Girl Troop 1299

Members of Girl Scout Troop 1299, sponsored by the Jayettes sailed on the yacht "Cloud" Wednesday evening from 5 to 10 p.m. The girls sang and helped with the bill during the cruise, learning the meaning of a number of sailing terms. Dinner on board consisted of fried chicken, salads, rolls, and cupcakes. Making the trip were Pat Achsbach, Donna Arrasmith, Paul Bischoff, Joyce Cannon, Judy Carter, Mardell Clayton, Diana Cook, Gerry Day, John Donald, Donna Dunklin, Sharon Giles, Susan Higdon, Marsha Hunt, Diane Hunter, Barbara Krauser, Loretta Robison, Ginny Sandstrom, Carol Shinoda, Lao Spall and guests Ginny Krauser and Kathy Donald. Accompanying the girls were Bess Arrasmith, Mr. and Mrs. Robison, Mrs. Cleo Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Hansen, Mrs. O. O. Clayton, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Krauser.

Monday night the troop met to honor Ginny Standstrom, who has been selected to represent the area at a Michigan Scout Round Up. At the same meeting, five-point pins were presented. Sharon Giles was given a Senior Handbook for five years of perfect attendance and friendship pins were given to Paula Bischoff for completing four years; Diane Hunter, three years; Diana Cook, Susan Higdon, and Barbara Krauser, two years; and Donna Dunklin, one year.

Pack 733-C

A special meeting to map plans for splitting Cub Pack 733-C will be held June 26 at 7:30 p.m., Hank Schultz, committee chairman, said this week.

Since the pack has become overstocked with Cubs and many more boys are waiting to join, it will be necessary to split the group into two separate packs, an official stated.

The Cubs held their final spring meeting June 14 at North Torrance Elementary School. Cubmaster Dick Hayes reminded the Cubs and their parents of two coming events—the skate party, and a picnic.

The following boys received awards:

Peter Conley, James Jones, Al Parker, John Guenther, Jerry Simons, Jerry Weeks, Michael Kern, Ron Saunders, Charles Brognola, Robert Gmur, Robert Liken, John Spindler, Ronald Cornelius, J. Hendrick, Dennis Even.

Girl Scout Troop 171

Girls of Troop 171 walked away with a good share of awards at last week's Green-thumbers' Garden Club show. Nine of the Girl Scouts took honors, a troop spokesman said recently.

Winners included Suzanne Watson, Judy Watson, Rosalyn Jury, Zeldu DuRea, Elizabeth Weiders, Donna Daniels, Dianne Creek, Mary Ann Kane and Margaret Watson.

Other girls in the troop are Audrey Barclay, Susie Busby, Carole Cassell, Ellen Champion, Audrea Hein, Judy Keener, Carole Dean Kendrick, Mary Jane McCray, Maureen Rafferty, Mary Ann Taylor and Sharon Wilson.

Co-leaders Mrs. W. E. Watson and Mrs. A. W. DuRea recently cited the following women for aiding the girls in scouting subjects: Mrs. Elsa Stone, garden; Mrs. Barbara Judy, crafts; Mrs. Lou Creek, leatherscraft; Mrs. Irene Busby, badge work; Mrs. Eleanor Cassell, typing.

Pack 953-C

A beach party is being planned for Cubs of Pack 953-C, officials of the group said last week.

The Pack recently held its June meeting at Crenshaw

Awards for top ticket sellers for the recent scout-O-Scope went to Price, Russell, Chris Prescott, Wayne Nelson and Alfred Wierenga.

The following boys received Cub awards:

Andicocha, Robert Andrew, Joe McDowell, David Stewart, Bill Ament, Jerry Carriere, Price, Ewart, Ballie, Wierenga, Kenneth Farris, Doug Jackson, Richard Butterfield, Marvin Watkins.

Brownie Troop 250

Brownie Troop 250, under the leadership of Mrs. Pat Stamm and sponsored by the Civics and Philanthropy Club of Los Angeles, has enjoyed a very active year.

They attended two theater parties, Cinerama, and Oklahoma. Outings included trips to the Oceanarium in Palos Verdes, Hostess Bakery in Los Angeles, Roller Rink in Torrance, also active participation in the Juliette Low Day program at Torrance Park.

Through the success of fund raising projects such as greeting card party, cake sale, calendars, and cookies, each girl realized a generous supply of materials for hand crafts.

In climaxing the season's activities, a luncheon was held Saturday, June 16, at the Roland Stamm residence. This luncheon was prepared and served by the Brownies for their mothers.

In conjunction, a Fly Up Ceremony in honor of Carolyn Wells and Sandra Horton was held.

Optometrist Opens Office

Dr. Carron Way, optometrist, has opened new offices at 1408 Cravens Ave., where he plans to continue his extensive work with children, industrial eye care, and visual training.

A member of the California Optometric Assn. and the American Optometric Assn., Dr. Way received his degree at Northern Illinois College of Optometry in Chicago in 1948 and did post graduate work at the Los Angeles College of Optometry last year.

Before opening his Torrance offices, Dr. Way practiced in Santa Monica, Los Angeles, and Chattanooga, Tenn.

He has been a resident of Torrance for the past five years, and lives with his wife and daughter, Jane Ann, at 2708 Eldorado.

Hubcaps Taken Off Car

P. E. McWilliams of 309 Via Linda Vista, told police that someone stripped his 1956 model car of four hubcaps Wednesday night while the vehicle was parked in front of his home.
