Harbor JC's Kepley Named As Curriculum Coordinator

William N. Kepley, Jr., dean of curriculum and instruction at Harbor Junior College, has been promoted to the position of junior college curriculum coordinator for the seven Los Angeles junior colleges, Raymond J. Casey, Tech director, announced last week. Kepley has been at Harbor Junior College since February, 1950. He served in succession as an instructor of economics and physical education, as director of public relations, as San Pedro and taught there and at San Pedro High School until transferring to Harbor Junior College in 1950. Kepley is chairman of the Vocational Guidance Committee of the San Pedro Kiwanis Club, a member and former secretary of San Pedro Lodge No. 332, F&AM, teacher of the Adult Class of the First Meth-

Manuscripters To Hear Author Of 'Dr. Kate'

Featured speaker at tomorrow's meeting of the Southwest Manuscripters, will be Adele Comandini, author of "Dr. Kate," according to Ramonita O'Connor and Polly Booth of the program committee. The Southwest Manuscripters, an organization of professional and aspiring writers meets on the third Friday evening of every month at 8 p.m. at Clark Stadium, Valley Drive, just south of Pier Ave., in Hermosa Beach. "Dr. Kate" is the life story of the courageous woman doctor, Kate Pelham Newcomb, affectionately known as the "Angel on Snowshoes" in the rugged area where she served. Miss Comandini has written an inspiring story of a woman whose devotion to her remote community has saved hundreds of lives and led to the building of a church and hospital there. "Dr. Kate" has been on the non-fiction best seller lists in many sections of the country and is a recent Christopher Award winner. Miss Comandini's subject will be "Is There a Book in Your Life?" It was the appearance of "Dr. Kate" on the "This Is Your Life" TV program which inspired her to plan the biography. She spent many months conferring with Dr. Kate and collecting factual material. Miss Comandini is also a well-known motion picture writer, being remembered for such top screen hits as "Three Smart Girls" and "Flying Down to Rio," among many others.

Employment Agency To Open Here

Service Associates Employment Agency opens today here at 1623 Cravens Ave. Ross Frampton and Jim Carter, counselors, have announced. The agency, which serves the jobless with a number of employment opportunities, will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. In addition, the firm will remain open until 7:30 p.m. Fridays and from 8:30 a.m. to noon on Saturday until Sept. 15. This will be to service those people who can't leave their present job to avail themselves of the agency's services. All kinds of jobs will be backlogged by the agency, Carter said, in order to serve the widest variety of persons. An added feature will be advertising of the job applicants, Carter continued. The firm has an office in Los Angeles and one due to open today also, in Long Beach. Arcadia Address Leo Shaw, local attorney, will address the Arcadia Lions Club today at an Arcadia restaurant.
