

Insurance Women Have Dinner Meet

Regular monthly dinner meeting for the Harbor Cities Insurance Women's Assn. was held at the Palisades home of Mrs. Frank Bakulich in San Pedro. A spaghetti supper was served in the rumpus room at tables decorated with red and white checked tablecloths and red candles. The funds raised from this dinner were to help pay the expenses to the regional convention for two delegates. These delegates are Miss Marjo Strobel of Redondo Beach and Mrs. Boyd Cooper of Torrance. The National Association of Insurance Women's regional convention was held in Salt Lake City, Utah, last week end.

President Dixie Sherrill handed her gavel to former Vice President Miss Geni Tabyanan who has taken over her new duties of president. Miss Dixie Sherrill was married March 23 at the Wayfarers' Chapel and has moved to Coronado with her husband, Lt. (jg) David Nothwang, U.S. Navy.

Mrs. W. E. Bowen was elected as the new vice president. Guests from the Long Beach Assn. of Insurance Women were Miss Reva Stewart, Miss Hazel Struthers and Miss Kay Campbell. Miss JoAnn Johnson was a guest from Redondo Beach.

Rebekah News

Plans were made for a pot luck dinner to be served on Wednesday, April 10, in the Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave., this being the next regular meeting. This will also be known as Brothers' Night and a special program will be prepared for the Brothers present. It will be open to members and their families. Dinner will be served at 6:30.

Following the dinner a short business meeting will be held in the lodge hall and after this is over, there will be a lecture and pictures by Allen Well, the delegate sent by the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows to the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth. Mr. Well will give a very interesting talk on the United Nations as well as cover the entire trip. Mrs. Ethel Grubb of El Segundo will accompany the speaker to Torrance.

During the business meeting of the Rebekahs at the meeting, Mrs. Olive Veatch and Mrs. Amy Savage were elected to be the delegates from the Torrance lodge to the Rebekah assembly at Fresno during the week of May 19 through 25.

The noble grand, Mrs. Maude Milburn appointed on the sick committee for the month of April, Mrs. Angeline Disario, Mrs. Anna Rollman and Mrs. Ila Mae Pierce.

The vice grand, Mrs. Edna Ferrin announced that she had a bake sale planned for Friday, April 19.

Mrs. Vera Moxley, district deputy president of District 66 was present at this time and gave a very interesting talk on the past year's activities. Accompanying Mrs. Moxley were members of her staff as well as the deputy marshal, Mrs. Velma Toon of Hawthorne.

Mrs. Freida Shaffer, was the hostess of the evening and she was assisted by Mrs. Minna Pistol and Mrs. Dorothy Brown.

CHI OMEGA ALUMNI MEETS

Twenty members of the South Bay Chi Omega Alumni attended the luncheon held at the Plush Horse restaurant last Saturday.

Mrs. Ray S. Anderson, philanthropic chairman, announced that April has been set aside for the April birthday party for patients at the Ocean View Sanitarium. All members interested in participating in this most worthwhile endeavor may call Mrs. Anderson for further information.

The next regular meeting will be held on the fourth Tuesday in April. Time and place will be announced later.

Conservation To Be Topic

A movie entitled "Life Blood of the Land" will introduce the subject of water conservation at the unit meetings of the League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Estates, this week.

The meetings will be held at the Art Gallery of the Palos Verdes Library on April 8, at 8 p.m., and April 9, at 10 a.m., and at the home of Mrs. H. P. Schramm, on April 9, at 8 p.m.

The Palos Verdes League will present the item studied by Leagues all over the country this year. The role of the federal government in the conservation and distribution of water supply will be discussed under the topics of water pollution, flood control and soil conservation.

Twenty-three federal agencies currently deal with the water problem, stated Mrs. Harry Johnson, chairman of the national study item. The possible means of solution, and difficulties involved in local, state and national water problems will be covered, she said.

Leading the discussions will be Mmes. James D. Hogan, G. A. Shiffrin and Joseph C. Luli. Members of the water conservation committee who gathered the material and will present it, are Mmes. Jack Chadderdon, Thomas Stout, John Baird, Emmanuel Barkin, Albert Hook, and Dee L. Johnson.

Gardening Expert Will Be Speaker

North Torrance Fuchsia Society will hear a talk by Joe Littlefield, one of the Southland's foremost garden authorities, at its meeting Tuesday April 9 at 8 p.m. at McMaster's hall. Littlefield has chosen as his topic "Planting for Summer Color and Easter Flowers."

There will also be an Easter Bonnet parade. All attending are asked to trim and wear a hat of real flowers, foliage or vegetables. Prizes will be given to both men and women.

There will also be a plant sale. Door prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served.

The public has been invited to attend the meeting and participate in the Easter Bonnet parade.

MOTHERS MEETING THIS MORNING

Mothers group meeting of the Harbor Area Exceptional Children's Foundation will be held this morning at 9:30 in the Homer Toberman Settlement House lounge, 131 N. Grand Ave., San Pedro.

On tap for discussion will be plans for "Open House at the Foundation" on April 23.

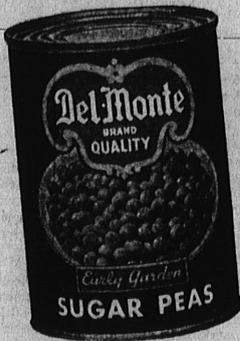

The sewing circle, composed of mothers of retarded children will continue embroidering towels and aprons for a future foundation bazaar. Mrs. Ruth Holly, Mrs. Dorothy McClellan, and Mrs. Hilda Abrams, teachers of the Primary, Intermediate, and Advanced classes respectively, will give informal talks on the progress of their classes. Refreshments will be served.
