

Scout Mothers Install New Officers at Kolleck Home

By SUE BURK
FR 5-4549

The Scout Mothers Club of Troop 726 held their May meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kolleck of Seaside Ranchos on May 10. After conducting a short business meeting, election to officers for the year of 1956-57 were held. Those to take up their duties in the various posts were: Pauline Glass, president; Mabel Caudill, corresponding secretary; Martha Kolleck, recording secretary; Sue Burk, treasurer. Mrs. Burk will also act as news chairman for the club. Very soon the Scout Mothers of Troop 726 will be celebrating their third birthday with a banquet dinner. Members present at the May meeting were: Alma Kissel, Margaret Whyte, Mabel Caudill, Reba Drake, Virginia Naumann, Sue Burk, Pauline Glass, Janet Wood, Marie Tamble and Elaine Fisk. Hostess Martha Kolleck served pecan pie with whipped cream and coffee.

Boy, when it rains, how it pours! Remember last week I told you about my youngest, William Earl, having a case of chicken pox? He was just about ready to go back to school when sister Donna Lee came up with (you've already guessed it) chicken pox. Seems to be in proof with the grapevine that we have to sit under our hats just waiting for bumps now. Little Nancy Nix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Nix of Zakon, is now abed with the mumps. Best wishes Nancy. Beverly Cleveland missed classes at Seaside Elementary the other day because of a head cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bickford, and son, Kenny, of Zakon Rd. recently put one of their famous magic shows in Long Beach before a capacity crowd. From the excitement the Bickfords showed upon their return home, we judge the audience must have been very pleased. They are planning quite another type of show scheduled for the near future. This one to be in the hospital with a doctor in attendance. We'll be happy to bring the good news to you via this column just as soon as Mr. Stock arrives with his precious package.

Honored at a stork shower Friday evening, May 18, was Mrs. Barbara Combs of Zakon Rd. The shower, planned by mama (Mrs. Agnes Wilshire of Zakon) was carried to the umph degree of beautiful decorations and lovely hospitality much to the added enjoyment of friends who dropped in for the occasion. Ladies bearing gifts for the new baby to be were: Pat King, Elizabeth King, Ann Wathmiller, Juanita Panick, Lorraine Bedrosian, Sue Burk, Ann Ganes, Alice Kulda, Amy Leffler, Florence Tredwell and Bobby Leveranz. Hostess Agnes Wilshire served a lovely fresh shrimp salad with crackers and rye tid-bits with salted wafers and rye tid-bits, white cake, and coffee. All sorts of old wive's tales played on the honoree gave every indication that the wee one, when born, will be a girl.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Burk and family of Zakon, Rd. over the weekend were: Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Macies of Santa Monica, Eddit Thorns, Dick Arnold and Dave Fender of Redondo Beach.

Honored at a stork shower recently was Mrs. Mary Snider of Macafee Rd. The shower was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Drake, of 5016 Macafee Rd., by Alice Beard, Reba Drake, and Alice Hunter. Guests included Maxine Christenberry, Elinor Sabey, Carol Sibley, Esther Steele, Larlene Fankel, Rosemary Weston, Pauline Kessler, Lee Shanks, Dorothy Wilson and Donna Sprigs. Decorations were made of tiny bibs for each lady to take home and miniature diapers used as candy and nut cups. After the usual run of stork shower games were played the guests enjoyed cupcakes, tea and coffee.

We feel sure we are going to have some very nice neigh-ors moving into the old Hol-stin home at 5121 Zakon Rd. pretty soon. They are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Stahlacker and son, from Camden, Ark. Dick is an employee of Hughes Aircraft.

Bringing you up to date on the news around Seaside Elementary School. The student council elections recently put into office for the year 1956-57 Ann Beshore, president, Vicky Keyes, vice president.

Thieves Loot Little League's Refreshment Stand, Leave Mess

By JO JENSEN

Romance is in the air and we have news from Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Carrizosa, 18445 Amia, that their daughter Billie is engaged to Joseph Arriola, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Arriola, of Anaheim. Miss Carrizosa graduated from Torrance High School in 1953 and is now employed as a teller in a bank in Westchester. Mr. Arriola is a graduate of Anaheim High School. A June 23rd wedding is planned at St. Catherine Labourer Church on Redondo Beach Blvd.

