Franklin Voices Opposition to Aircraft Plant Dispersal Plans

A strong protest against further dispersal of Southern California's giant aircraft plants was voiced this week by Charles A. Franklin, Republican nominee for Congress, after a discussion of the matter with Secretary of Defense Charles Wilson.

In personal discussions with the key members of President Eisenhower's cabinet, Franklin told Secretary Wilson of the vital importance of continued aircraft production to the economic prosperity of the Southland.

"Citizens of the 17th District as well as other Los Angeles metropolitan areas are heavily dependent upon aircraft for their livelihoods," Franklin said. He pointed out that one out of four families currently receive their income from aviation or related work in this area. Franklin said that Southern California's concentration of the aircraft industry is much less vulnerable to attack than Detroit's grouping of auto and defense plants or many concentrations of major defense producers in other eastern industrial areas.

"After talking with citizens of the 17th Congressional District, I am convinced they are gravely concerned with the threat of possible aircraft dispersal. They have enthusiastically endorsed my program of strong resistance to any attempt to remove local aircraft operations to other parts of the nation," Franklin said.

Congressman Due Home from European Junket Saturday

Congressman Cecil King, who has been on a European tour as a member of a subcommittee of the House Ways and Means Committee this summer, is scheduled to arrive home Saturday to open his campaign for re-election to Congress.

He will kick off his campaign in Torrance Saturday night when he appears as guest of the Bay Area Postal Employees Assn. at their annual banquet to be held at the Wayfarers Restaurant in Lomita.

He will follow through on Monday with a tour of the Democratic campaign headquarters located throughout the 17th District, which he has represented since he succeeded Congressman Lee E. Geyer at a special election in 1942, an election called on the death of Congressman Geyer.

Prior to the election of King, who was 42 at the time, to fill Geyer's Congressional post, he had served in the California Legislature as an Assemblyman for 10 years.

At the time of his first election to Congress, King was chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee and chairman of the Assembly Committee on Military Affairs.

He is now seeking election to his eighth term in Congress.

B'nai B'rith to Present Book To South Bay Mayors

A stimulating interfaith affair, "Operation Cross Currents," will be presented by the South Bay B'nai B'rith men's lodge and women's chapter Wednesday, Oct. 10, at 8:30 p.m. at the Gardena Community Center, 1651 Market St., Gardena, according to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Snitzer, 2720 W. 174th St., presidents of the two groups.

Six cities will be represented and the mayors of these cities have been extended special invitation. Included are Albert Isen, Torrance; William D. Sachau, Hermosa Beach; J. Russell Shea, Redondo Beach; Thomas K. Ware, Gardena; Victor Zachlin, Hawthorne; and David C. Logan, who will represent Manhattan Beach mayor Thomas P. Foye.

Each mayor will be presented with a copy of "Cross Currents," written by Arnold Foster and Benjamin R. Epstein, staff members of the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League. The book is a carefully documented expose of intolerance and bigotry during the last half decade. Many prominent church leaders, city council representatives, educators, and B'nai B'rith officers are being invited to attend.

Anti-Defamation League director of Civic Rights Harvey Schechter, will be the keynote speaker for the evening.

Co-chairmen of the affair will be Mrs. Howard Weingart and Norman Horwitz of Los Angeles. Refreshments will be served after the meeting, and will be followed by a social hour.
