

Nelson Clan in Move Back to Massachusetts; PTA Sets Sale

By VERA C. WRIGHT

A happy journey with much luck thrown in for good measure is extended to the Robert Nelson family, of 4039 W. 179th St., for they are journeying to their new home in Massachusetts. Also providing the little family group with added joy is the knowledge that the stork will once again pay them a visit. Good luck folks.

A pleasant phone call notified me of the fact that the Perry PTA's annual "Backyard Magic Rummage Sale" is taking place, next Wednesday, Aug. 15 from noon till 4 at 4231 W. 174th St., the home of Mrs. William Boell, chairman. Other persons working on this committee are: Mrs. Eugene Phillips, Mrs. William Gresham and Mrs. Kenneth McVey. For a mere donation of 10 cents, coffee and cookies will be on hand. Any and everyone in the community is invited to attend so don't forget this worthy project.

The 18312 Roslin Ave. home of the Paul W. Herrings was buzzing with happy people on Friday, Aug. 10, with the arrival of Mrs. Herring's mother, Mrs. David Minear, and son, David, of Luray, Kan., who motored to our community with many any discomfort whatsoever and just in time for our rodeo and barbecue. Lucky people!

If you are not a registered voter you may become one by registering at the City Hall or at 18329 Roslin Ave. For evening registration please call FR 2-2288.

David Reed Hooker has been playing host in his wading pool to Shirlene Paulette and Patty and Johnny Herring. A session on the trapeze-swing after their swim completes their gay afternoon.

Get-well wishes are extended to Birdie Herring who is indisposed, recuperating from a recent heart attack.

Charming small-fry Diane Sue Nichols is now sporting six teeth and is the picture of contentment in her lovely new stroller.

One of the loveliest matrons in our community, Mrs. John Arensmeyer, planned a lovely luncheon for past presidents of the Perry PTA only to discover that illness and out-of-town guests intervened so the very active Lee ended up with two guests, Mrs. A. L. MacKenzie and Mrs. W. A. Wright, who partook of a delicious ham luncheon and all the trimmings. Aside from the wonderful food, they viewed and admired the fine new maple living room furniture. Charming teenage daughter, Sandy, was an excellent co-hostess and daughter, Lori, also provided just the right atmosphere for a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. Glen Runsted, with daughter, Joann, and young neighbor, Bonnie Burch, traveled to Nephil, Utah, to visit with her mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson. Glen hopes to pick up his little family in a few weeks on his vacation then they will travel on to Sacramento to visit son, Gordon Cambridge, and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Le Francois' 1903 Firmona Ave. home has been a bee hive of activity for Mrs. Le Francois nearly had a nervous breakdown when their German Shepherd dog gave birth to 10 pups, five girls and five boys, then came time for the Le Francois couple to take members of Scout Troop 967 fishing aboard a real honest to goodness fishing boat.

Joe Kimbrough's face could not have been redder according to his wife and friends for it seems that Joe's mother came in from New York unexpectedly. She had motored in with friends and since the Kimbroughs were expecting company for dinner his mom baked the biscuits and pies for the dinner but went on to Balboa with her friends for a couple of days, you're beginning to get the plot! That's right Joe still didn't know she was in town and when everyone raved over the biscuits and pies Joe informed them that they really weren't too bad but they didn't even begin to measure up to the ones his mother made! Joe informs us he is taping his mouth up right now!

Peggy LeFrancois is the happiest aunt in the world and Mr. and Mrs. Robert LeFrancois are the proudest parents for little Genice Ann just made her appearance.

This very handsome happily married couple, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. MacKenzie spent an exciting weekend in San Diego while good-looking sons, Freddie and Kenny, joined Scout Troop 753 at their Cedar Camp venture at Lake Arrowhead. The MacKenzies managed to stay overnight at Pacific Beach.

This has been a very bad season indeed for Claudine Blake, 16825 Thornburgh Ave., who is once again recuperating from the ever-persistent pneumonia bug. It is hoped that she will do away with the pesky annoying bug once and for all!

Shirley Bush, Dorothy Lening, Twilah Stone, Mildred Kupka, Eunice Reddick, Pat Dohner, Betty Baillie, Edith Wells, Bernice Reddick and Reatha Newmann enjoyed partaking of homemade caramel nut coffee cake and coffee at the 4332 179th St. home of Alice MacKenzie. Those that spent in their donations for the El Nido PTA vanishing party but were unable to attend were Dolores Andicochea, Peggy Pertsch, Jessie Cable and Audrey Miller.

Scout Troop 967 will be grateful for any magazines and papers that you might want to get rid of and they will pick them up. The phone number to call is FRonier 8-8242.

Talk about luck. It seems that the R. Stillson's freezer was completely empty till they started fishing two weeks ago and now they not only have a freezer full of fish, but they have been trading neighbors some fresh fish for pork and beef. Wish I had thought of that!

We had such a lovely day last week end that I just have to share it with you. My husband, Bill, my 12 year old son, Wayne, and 14 year old son, Billy, and 5 year old nephew, David Hooker, spent an hour in meditation at the Wayfarers Chapel then proceeded on to Oceanarium at Marineland where we viewed the feeding of the porpoises and play hour of the seals and got acquainted with many strangers of the sea. Luncheon at their restaurant provided the boys with plenty of table conversation for the atmosphere makes one feel that they are in King Neptune's cave.

The "Indian Love Call" is the favorite song of lovely Esther Millsbaugh who not only had a wonderful dinner party in her honor but celebrated at a pre-birthday party in a most unusual but original manner. Happy birthday!

We can't seem to feel too sad about Dortha Willey moving from north Torrance. She has bought a lovely new home at the corner of Flower and Carson Ave., which is just being built but will be ready for the family to occupy by September.

Many lovely birthday gifts were received by Mrs. Cecil Davis, of 18337 Roslin Ave., on her birthday last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hinds celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary with their children at Disneyland and ate a delicious chicken dinner at Knott's Berry Farm. Reason for all this was that their friends all combined their money and bought them Disneyland tickets as well as filling their tank full of gas and oil and gave them spending money, as well as paid their dinner tab. Some people have all the luck, don't they?

Roller skating took the limelight at the patio party given by newly-married Jane and Eddie Risdon. After a meal of hamburgers, hot dogs and baked beans, prepared under the do-it-yourself plan, the Risdons proceeded on to a new roller rink where they and their guests, six other couples, danced and skated in rhythm.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Higgins hosted a Sunday evening "come as you are" party and among the group could be seen shorts, trunks, pedal pushers, robes, Lili Ann suits, party dresses, cottons and a Bikini. If anyone had worn a negligee they would have won a savings bond and Tom Ward demanded the prize for minus shoes and shirt he had on a pair of trunks two sizes too small!

Roast turkey and all the trimmings was enjoyed by the Dave Hernandez family in Hollywood, for they spent an entire day viewing television programs and came home the proud owners of a pop-up toaster.
