

Everything Ready for Arrival Of Rijke Family in Walleria

By BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4438

There will be brand new Americans living in our town who will be of interest to our whole community. The Dirk Rijke family of the Netherlands, Reinier, 14, Wilhemina, 13, and Dickie, 3½, will be living on Park St. The Rijke family is the first resettlement family to be brought to Torrance under the refugee act of 1953. Sponsors for the family is the First Christian Church of Torrance who have worked very hard to make this little group feel welcome and secure in their new surroundings. Last week the Rebecca Circle of the church held their meeting in the Park St. house getting it cleaned and ready for occupancy, even to groceries on shelf. It was a kind of house warming. This is the culmination of a project started back as far as last November when the church committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edward Pletschke began to cut the red tape necessary to bring the Rijkjes to the U. S. Others working on the resettlement committee are Mr. and Mrs. John Shellman, Dick Gresham, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lincoln, Ray Stewart, Mrs. Ann Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Burke Mosley, and Mrs. James Ashlock. What a wonderful opportunity we in this community have to make this little family happy in this, our own United States. It is this reporter's hope that they will find many new friends and helping hands in our town.

That Scout Hall on Madison St. is taking shape slowly but surely. The plaster board is up on the inside, and the building is all wired ready for stuccoing. There is plenty of material available for the completion of this important meeting place for our young people, and only one thing lacking. That is a lot of willing hands to do the work. If the hall is not completed within the next few weeks it will only be because there were not enough men in this town willing to volunteer one or two hours of work on Saturday mornings. So far just a handful of men have done practically all the work, and it is a pretty big job for just a few. So, remember, the more hands the merrier, so why not put on your work clothes, grab a hammer, and go up the hill on Saturday to lend your help to this more than worthy cause? Believe me, it will be greatly appreciated.

Glad to hear that Mrs. Roger (Dr. Eleanor) Thill of Primm Way is feeling better after undergoing surgery recently. Here are our best get well wishes for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick DeMott of Dalemead St. have returned from a vacation spent visiting the George Littletons of Mountain View, Calif. The Littletons formerly lived on Alameda St.

Out-of-town guests on Danaha St. are Billy and Jerry Cunningham and family of Oakland. They are visiting at the home of Bob and Carol Allison.

The Bill Addingtons of Madison Court are off on a wonderful trip combining traveling with camping. They plan to head for the Redwoods and ad-lib from there.

There has been another Walleria house full of company these past weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Burke Mosley of Ward St. have had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Lee Arnold of Tulsa, Okla., and their two sons, Bob and Jack. The Mosleys had been anticipating this visit for some time since Ethel Mosley and Mrs. Arnold were in the University of Oklahoma together where their lasting friendship was formed. Thirty minutes before the Arnolds arrived, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Naumann and their son Billy arrived from Tucson. The Naumanns are uncle and aunt of Mrs. Mosley, and had come to pay a surprise visit. Two days later the W. D. Mosleys, Burkes' parents, came to spend some time at the Mosley home. With this house full you can imagine the fun and activity that went on until the Naumanns, last of the guests, departed on Aug. 22.

The sizzling of barbecued steaks and chicken lent an appetizing aroma to the patio when the local Kiwanis Club held a party at Nickel's Ranch on Newton St. last Sunday afternoon and evening. Swimming, eating, dancing, all were greatly enjoyed by the more than 50 guys and gals who came to have fun. Presiding over the cooking was Jack Sakayue with Fred Kita ably assisting him. Since only chopsticks were given out with the plates, and one had to rent knives and forks, there was a sloppy good time had eating with many weird ways of using the chopsticks witnessed. The whole evening came to a happy end after dancing to a four-piece combo which played accompaniment for shuffling feet.

Speaking of the local Kiwanis organization reminds us of the wonderful project the club will be sponsoring in our town in the very near future. They plan to set up polio immunization shots for children 10 and under for residents of our town. More details about this next week, so be sure to look for it if you are interested.

Sad farewells were bid last Monday morning when the Frank Olsons, who have been visiting at the Tom Fitzpatrick home on Danaha St. for several weeks bid adieu. Their last week end here in Walleria was a busy one since they attended the Torrance Shell Oil plan picnic held last Saturday at the South Gate Park, with the Fitzpatricks. Everyone had a good time eating an immense pot-luck lunch, and playing games. Incidentally, the Fitzpatricks came home loaded with prizes, among them a portable barbecue, basketball, volleyball, ping pong set, peg board, stuffed dog.

Quite a group of residents of Walleria had fun seeing "Damn Yankee" at Philharmonic Auditorium last Friday evening. Nine of the youth choir members of the local Methodist Church went including Priscilla Beasley, Louise and Virginia Marsh, Lynn Trantham, Marion Daniels, Carolyn Cummings, Wilma Cornell, Adelle and Melba Allen. Adults accompanying them were the Ed Grogans, Stewart Roses, J. A. Beasley, Roy Cornells, John Chaudanos, Mrs. Everett Marsh and the Bob Cramers. Upon the return home the young people of the group all adjourned to the Beasley home on Ocean St., where they had a giggling good time at a slumber party followed by a hearty breakfast the next morning.

Surprise guests from Dallas, Tex., came avisting at the Roy Cornell home last week. The Ward St. house was the scene of many fond memories, then Roy's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, dropped in to spend a couple of days.

The J. A. Beasleys of Ocean Ave. spent an interesting week end recently when they attended open house at Fort Ord. The open house was held by Company C of the Reserve Forces Act Regiment. The approximately 1000 guests watched the whole company on parade followed by a tour of the post seeing the guns, planes, and equipment the soldiers use. Meals were served at the mess hall. After the two days at the Fort, Priscilla Beasley along with Leona Judson and Louise Marsh went on to Mountain View near San Francisco where they spent the following week. Accompanying the girls were Mr. and Mrs. Modest Berner.

223rd Street School Ends Summer Program

Summer fun ended last Friday, Aug. 17 on the 223rd St. School Playground. The boys and girls that have been attending the playground all summer, celebrated the end of activities and looked seriously toward the opening day of school.

The party started at 12:30 in the school's auditorium with a quiz and door prizes. A dramatic play followed, called "Rain-in-the-Face." Refreshments were served by the school's PTA, headed by Mrs. David P. Goolsby.

Don Heath, the playground director and teacher at the school, said school registration will start the first week of September and school will start on the 17th.
