

Sorority Group Handles Job Of Soliciting Cancer Funds

By ALICE PERKIN
FA 8-2625

It's amazing what an enthusiastic group can do! The Omicron Pi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, headed by Mrs. William Wisner, of 914 Maple, group of less than 15 members, handled the enormous job of organizing the home canvass soliciting for the Cancer Drive in Torrance. With the help of neighbors in the area this small group did a grand job of seeking aid from each home for cancer research.

Celebrating her seventh birthday last Saturday under a "Fairy Tale" theme was Martha Schooley, of 2760 Onrado St. Her guests were awarded prizes of pearls and toy lipsticks for the games and each child received a gift of "comb sets" as a favor. The party decorations were done in pink and white, with the pink angel food birthday cake shaped as a blond doll with her delicate skirts supporting the candles. The cake was served along with refreshments of pink gelatine and whip cream (better known to the children as "fairy food"), candies and pink lemonade. Those attending were Lannie Taylor, of Inglewood, Laura Enlow, Cathy Hatter, Mary Ellen Gregg, Kathy Warner, Georgeanne Hunter, Kristin Brundin, Patty Hardinhaus, Janie Treske, Linda Brady, and brother Bobby Schooley.

Houseguesting from up north, the San Francisco Peninsula, were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Clarenbach and their son, Todd. The family arrived Friday and stayed until Tuesday with Mrs. Clarenbach's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walker. Each day of their visit was filled with exciting activities. One day an excursion to Disneyland, the next day a big family dinner held in their honor, then a jaunt to a French restaurant, and finally the last day spent in a gala shopping spree. The Las Oches Senoras bridge club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. John Moore, 826 Cranbrook St. Guests were served a delicious and exclusive dessert of Danish torte and coffee. The torte was concocted of six layers of delicate cake filled with whip cream and raspberries. Rare flour used in the 8-inch tall cake was imported from a small town in Pennsylvania. Winning first and second prizes in the bridge game were Mrs. Ruth Patton and Mrs. Jean Gregory, respectively. Those attending: Messrs. Wayne Norman, Phil Patton, William Crooker, Robert Emma, Thomas Edmonds, Dee Gregory and William Casey.

Forsaking lengthy business for pleasure, the Accent Theatre group held scene portrayals from four famous plays followed by a critique, at their last monthly general meeting. Refreshments of red wine and pizzas were served during the discussion and workshop period. The meeting was held at the Kenneth Perkin home, 2830 Eldorado, and was attended by over thirty members and guests. Those attending from our neighborhood were: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haresfad, Mrs. Robert Kelsey, Mrs. Lou Dyer, Mrs. William Boswell, Jack Hudson, Mrs. Pat Bennet, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Canlie, and Mr. and Mrs. Mal Sagenkahn.

A red-striped carousel, ranch animals and cowboys rode herd atop the gay birthday cake of Tommy Fagan, 2902 Eldorado St. Celebrating his fourth year, Tommy treated guests to luncheon of barbecued hot dogs, carrots and olives shaped as miniature tasty kittens, potato chips, potato salad, ice cream and the rodeo cake, a large 12-inch one split and filled with bananas. Each child received a yellow name basket filled with favors, and a straw cowboy hat. Prizes were awarded for the games of "pin the tail" and "hot potato." Music for the affair was provided with special party records. Those attending: Rita Arguello, Barbara Williams, Stevie Capps, Frankie Semco, Marilyn Ann Coe, Christine Bogart, Christine Semco, Gary Amerline, Kevin and Mary Brooks, and Timmy Fagan. Tommie's cousin, Adults attending were: Mrs. Charles Coe, Mrs. Doug Semco, Mrs. Ben Arguello, Mrs. Carl Brooks, Mrs. Bob Williams, and Mrs. Cecil Gilmore. "Tiny Tots" attending: Roger Fagan, 13-month-old brother of Tommy, is tiny Stewart Robert Beecher.

Born Friday morning at Centinela Hospital in Inglewood, Stewart weighed in at seven pounds, fourteen ounces. He is the second son of the Richard Beechers, of 1024 Felbar St.

Jazz enthusiasts Robert and Phyllis Kelsey, 808 Corise, entertained friends for an evening of records and hi-fi music last Friday. Cocktails were served as guests enjoyed the collection of exciting music. Later refreshments of pineapple rolls and coffee were served. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. William Swisher, and Mr. and Mrs. K. Perkin.

Catching colds along with their fish were the three families from our tract camping out at Jenks Lake last week end. The lake is behind San Bernardino near Big Bear resort. Although the place was swarming with eager fishing enthusiasts, the children managed to catch four fish apiece but the adults returned home empty-handed. They took a portable barbecue with them and ate under the stars. Those camping: Phil Patton and son, Mark; Tom Edmonds and son, Mac, and William Crooker and daughters, Pat and Beverly.

