Seventh Annual Football-Golfer Tournament Set at Alondra Today

Football players and coaches get together on the links today when they meet in the seventh annual renewal of the Football Golf Tournament at Alondra Park. The first duo is scheduled to tee off at 9 a.m. with the public invited to view the activities at no charge.

Co-hosting the event are Cece Hollingsworth and Babe Horrell. The latter is the former head football coach at UCLA. A dinner will follow this evening at the Alondra Club.

Participating in previous tournaments and expected back this year are local coaches Red Sanders of UCLA and Jess Hill of Southern California. Newly-appointed Trojan headman Don Clark will probably also compete, as will Los Angeles City College mentor Steve Pritko.

Former winners among the Los Angeles Rams include Elroy Hirsch, who carded a low net 61 in the players division in 1955, and Jack Banta. Hirsch is expected to return this year. Other Ram players who are slated to play in the handicapped tourney include Norm Van Brocklin, Les Richter, Ron Waller, Charley Toogood, Bob Carey, Paul Miller and Jack Ellena.

Last year's tournament winner was Owen Hansen, a member of the coaching department at Los Angeles City College.

San Diego's historical run of scrappy yellowtail surges onward with no sign of a let up. Saturday's and Sunday's count totaled 3306 brought to gaff, which means ump-teen times that many were hooked but out maneuvered the angler. Monday's dock total amounted to 1400 with still one boat out. Qualifying weight in the annual San Diego Yellowtail Derby, as of Monday, is 21 pounds 11 ounces. First period ends May 25th with 150 Isaac Waltons, who have registered top catches, vying in competition for top honors and prizes of all sorts, all eyeing the new car to be awarded to the winner.

Pacific Sportfishing in Long Beach reports Catalina trips paying off in white sea bass hitting between 8 and 10 pounds, limits of calicos, and whopping halibut up to 38 pounds, averaging around 20 pounds per. Log barracuda and yellowtail showing but not working too well as yet. Both expected to cut loose at any time. Eager fishermen are aboard daily all set for a big haul when the ever popular game fish decides to stop horsing around.

As of Saturday, Pacific sends the Fisherman 2, piloted by Pete Peters, to San Clemente waters. Big barriers working good in the area, chewing up mono line by the yards. Ole stomping grounds for junker yellows and you can be sure when the break comes, anglers connecting will think they have tangled with an express train, one with no breaks.

Joe Martin's Landing in San Pedro will also be represented in the fleet heading for San Clemente this week and J. Sharp Shooter, with Frank Hall at the helm, intent on giving the island waters a good going over. Like the rest, they found prospects of a bang-up deep sea fishing season in the making at Catalina, with small whites, calicos, and halibut filling angler's sacks. Scrapper fish yet to cut loose.

Small skiff owners seem to be having a ball drifting along towards Seal Beach taking boat loads of small halibut around 2 to 5 pounds, just right for the frying pan. Also plenty of opal eye to be had off the breakwaters besides numerous "rinkey dinks." As usual, they had plenty of local anglers hitting the Coronados for yellows last week. Nothing so unusual about all the fish brought back because the record breaking run prompted them to raise the limit. Actually the limit is still 10 and will be until the fish and game change it. Know of at least one meat hog who got 13 and is using the feeble excuse that he was filling up limits for a couple of other guys.

NHS Athlete to Appear On TV Baseball Show

North High student Evan Harris, currently playing first base and pitching for the Saxon baseball squad, will appear in a baseball demonstration with Gil Stratton Saturday at 10:30 a.m. on KNXT, Channel 2.

Harris, who was chosen as an example of today's baseball youth, is also a member of the Angels in the Torrance Babe Ruth League.

Saxons Advance in Tourney, Top La Puente in Extra Innings, 6-5

Surprising North High, on the heels of an eight-game Pioneer League losing streak, upset favored host La Puente 6-5 Tuesday in the second round of championship competition in the annual Puente Lions Club Tournament.

Coach Del Nuzem's squad had to go extra innings to post the win after fighting from behind throughout the contest. Joe Hedgecock, Dick Thompson, Stan Fittinger, and Ken Simpson led the Saxon onslaught which scored three times in its final turn at bat to send the game into an eighth inning showdown.

The Saxons used four pitchers in chalking up the win with Don Branson, the fourth hurler, getting credit for the victory. George Fouts, Evan Harris and Bill Kemp also saw mound duties.

Sparked by the booming bats of Hedgecock and Steve Mearing, the North squad broke a long drought of losses by blasting out a 7-0 victory over West Covina in the first round of tournament play.

John Simpson went the distance for the winners, effectively limiting his opposition to a meager two hits while his Saxon teammates were hitting the offerings of two West Covina hurlers for seven safeties. Simpson fanned four and did not allow anyone to reach base via a walk.

The hard-luck Saxons exploded early, getting six big tallies off Tom Anderson and

Torrance Beaten in Pomona Tournament Play, 13-1, 7-6

An underdog Torrance baseball squad was abruptly dropped from competition in the 23rd Annual Pomona 20-30 Club Tournament Monday as host Pomona and Oxnard posted wins over the Tartars. In the first round, Pomona routed the locals 13-1 while Oxnard won an extra inning thriller 7-6.

Larry Nese, the second of three Torrance hurlers, was tagged with the opening loss as the winners romped to a 10-run lead in the first three innings of play. Gary Pfingston drove in the lone Tartar tally in the third frame.

In consolation action, Torrance came from behind to overcome a 6-1 deficit and send the Oxnard game into extra frames. However, a run in the eighth inning cost them the game.

The Tartar attack was paced by the hitting of John Emery, Bob Clifford and Toby Venable. All three accounted for RBI's for the locals.

Oxnard, a pre-tournament favorite who was defeated by

Santa Barbara 6-5 in extra innings, scored twice in the first, third and fifth innings to assume a comfortable lead. The Tartars came to life in the bottom of the fifth with two markers and added three more in the sixth to knot the count.

Torrance was the only Bay League entry in the tournament. Beverly Hills represented the Pioneer circuit, downing Muir 5-4 and losing to El Rancho in the second round, 6-2.
