Punishment Named Topic This Sunday

The question of the punishment or destruction of evil and the rewards inherent in genuine goodness will be discussed in the Lesson-Sermon on "Everlasting Punishment" to be given in all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

From Isaiah (26:7, 10) are taken these words, "The way of the just is uprightness; thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just. . . . Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness. . . . and will not behold the majesty of the Lord." "A magistrate sometimes remits the penalty, but this may be of no normal benefit to the criminal and at best, it only saves the criminal from one form of punishment. The moral law, which has the right to acquit or condemn, always demands restitution before mortals can 'go up higher,'" says Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." Later she declares, "Truth bestows no pardon upon error, but wipes it out in the most effectual manner" (p. 11).

The Golden Text points to the main theme in Jeremiah's words, "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord" (Lam. 3:39, 49).
