnson, Clark Brundage, Elvin Schoonover and Mrs. John P. Jones.

Planning to start the year with a bang, the association will have a dinner in honor of the new officers at Capri's in Torrance in the near future. The first general meeting of the new year will be held at the Walteria school the second Monday of April.

The Walteria Business Women's Club held their monthly meeting at the Palms in Torrance, enjoying a delicious meal before the business of the evening.

Ladies attending included Mrs. Loring Bigelow, Mrs. Herb Jackson, Mrs. Wilmet Lait, Mrs. Don Matthews, Mrs. Maize Moton, Mrs. Duane Nansel, Mrs. B. P. Pendleton, Mrs. Robert Sleeth Jr., Mrs. Chris Sorrenson, Mrs. Robert Waegner, Mrs. Don Whann, Mrs. Helen Wood, Mrs. Gladys Rrazier, Mrs. C. D. Wood and Dr. Eleanor Thill.

Four new members were welcomed into the organization. They were Mrs. Mollie Dowd, Mrs. Sally Iwata, Mrs. Rose Sakauye and Mrs. Bernice Schneider. Mrs. Dodd, the local librarian, gave a talk on the library in Walteria and reviewed a book, "Jed Blaine's Woman."

The next activity of the club will be sponsoring a rummage sale on April 9 at the House of Rummage, 1142 S. Pacific Ave., San Pedro.

Anyone who has rummage they would like to donate to the club may call Mrs. Don Matthews at FR 5-4953, or Mrs. Duane Nansel at DA 6-7383. They will be glad to pick up any donations.

Mrs. Ken Tucker of Danaha St. and Mrs. George Stark of the same location joined in giving friends a treat last Tuesday evening when they held a jewelry party at the Tucker residence.

The gals gathered round to see a demonstration of the sparkling jewels and to model the pieces which struck their fancy. A dessert of whipped lemon cream pudding and coffee added to the enjoyment of the guests who included Mrs. Joe Merrill, George Halland, Tom Fitzgerald, Jack Gall, James Harner and William Mitchell.

A former resident of our town was honored at a very lovely infanticating shower held at the Southwood Park home of Mrs. Mary Ferguson. Honoree was Mrs. Joyce Williams, who was the recipient of many lovely ribbon-decked gifts. Favors of tiny nut cups.

with a chocolate bootee supporting a miniature parasol were grouped round a cake decorated with sprays of rosebuds and stork complete with his bundle from heaven.

Two large white storks presided over the festivities of the evening which included games and chatter as well as gift opening. Local ladies who attended the party included Mrs. William Burgener, Bob Cramer, Irv Radtke, Bert Pemble and William Mitchell.

A wonderful way to get acquainted, and at the same time bid welcome to some new neighbors, was illustrated on Friday evening when neighbors of the R. Harles of Dalemead St. got together to give them a housewarming.

Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Eugene Anderson, Mrs. P. Leonard and Mrs. G. Flores. Altogether 11 couples were present to present the Harles with a beautiful maple whatnot shelf complete with a matched pair of milk glass vases.

Joining in the fun of hilarious games were Mr. and Mrs. L. Balcom, Mr. and Mrs. G. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. G. Flores, Mr. and Mrs. P. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. E. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. M. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. L. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Monaghan, Mr. and Mrs. W. Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Griggs, and Mr. and Mrs. Wally Shepard.

Dips and chips were consumed through the evening and then all enjoyed a luscious cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Harle with a big "thank you" on the top.

Mrs. Sally Moreno of Park St. had many stories to tell recently when she returned after spending several weeks in Guadalajara.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spalding of Madison St. spent a week in Monrovia visiting with relatives and sightseeing.

The Ivan Kettering home on Neece Ave. is full of guests these days with "family" visiting from Oregon. The welcome visitors include Mrs. Kettering's mother, Mrs. Jack G. Bergeron; Eddie Bergeron and wife, Carolyn, along with their daughter, Marva Dell. Mrs. Eddie Bergeron's mother, Mrs. Carl Clark, also joined in the visit. The guests will be here the rest of this week.

Three of the ladies of our town are stepping into positions of leadership of our youth. They are Mrs. Betty Eidsath, Martha Sharp, and Elmena Neff, all of whom are taking leadership class training for Campfire Girl work.

The Walteria PTA held its general meeting at the school auditorium Thursday, March 14. This was one of the most important meetings of the year since new officers were elected for the 1957-58 school year.

Taking the gavel as proxy next fall will be Mrs. J. B. Lawlor. Assisting her will be Mrs. Loring Bigelow, first vice president; Don Mullaney, second vice president, and Mrs. John Monaghan, third vice president. Secretary will be Mrs. Cass Russak, while treasurer will be Mrs. Glen Hardcastle. Mrs. Hector Herrera will serve as auditor, and Mrs. Bill Addington will serve as historian.

Hostesses for the meeting last Thursday evening were the fifth grade mothers who served cookies and coffee.

The program was very interesting with Henry Van Bellechem, recreation director for Torrance, being guest speaker. Mrs. Mollie Dowd, local librarian, also gave a short talk on the Walteria library. A student parent panel gave a demonstration of some of the subjects taken by the young people in our school. Students on the panel were from the rooms instructed by Frank Taylor, Isabelle Showler, and Rod Daniels.

Mrs. Lorine Beck is recuperating at home after undergoing surgery a couple of weeks ago.

Mrs. Margaret Stimson is paying a visit to the Hawthorne Community Hospital for 10 days to two weeks. She was forced to have bone surgery as an aftermath of an accident in which she broke an arm.

Tom Jones came back full of ideas and energy after attending a convention of the California Dry Cleaners' Assn. and meetings of the legislature, both in Sacramento. Present at the meetings were local members of the assembly. Tom was gone Thursday, Friday and Saturday on his jaunt.

The Walteria Kiwanis Club is planning a hang-up lot of festivity on April 6. There will be ample fun dancing to a combo group, and ample food for the healthiest of appetites at a combination dance and barbecue.

The party will be held at Nickle's Ranch on Newton St. Working on the committee for the affair is Tom Jones as chairman, with Dick Miller, Ray Roberts, Jack Sakauye, Fred Stevens, J. A. Beasley, Carol Calhoun, Frank Hunter, Bob Kikuno, and John Strech all working with him.

The Bert Pemples celebrated their anniversary in style last week end when they took a day to journey to Solvang where they enjoyed seeing the historic mission on that spot. They also visited Santa Barbara where they saw the famed courthouse and its grounds.

Troop 1378 of the Brownies held its investiture this month at the Scout Hall. Invested during the afternoon were Kathy Poirier, Cindy Wilson, Carol Martin, Blanche Hebestriest and Debbie Guthrie.

One-year pins were also presented the deserving girls, including Virginia Schatte, Deirdre Schrauben, Gloria Rose, Angeline Harner, Gale Adams, Cheryl Kelly and Chris Turner. Two of the moms were also awarded one-year pins since they have served on the committee for a year, so proudly wearing their pins home were Mrs. Betty Kelly and Mrs. Donna Schrauben.

Officiating at the ceremony were the leader and co-leader of the troop, Mrs. Elva Adams and Mrs. Laurie Hebestriest. Entertainment for the afternoon was furnished by some of the girls who gave a clever interpretation of a skit.

His seventh birthday was cause for celebration for Kevin Thill of Primm Way.

The eventful date was March 10, with Kevin and his sister, Susan, and Billy Joe Peerson and Stanley Townsend all going to Clifton's for the birthday dinner complete with cake, and then on to a show in Los Angeles.
