Peggy Meacham Wears Cahill Gown For Her Wedding to William T. Fisher

In a Cahill gown of white lace and tulle over taffeta fashioned with a bouffant ballerina length skirt, moulded bodice with cap sleeves and a scoop neckline, Miss Peggy Jo Meacham plighted her marriage vows with William T. Fisher last Saturday afternoon at 2 at the St. James Catholic Church.

Completing the bridal costume was a finger-tip illusion veil cascading from a lace and pearl crown and a bridal bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

The heavy of bridesmaids headed the entourage walking to the altar banked with white stock, carnations and gladioli interspersed with white candles in white standards.

The four bridesmaids were Misses Mary Beth Meacham, Joan Hogan, Gretchen Leach and Kay Harnover. They wore flowing gowns of blue crystalline and carried bouquets of white carnations.

Mr. Frank Wist, the bridesmaid, was the honor attendant. She also wore a blue crystalline gown and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. Immediately ahead of the bride and her father was little Kathy Herman, flower girl. Her gown matched the other attendants' dresses and she carried a basket of rose petals.

James McDill served as best man, and seating the 200 wedding guests were Jim Segars, Vic Corvello, Bob Clark and Earl Wheaton.

The Rev. Father McKinnis officiated at the vow exchange. A reception followed in the church hall. Miss Mary Ann Notman was in charge of the guest book.

After a short honeymoon the couple will be at home at 112 27th St., Hermosa Beach.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Meacham, 22817 Leyte Dr., Torrance, was graduated from Torrance High in 1955. She belonged to the Torrance Y-Teens and the Future Teachers.

Mr. Fisher was graduated from Mira Costa High School in 1954 and attended El Camino where he was a member of Phi Sigma Upsilon.

Mrs. Josephine Eisan of Berkeley, paternal grandmother of the bride, came to attend the wedding.

The engagement of Miss Shirley Ruth Moody and Paul Raymond Comon is being announced today. Miss Moody is the daughter of Mrs. Eleanor C. Schaefer of Huntington Park and Clyde A. Moody, 1342 Engracia Ave. Parents of the future bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Comon, 1011 Amapola.

The wedding will take place in the spring of 1957 at the Nativity Catholic Church.

The bride-elect, who has made her home in Torrance for the past 15 years, was graduated from St. Mary's Academy, Los Angeles, in 1951. She is now service representative for the telephone company here. She is organist and choir director at Nativity Catholic Church.

Mr. Comon was graduated from Torrance High School in 1949. He then attended El Camino College and was graduated from Harbor Junior College. He is now employed by a local photography firm.

Jessie Hill-Anthony Prutch Exchange Vows at St. Margaret Mary's April 7

Miss Jessie Margaret Hill became the bride of Anthony Joseph Prutch at a 10 o'clock nuptial Mass celebrated Saturday morning in St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church, Lomita. The Rev. John V. Hegarty officiated at the ceremony before the altar banked with bouquets of white stock, calla lilies and baby breath.

Mrs. Mary Butterfield at the organ played a selection of bridal music which included "Ave Maria," "Pans Angelicus" and the communion song, "On This Day." Pete Nalual was the soloist.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hill of Harbor City, entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She was lovely in a white lace and nylon net gown with panels of the lace extending the full length of the skirt. Her finger-tip veil was held by a lace tiara and she carried white carnations and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Her four bridal attendants wore gowns designed alike with white lace bodices, net tiered skirts in pastel shades, and picture hats to match. Mrs.

Shirley Thorp as matron of honor was in yellow. Bridesmaids Christine Cleveland, Mollie Young and Shirley Rainey were all in blue. Each attendant carried bouquets of yellow carnations.

Bridegroom, who is the son of Tony A. Prutch of San Pedro and Mrs. M. D. Williams of Kansas City, Mo., was attended by Bernie DeNolf, Eugene Moore and William Young.

The parish hall was decorated in yellow and white for the reception which followed the service. Attending the guest book was Dorothy Sivard.

Following a honeymoon at Desert Hot Springs the couple will reside at 1908 W. 263rd St., Lomita.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High School in 1953. Her bridegroom was educated in Kansas City, Mo.

Specht-Schooley Nuptials At Lutheran Church April 7

All white flowers decorated the altar and chancel of the First Lutheran Church when Miss Irene Donna Specht repeated double-ring vows with Charles F. Schooley in an 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony Saturday evening.

Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Specht of 1641 Greenwood Ave. and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Schooley of Redondo Beach.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a Chantilly lace gown over white taffeta, designed with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Holding the fingertip veil was a net pillbox chapeau decorated with pearls in the pastel shades. Her bouquet was of pink carnations circling a white orchid and tied with white satin streamers.

Miss Donna Hester, serving as maid of honor, wore pale green tulle over taffeta with small hat to match. Her flowers were pink rosebuds.

Bridesmaids June Mimura and Mrs. Willard Specht wore blue gowns like that of the maid of honor and carried bouquets of pink rosebuds.

William O'Dowd served the bridegroom as best man and seating the 140 guests were Bob Schooley, brother of the bridegroom, and Jack Hoffer. The Rev. Paul Wenske officiated at the nuptial rites.

Bridal music was played at the organ by Mrs. Paul Wenske who accompanied Mrs. C. Wismann in singing "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception at the YWCA followed the ceremony. A three-tiered pedestal cake was banked with pink carnations and flanked by bouquets of carnations. Miss Marilyn Specht was in charge of the guest book.

Upon their return from a honeymoon in Ensenada, Mexico, the couple will be at home at 3741 W. 182nd St.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School, class of '53, and attended El Camino College. Her bridegroom was a member of the graduating class of Redondo Union High School, of 1949, and has served four years with the United States Air Force. He also attended El Camino College.

Virginia Gotts Exchanges Vows With Ronald Bangert At Nuptial Mass April 2

White chrysanthemums, carnations and stock in white baskets and white standards holding cathedral candles decorated the Nativity church Saturday morning, April 2, for the 10 o'clock nuptial mass in which Miss Virginia Ellen Gotts became the bride of Ronald Lee Bangert.

As the 200 wedding guests assembled, Mrs. Neal McConlogue played the wedding music and accompanied Madeline Nickol who sang "Ave Maria" and the "Pans Angelicus." At the entrance of the bridal party, the organist played the wedding marches.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Gotts, 25915 Congress St., Lomita, was lovely in her wedding gown of white lace over satin. It was fashioned with a Queen Anne collar, fitted bodice, mutton leg sleeves and the full skirt fell into a long train. Her finger-tip illusion veil was held by a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchids, carnations and valley lilies. Mr. Gotts escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Miss Charlene Sunny Gotts was the maid of honor wearing a billowy gown of dusty rose taffeta and carrying rose tulips.

Bridesmaids were Miss Elaine Sterling, wearing blue net and
