WALTERIA NEWS NOTES

Everybody Handed Bag of Rice At Wedding of Danaha St. Pair

By BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4438

Wedding bells make the headlines this week when George Halland of Danaha St. and Carol Evenson, also of Danaha St., exchanged vows at the Lutheran Church in Torrance. Greeting the guests at the guest book was Tommy Monaghan, while ushers were John Monaghan and Chuck Donsi. The bride was lovely for the candlelight ceremony in a light beige linen sheath dress with white lace overcoat and matching accessories in white. Her bouquet was of pink carnations and gardenias. Complementing the beige of the bride was the blue of the sheath dress worn by the matron of honor, the bride's sister, Lois. She carried yellow carnations. Approximately 100 guests attended the ceremony and watched army Capt. John Evenson, the bride's brother, give her away. Following the wedding the guests were each given small net bags of rice, tied with pale green ribbon, so the bride and groom were thoroughly showered with the white stuff. This set the key-note of gaiety which was carried out in the colorful reception held for the happy couple at the John Monaghan residence on Danaha St. The reception was held in the patio of the Monaghan home with lights suspended in small wicker baskets furnished illumination. The table caught the eyes of all the guests with its gleaming silver and crystal setting. On either end huge crystal punch bowls sparkled with a three-tier cake forming the centerpiece. The cake was decorated in white bells and swans with three white bells and miniature pink flowers on top. The color theme of pink and white was carried out in candles placed in small crystal hurricane lamps on either side of the table. Glamour was lent by open fires in barbecue braziers. The bride is from Wisconsin and is employed by the County Health Department as a registered nurse. Halland works for American Standard. The new couple is spending a leisurely honeymoon traveling through the redwoods and mountains of northern California.

Friends indeed proved themselves to Mrs. Beth Landis last Thursday when they gathered to give her a linen and clothing shower to help replace the articles stolen the week before from their trailer. The shower was hosted by the Martha Circle of which Beth has been a very active member. Those who brought gifts to the gay gathering at the Walteria Park and stopped to enjoy coffee cake and coffee were Jean Cramer, Gloria Rose, Betty Williams, Doris Hague, Doris Hayden, Ruth Maier, Betty Mitchell, Mollie Dowd, Nancy Taylor, Joyce Shires, Barbara Farris, Elizabeth Rich, and Dorothy Bailey.

Mrs. Ken Tucker is back at her home in our town after a wonderful six-week trip back to visit her parents in Sioux Falls, S. D. She took two-year-old son, Jodie, with her and made a real visit of it. Husband, Ken, is glad to have her back though, this bachelor's life isn't for him.

An infatigating shower in honor of Mrs. Beverly Eager was held at the patio of the Las Cadona home of Mrs. Bob Cramer on Tuesday, July 31. The daintily wrapped gifts were heaped on one table, while another sported coffee and fresh baked coffee cake for the shower-brunch. Watching Beverly open the lovely gifts after a time spent pleasantly chatting were Mmes. Elsworth Pfau, William Burgener, Bert Pemble, Jack Nixon, Hubert Rampley, Ed Grogan, William Mitchell, William Cunningham, Dave Coen, and Charles Beck.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Anderson and family of Dalemead St., are back after a wonderful 10-day vacation camping trip spent at Lake Mary in the High Sierras. Joining with the Andersons were members of their families including Gene's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Roberts of Culver City, Gene's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Christian of Whittier, and Jullanna's father, Mr. Leslie Jeffers of Whittier. The men of the group enjoyed a 12-hour horseback pack trip one of the days, going far back in the Sierras to a lake for fishing. Everyone had a wonderful time, though they had to spend part of their time dodging rain drops. Returning last week, the Andersons spent the next day after their arrival home with a trip to Disneyland, which they enjoyed immensely.

Little Cathy Beck celebrated her fourth birthday at her home on Raintree Ave. The little guests brought accessories for Cathy's plastic pool as gifts, and stayed to enjoy games, cake, punch, and ice cream. The little merry-makers included Kent and Kenda Wheeler, Susie Nobles, Randy Holloway, and Margaret Beck.

Anyone who enjoys folk music is invited to attend a musical at the Walteria Methodist Church on Newton St., at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, Aug. 12. The music will be presented by the all colored choir of the St. Peters Church of Compton, and will be a program of spirituals. It should prove to be a very enjoyable evening, so if you like singing, why not plan to attend?

Late Summer Deadly Time On Highways

"Late summer is the deadliest time of the year on California's Highways," Deputy Commissioner Ross E. McDonald of the California Highway Patrol warned last week.

This statement is based on last year's records when 485 persons met violent death on the highways of the unincorporated areas of California during August and September.

Traffic statistics for the year 1955 show August was the most dangerous month with 239 highway traffic deaths, McDonald said. "September followed close with 226 persons killed; while October, with 225 deaths, was the next most dangerous month."

January proved to be the safest month of last year with 138 persons killed," he continued. "During the year 1955 2302 persons met their death on the streets and highways patrolled by the California Highway Patrol."

With a record number of cars registered in California this year and millions of tourists entering our state, highways are more crowded than ever, calling for extra caution and consideration for the other fellow."

Salvation Army Officials Seek 50 Neediest Mothers

Salvation Army officials are looking for the 50 neediest mothers in metropolitan Los Angeles.

Lt. Col. Frank Wilmer, Southern California Salvationist heads wants to invite them, with their young children, to have a week-long expense-free vacation at the Army's community chest-supported summer facility at Redondo Beach where approximately 1000 mothers and children spend a week during June, July, and August.

"We're reaching the end of our camping season and we have held open adequate space to accommodate mothers and their younger children whose need has not been made known to us," Wilmer said. "We will appreciate hearing from those who might qualify for this service."

Wilmer says the Army wants to completely relieve these mothers of household responsibilities and permit them to live the "life of Riley" for a week.
