Mrs. Kay Samson served as her sister's attendant. She wore a ballerina length pink chiffon gown and carried a cascade of pink carnations.

Just ahead of the bride and her father were two flower girls, Janie Ann Samson and Jan Bushman, both wearing short lavender chiffon frocks.

Jack Bushman served as best man and Bob Zeidell was the usher. Bishop Elbert S. Steele officiated at the marriage ceremony.

Virginia Greer at the organ played the wedding marches and accompanied Dorothy Taylor who sang "Because" and other wedding songs.
