

"MAY THE JOYS OF EASTER BE YOURS" . . . is the greeting extended this morning by the Rev. H. M. Sippel, pastor of the First Christian Church of Torrance, as he welcomes a family of his congregation, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stewart, 3234 Torrance Blvd., and their three charming daughters, Kathy, 5, Barbara, 3, and Elaine, 4, as they arrive for the Easter Sunday morning services. This scene is typical of hundreds occurring this Easter Sunday morning in all the churches of Torrance as Christian residents attend the churches of their choice to observe the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, as it occurred on that first Easter Sunday morning over 2000 years ago.

Eta Mu Has First Meet

First meeting of Eta Mu, recently organized chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, non academic international sorority, was held at the home of the president, Mrs. G. C. Benson, 2042 W. 161st St. on April 9. Other new officers are Mrs. William Hutchins, vice president; Mrs. Alvin Tracy, treasurer; Mrs. Concetto Giuliano, educational director; Mrs. Norman Boy, recording secretary; and Mrs. Jack Wallin, corresponding secretary.

Social and philanthropic activities for the year were discussed. The first social will be a "shipwreck" party at the Higgins patio on May 24.

Gamma Omega chapter members attending were Mrs.

Leonard Crowell, Mrs. Allan Eidamo and Mrs. Robert McGurk.

Mrs. Harold Bowers will be hostess at the April 23 meeting.

ALPHA CHI ALUMNI MEETING TUESDAY

An old fashioned "bridge and gab fest" will be the feature of the April Chi Omega alumni meeting to be held Tuesday, April 23, at 7:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Cecil Robinson, 216 186th St., Manhattan Beach.

All Alpha Chis are invited to attend. Mrs. Robinson is taking reservations.

EASTER PARTY

Mrs. Don O. Schell, 317 Linda Vista, entertained at luncheon for a group of friends last week. An Easter theme was featured, using pink and white tulips at one table and yellow tulips and white lilies at the other. Fourteen guests were present.

HOUSEGUESTS

Miss Mickey Van Deventer, Redlands University student spent last week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Van Deventer. Houseguests at the Van Deventer home this past week were Miss Margaret McKinney, also a Redlands student, and Miss Christa Volkman, foreign exchange student here.

Gay French Decor Sparks "Spool and Bobbin" Show

A French atmosphere, carrying out the "Cafe Parisienne" theme, will predominate in the Woman's clubhouse Wednesday evening when the Torrance Junior Club stages its annual "Spool and Bobbin Show" with the members of the Senior Woman's Club as special guests.

In true outdoor cafe style, the tables will be covered with checkered tablecloths and wine bottles holding candles will center each table. The Juniors will also use their handsome new punch bowl presented to them by the Senior club.

A program of music will be furnished by the Junior Pipers' choral group with several Rogers and Hammerstein selections. Mrs. Richard Brundin will also sing a solo, "Summer time," and Mrs. Sid Gans will sing "The September Song." A duet, Mrs. C. L. Briner and Mrs. Earl Peterson, will sing a Christmas song.

For the fashion show, in which Junior members model their own creations, Mrs. C. Albert Smith will serve as commentator. Modeling will be by Mmes. Robert Davis and daughter, William Sturgis, D. E. Moore, Robert Eipper, John Schwartz, William Rogers, R. J. Selting, W. E. Starr, Robert Schooley and daughter, J. V. Louvier and daughter, Jack Dean, K. M. Boulter and daughter, Philip Hoffman and her mother, A. J. Berry, Glen Ames, Eugene Lenk's daughter, Robert L. Kerber and Howard Altermat.

Mrs. C. M. Tresize is serving as chairman of the refreshment committee.

Rev. Taylor Honored at Open House

Rev. John Taylor, pastor of the First Methodist Church, was honor guest at a surprise open house on Friday evening celebrating his birthday. The party was given by Mrs. Taylor and their three daughters, Marilyn, Kathleen and Virginia. More than sixty members of the official church board, trustees and stewards and administrative council attended.

Refreshments were served from a table centered with a four tiered birthday cake decorated with yellow roses and flanked by yellow candles.