Last Saturday 15 couples danced to the fine music of Harry James, Laurence Welk, Guy Lombardo and some jazz bands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pesola, 17030 Faysmith. The snack table was spread with many varieties of hors d'oeuvres and sandwiches served with coffee. Guests included Messrs. and Mmes. Norman McCracken, Robert Mooney, Ted Horsefield, Marcel Beaudoin, George McClinic, Roy Dudley, Arnold Beaudoin, Walter Metz, Paul Hoffman, Eric Merry, Eddy Vaughan, Glen Job, Al Rich and Everett Thiauen.

Too bad about the Little League refreshment stand being broken into Saturday night. Forty boxes of candy were stolen as well as syrup for punch and there was a mess to be cleaned up, too. Bet they won't leave anything there to be stolen again.

Speaking of Little League, I must make comment on the Minor teams. Their games are just as exciting as the Major games. Every Tuesday and Thursday Minor teams play at the field at 6 p.m. On Saturday and Sunday they have the first game at 1 p.m. The roster of players includes:

Indians, D. C. Goodwin, manager, Ernest Bell, Bob Brewer, Danny Dunlap, Edward Estrada, Steven Goodwin, Douglas Jackson, Nelson Warné, Jan Omes, Gary Peterson, Glen Peterson, Harry Phillips, Peter Sandrene, Jerry Smith, and Don Wilkerson.

The monthly meeting of the Mother's Club of Senior Girls

Scout 1277 was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Mooney, 16811 Falda. It is the policy of the club for daughter to bake and serve for the evening so Nancy served brownies, lemonade, and coffee to the group. Discussion was on the Oak Park week end camping for the seven girls attending the Play Day at the Mrs. M. Mudd Estate in Beverly Hills was also mentioned. Twelve girls plan to attend. The next meeting will be a cook-out for the mothers and daughters some time in June. Ladies present were: Mrs. J. Shelton, H. Wagner, W. Woodruff, R. Cage, W. Verbage, L. Kennedy, B. Bowie, Leader B. Ball and co-leader A. Pesola.

The home of the Loren Macks at 1102 Glenburn was the scene of considerable excitement Monday morning. Phillip John, who was born May 25 at St. John's Hospital in Santa Monica, was proudly carried home at that time. Billy was happy to make his acquaintance and, of course, the boys will have many years to enjoy each other.

The Mothers Club of Browline troop 1715 met at the home of Mrs. Robert Hobb, 2403 W. 165th St. It was a delight to hear a recording of the regular Brownie meeting which is always held in the Richard Mongar's patio, 17021 Ermanita. In turn a surprise was pulled by Mrs. C. Sewell, co-leader. She made a recording of the Mother's Club meeting to be played for the Brownies. Can't you just hear the girls? Report of the recent bake sale indicate it was very successful. The hostess for the next meeting will be Mrs. Robert Haas, 17020 Faysmith, on June 28.

Mrs. Lon Sanders was honored at a baby shower last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Wayne North. Mrs. Fred Coons was co-hostess. A lovely cake shaped as a baby sweater with separate boxes to match was the centerpiece. It was made and decorated by Mrs. John Noble. Strictly feminine gifts were brought for three-week-old Margaret Jean by Mmes. Chas. Thagard, Jacob Kingswald, K. P. Wilson, John Gleasman, David McCormick, Rick Husk, William Lamont, Al Beasley, Richard Perkins, Edwin Kennedy, Charles Bramfield, and Charles Terry.

Surprise visitors from Manitoba, Canada, for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Metz, 17035 Faysmith, were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smith. Mrs. Metz and Mrs. Smith were classmates in high school.

Mrs. Sue Rozum, sixth and seventh grade teacher at the North Torrance Elementary School, was honored at a baby shower given by her Room Mothers last Monday evening. The home of Mrs. Duane Sherwood, 17204 Ardath Ave., was the scene for the festivities. Mrs. Margaret Demarsch, principal and Mrs. Robert Payne, PTA president, were special guests.