Entertaining neighbors and friends at a cosmetic party at her home last week was Mrs. William McDade, 911 Felbar St. Using her hostess as beauty model, Mrs. Sylvia Neil demonstrated how lovely ladies could become lovelier. Refreshments of pineapple chiffon pie (there goes that diet!) and coffee were served along with candies. Those attending: Mmes. Ester D'Ornellas, Ruth Con-

Getting together Sunday evening for a pot luck dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Perkin, 2830 Eldorado, were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Capps, Melinda and Stephanie, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kilzing, Pamela and Jeff, Mrs. Rod Clark and Cathy and Roddy. The group enjoyed cocktails and hors d'oeuvres before a late supper. Lasagna, and chili-mac casseroles were served, along with French garlic bread, tossed salad, relishes, coffee and apple crisp. Cards were played after the scrumptious dinner.

Tartar Teen Talk

By KAREN HESTER, DA 6-4391

A group of talented Tartars went to Centennial to entertain last Tuesday. Those entertaining were The "Tears," Diane Cook, Diane Powers, Karen Bruner, and Elsa Barow, and others. 'Tear it was a fine show.

For keeping the campus clean during the week of April 16-20, the Tartars were rewarded with an Aud Call from Centennial. After the performance the Student Council had lunch with the entertainers and afterwards the "Swans" sang "Sister Sookie." They were really cool.

Claudia Smith's house was the scene for Tartar "party-goers" last Saturday night. As with Claudia's parties, it was a huge success.

Spending a slumberless night at Linda Halbergs last Saturday night were Gerry Rusk, Alex Merola, Diane Berry, Joan Jerigan, and Marilyn Sanders. Hey Linda, what happened to Chickie and Darlene?

Seen at the Shrine for the "Jazz Ala Carte" show were Chickie Davenport and Ron Calkins, Marilyn Sanders and Clyde Denham. Both couples had a ball!

Did all you Tartars hear the "Tears" on the Johnny Oatis Show last Friday night? They were really terrific. The record will be out in two weeks and I'm sure all of you will push it as much as possible. Best of luck "Tears."

Last Monday the Student Council was compiling a song nominated for the "Ten Top

"Tues." I bet you can't guess which one was chosen No. 1!

Disneyland is being invaded Sunday by the Deltas. Going along with the Deltas is the Fresh "xy" Club, the oncoming Deltas.

The Tri-Hi-Y went miniature golfing at Shady Acres last Monday night. I don't think anyone made par.

The Tartar Ladies Aud Call was last Tuesday. The theme for the show was "Disneyland." Congrats, TL's, it was the best Aud Call the girls have seen all year.

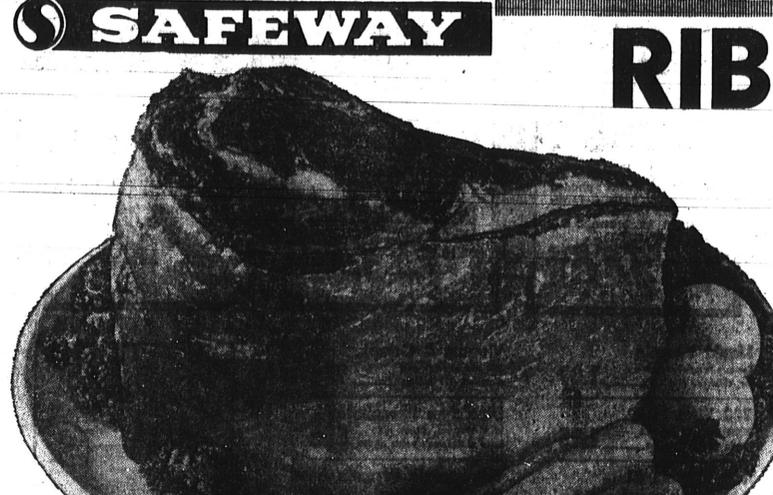

Tears' Disc May Be Sold

Four Torrance High students, singing under the title of "The Tears," have had their new record "Until the Day I Die" spun regularly on the Johnny Oatis Show on KFOX radio.

The tune was written by Terri Akers, one of the members of the quartet. Others in the group are Jill Moore, Dick Dawson and Sherwood Tiernan.

They auditioned with Oatis two weeks ago and were asked back to cut the record. Oatis will spin the record until enough response is noted to put the disc up for commercial bidding.

Miss Akers, spokeswoman for the group, said if the record proves popular enough it will be sold to a recording company for general distribution soon.
