Recently Donna Franks and sister, Barbara Watson, co-cessees a bridal shower for their sister, Pat DeGrote. Party guests were present to celebrate the young couple's marriage performed in Vegas the first part of 7. Among them were the groom's mother, Mrs. Edward Grote, and the bride's mother, Mrs. Don Martin. Family and friends enjoyed refreshments.

Al Greenleaf and Chuck Egan are scheduling a full summer of activities as head of the Centinela Boys' Club, who lives at 4415 High-ove Ave., is varsity basketball and golf coach at Morning-side High in Inglewood and Chuck is varsity baseball and football coach at Inglewood High. Anyone with boys from the age of 6 to 14 might be interested in the club's activities this season. It will be running five days a week all summer long. Transportation will be furnished to and from the club. Most of the meetings will be at El Camino where they have swimming three times a week in the college's outdoor pool. There will also be field trips to many places of interest, instruction in all major sports and baseball games. Boys in Ellinwood already attending are Jimmy Carter, Steve Shires, David Egan and Greg Hast. Call at FR 5-7553 if you would like to find out more details about the club.

The Hollywood Riviera and Inglewood Brownies will hold their annual Court of Awards in the Torrance Civic Auditorium on Friday at 7:30 p.m. Newton and Riviera schools' fourth graders will become intermediate Girl Scouts in a fly-up ceremony that night. There will be 60 Brownies fly up. Second and first class badges and curved bar awards will also be given and refreshments served at the close of the evening.

Maude Buckley and Rosalie Davis were co-hostesses for a bridge group at Maude's home last Tuesday night. Those enjoying the evening of bridge were JoAnn Doudna, Janice Lee, Janet Smith, Elizabeth Patton, Jean Asher, Jeanne Pope, Barbara Weaver, Cecil Banaszynski, Sonnie Tomchak, Janet Robinson, and the hostesses, Rosalie and Maude.

Susan Throne, of Green Meadows Ave., celebrated her fifth birthday last Friday afternoon. Seven little girls enjoyed a luncheon and a carousel birthday cake after which they were taken to the real carousel at the Walteria amusement park where the "Happy Birthday" song was played and sung to Susie while they were riding on the merry-go-round. Those helping Susie celebrate were Karen Williams, Theresa Doudna, Nancy Rogers, Dottie Jo Frey, Leslie Uden and Karen Santos.

Bonner and Elizabeth Adams of 4602 Pacific Coast Hwy. have evened the count in their family with their latest arrival being a little girl. Valerie Patricia arrived at the Torrance Memorial Hospital on May 21. She weighed 7 lbs. and was 20 inches long. Her two brothers are Scotty, aged 4, and David, 2½, and her sister is Cynthia, 17 months.

Calerie has a grandmother in Hermosa Beach, Mrs. Marguerite Adams. Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Beaulieu of Groveland, Mass.

Brownie Troop 240 traveled to Griffith Park last Saturday aboard a chartered bus. Other adults chaperoning the girls besides the leader, Mrs. Mary Peck, were Mrs. Loradel De-Armitt, Mrs. Michelle Mehner, Mrs. Catherine Ridenoue, Mrs. Jean Nelson and Mrs. Alice Kulda. The group spent the day hiking through the zoo. They all took nosebag lunches and milk was provided. Later

Worry of FALSE TEETH Slipping or Irritating?

Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just apply a little PASTETEE on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gummy, gooey, sticky taste or feeling. It's Alkaline (non-acid). Get PASTETEE at any drug counter.