Rev. Taylor was presented with a new crisp $100 bill to purchase a new pulpit robe.

Mrs. Taylor and her daughters were assisted in extending hospitality by her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodale.

Easter Sunday Is Observed By Torrance Families Today

On this Easter Sunday Torrance residents will attend Sunrise Services, as well as services in their own churches, and then will gather for family dinners as is always the custom in this fast-growing city known for its churches and its family life. Symbolic of the first Resurrection Morning, pastors in the various churches have planned sermons and rituals in keeping with the Resurrection of the Savior of the World. The special sunrise rites are planned in settings similar to the garden where the Holy Women, according to the scripture, visited the tomb of Christ in the early morning hours to find it vacant and to be told by the angels that "Christ had risen." A resume of what several local families will be doing today in keeping with the significance of Easter is listed here:

Driving to Monrovia early this morning were Mr. and Mrs. John Schwartz and Lisa Anne and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schwartz where they will be Easter day guests of Mrs. John Schwartz' parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Daniel.

Rev. and Mrs. John Taylor and their daughters, Marilyn, Kathleen and Virginia, will entertain at a buffet supper this evening. Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Dan Roberts and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mason and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Loranger and daughter, Alicia, left this morning for Fullerton for an Easter breakfast and to spend the day with friends. Alicia, who teaches at Ventura, has spent the past week of Easter vacation here with her parents.

Easter at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Allen Pyeatt takes on a special significance this year as one of the dinner guests will be Mrs. Pyeatt's great-uncle, Carr Garland of Shreveport, La., whom she has never seen. Mr. Garland arrived Thursday in Los Angeles to visit Mrs. Pyeatt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Garland. The two brothers have not seen each other in 50 years. A great deal of this time Mr. Carr has resided in South America. Other dinner guests besides Mrs. Pyeatt's parents and great-uncle will be Dr. Pyeatt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Pyeatt of Torrance. The traditional egg hunt will be held in early morning for the Pyeatt sons, Ralph and Bobby. They will then attend church and return home for the family dinner.

Easter dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Easley will be Mrs. Easley's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Warren, and Tib and Joey of Santa Monica, and her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Walker.

Paour Home Setting for Gala Party

A delightful evening of surprises and fun took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour Jr., 1610 Amepola, when Mrs. Harvey Rushfeldt and Frank Paour III entertained at a surprise birthday party for Harvey Rushfeldt and Mrs. Joan Paour.

A large sign inscribed with "Happy Birthday Joan and Harvey" hung between two trees.

A barbecue supper was enjoyed after which darts, horse-shoes and dancing in the patio were enjoyed.

Attending the party with the hosts and honor guests were: Messrs. and Mmes. Walt Parker, John Spiller, Lee Mortenson, Frank Davis, Calvin Browning, Chuck Bingham, Bill Atwood, Ted Marcoux, Jack O'Caïn, Aramis Dandoy, Jim Farrar.

EASTER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Clinkscales, 1451 El Prado, have as their Easter holiday guests Mr. Clinkscales' brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clinkscales of Mare Island.

THEIR OWN CREATIONS

will be modeled by members of the Junior Woman's Club at their "Spool and Bobbin" show Wednesday evening at the clubhouse. This group of young matrons will not only display their own clothes but many they have made for their daughters. In a preview of the show, upper right, are Jo Kay Louvier and her mother, Mrs. J. G. Louvier and Mrs. William G. Sturgis. Lower right, wearing a popular mother-daughter combination are Mrs. Kenneth Boulter and daughter Belinda. Mrs. C. Albert Smith will serve as commentator.

EASTER DINNER

Guests for Easter dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd O'Dell, 5703 Calle de Arboles, will be their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Campbell; their son, Roy O'Dell, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Spessard and their son Tommy, who have recently arrived from South Charleston, W.Va. The Spessards plan to make their home here.

HOLIDAY GUESTS

Arriving Wednesday from Chico to remain through Easter were Dr. and Mrs. Thurlow Weir and children Thurlow, Jr., Kimberly and David. They are the guests of Dr. Weir's mother, Mrs. S. J. Dunhouse.
