Moose Lodge Gives $1080 To Hospital

A donation of $1080 has been pledged by the Loyal Order of the Moose, 785, and the Women of the Moose, Chapter 44 of Torrance, to the Little Company of Mary Hospital building fund campaign.

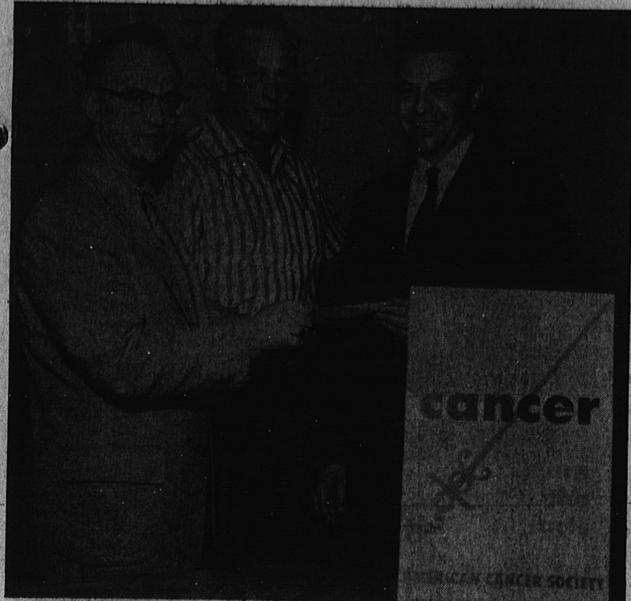

Announcement of the pledged donation was made by Daniel Desmond, governor of the local lodge, and Mrs. Leona Shiffer, president of the women's chapter. In a joint statement, they expressed the pleasure of the combined chapters in making this donation to such a worthy cause.

The fund has been designated for use in the children's ward of the proposed hospital.

James H. Johnston has been appointed as chairman of a special committee to plan ways and means projects to raise the pledged funds for the Little Company of Mary building fund.

The first of these will be a "project breakfast" which has been set up for Sunday, April 28.

Presentation of the pledge was made at the campaign headquarters of the hospital committee located at 1728 Andreo Ave., Torrance.

Classes for New Parents Set Thursday

Spring classes for expectant parents will start in the Torrance Health District, Thursday at 1 p.m., according to Dr. B. A. Kogan, district health officer. The classes will be conducted in the Torrance Health Center, 2300 Carson St.

Prospective parents are invited to the classes which meet every Thursday at 1 p.m.

"The classes in no way take the place of regular care by a qualified physician," Dr. Kogan said, "but are an educational service of the County Health Department, planned to help parents meet the physical and emotional needs of the infant and growing child."

Miss Janice E. Hopkins, public health nurse-instructor, who has conducted classes previously, will be in charge. There are no text books to purchase as the course consists of lectures and demonstrations. Motion picture films relating to mother and baby care will be shown and will cover such subjects as the health of the mother before and after the baby arrives, layettes, baby bath demonstrations and other care of the new infant.

TRIPLETS BORN
Triplets births occur once in every 9,600 confinements.

Senior Life Saving Class Set

A course in senior lifesaving is being offered by the Torrance Evening High School in cooperation with the Torrance Recreation Department and the American Red Cross.

The class will meet on Monday and Wednesday evenings beginning April 29 from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Torrance Municipal Pool, Torrance Blvd. and Madrona, for a period of five weeks. Those desiring to enroll must be 18 years of age or older and able to pass the swimming eligibility tests. Enrollment will take place at the first meeting. Students must bring their own towels.

The instructor, William Hoag, is a Red Cross certificated lifeguard instructor and will issue senior Red Cross lifeguard certificates to those satisfactorily completing the course.

According to Harry Van Bellehem, city recreation director, applicants for summer employment as lifeguards must hold lifesaving certificates. Those successfully completing the course will be eligible for the city examination which probably will be held in June.

For further information telephone the Adult Education Office, FA 8-2272.

Hi-Fi Whirled

By BARNEY GLAZER

Decca has recorded "The Jolson Story" for posterity, and no right-thinking, blue-blooded devotee of show business would be caught short without this exciting and reminiscent series of albums.

There are four Jolson albums by Decca. The first is "Memories." Here, the late mammy singer offers "Old Black Joe," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Old Folks at Home," "Oh Susannah." Then he switches to the Yiddish greets in his unforgettable, "Cantor on the Sabbath," and the traditional "Nol Nidre," "Hatikvah" and others.

The second album is titled: "Rainbow 'Round My Shoulder," in which the great Jolson heart sings itself to a fair-weather with "Way Down Yonder in New Orleans," "California Here I Come," "I'm Sitting on Top of the World," "When the Red, Red, Robin," and of course the inevitable "Sonny Boy," among other wonderful tunes as only Jolie sings 'em.

"You Made Me Love You" is the third Jolson album and here Decca has collected: "Ma' Blushin' Rosie," "Waiting for the Robert E. Lee," "When You Were Sweet Sixteen," "Give My Regards to Broadway," "Chinatown, My Chinatown," "I Want a Girl" and many others.

Final Jolson album is: "You Ain't Heard Nothin' Yet!" and this one proves that we ain't heard nothing yet since the miracle man of melody left his vale of tears. Who can forget his "Anniversary Song," what thoughts return to us as Al sings: "About a Quarter to Nine"; how we remember him singing in person: "I Only Have Eyes for You," and what more can we say about Jolson except that Decca's waxing is a fitting tribute to a man of music whose melodic light will never dim.

Now we come to what Decca has done for the Bing Crosby cause. They have issued a boxed package of five Crosby long-plays, which means 10 long-play hi-fi sides of Crosby and nothing but Crosby and if that isn't great, what is?

The package even has a lock on it to prevent the curious from inserting their cotton-picking hands where they shouldn't oughter.

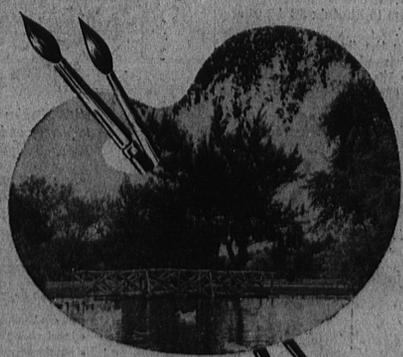

Let's just discuss the tunes. Bing starts off with "Muddy Water" and I can still remember when he did it in person. He was different, and there was an air of greatness about this lad.

Then he segues into "Mississippi Mud," "I Surrender Dear," "Just One More Chance" and "I Don't Stand a Ghost of a Chance With You." How his fans adored him in those days! His voice was higher and he had style and music salesmanship mimicked by many but never duplicated.

There were many changes in the Crosby voice, as evidenced by "Pennies From Heaven," "Sweet Lullaby," "Deep in the Heart of Texas," and "White Christmas." He was mellowing but then so were his fans.

Bing sang the unforgettable "Too-Ra-Loo-Ra-Loo-Ral," "The Bells of St. Mary's," "South America, Take It Away," "The Whiffenpoof Song," "Now is the Hour," and then he topped them with "Sam's Song" and "V'all Come."

Thank you, Decca, for Al and Bing. They help to make life worth living.
