Many Residents Register For Summer Swimming At Camino

By Jo Jensen
FA 1-9663

Early Saturday morning the Campus Center at El Camino was the scene of much activity. Enrollees were lined up for a block or more in several lines. The thing that was different about this enrollment was the ages of the students. One line was for children from seven through nine, another for those 10 through 12. Teenagers lined up alone and adults kept running from their children in one line to their own line. It was the sign-up for swimming lessons. The family hour recreational swimming is a good place to observe the impressive safety measures and the balcony is open for spectators. The popularity of this program certainly indicates the need for recreational facilities in this area.

Pete Donovan has been ordered to stay in bed for four days on account of blood poisoning in his foot.

Mrs. Edith McGinty of Denver is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van Camp, 3208 W. 186th St. Mrs. McGinty plans to be here for about two weeks. She plans to visit her son in Myrtle Point, Ore., before returning home.

Mmes. Robert Clark and Norman Bruffy entertained at coffee for Mrs. Lela Stapp who with her children and sister-in-law, will spend the summer visiting relatives in Texas. Mrs. Stapp, Sally, David and Charlie will join Mr. Stapp in San Diego before school starts as they plan to make their new home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hall were happy to receive word that the cabin they've been working on so very hard at Twenty-Nine Palms has passed government inspection. They have been given title to the land.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mailoux, Steve and Terri spent a few days at Ocean-side sunning and surfing and visiting former neighbors.

Lois Leonard hosted a personal shower for anticipating Helen Hoag last Monday evening. Eighteen ladies were present to enjoy Bingo and scrumptious refreshments as well as the lovely gifts.

That tantalizing aroma in this area almost every week end and lots of week days is definitely not smog. The barbecue season is in full swing and last week's was most prompted many to use their patios. The J. R. Allison, Gerald Newman and Tom Lincoln are just a few members of the charcoal set.

A surprise birthday party was given by Mrs. Paul DeLancey for Mrs. V. Bryant recently. Co-hostess was Mrs. Peter Donovan.

Pauline and Dana Kelso and son Ronnie have returned from a trip to West Plains, Mo. where Pauline's relatives live. While there her sister had to be rushed to the hospital for emergency surgery.

Having a birthday celebrated by everyone in the country is the fate of Robin Stamm, aged 2. The family gathered at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Stamm for a barbecue yesterday. Brother Gregory is not so sure he isn't being short-changed when his birthday comes around, just a few weeks later, and there are no fireworks.

The Jay Sandbergs spent a week camping in Sequoia National Park with their five children. It was a first camping experience for Vera and she is ready to become a rangerette any time. No fish were reported but the swimming was wonderful.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Green, 17423 Glenburn, celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary on Tuesday. Their daughter, Mrs. Roland Stamm, who lives next door, reports they are observing the occasion in a most unusual manner. Painting their house may not sound romantic, but it's practical.
