

Hobos Frolic at Surprise Party for Carl Johnson

By JANET ROBINSON
FR 5-7063

Mary Johnson, 4703 Green Meadows Ave., recently held a surprise hobo birthday party for her husband, Carl.

The evening was spent pinning the tail on the donkey, bobbing for apples, and just acting like kids in general. All the guests were made up and dressed as hobos. Silly gifts were brought which made a riot of laughs. Delicious dips and snacks were served throughout the evening.

Carl's brothers, Elmer and Harry and their wives, Alice and Elva, were there along with many other guests including, Lois and Art Brubaker, Rosie and Bill Davis, Marian and Bill Zurborg, Marie and Gene Dossi, Marilyn and Walt Torstenson, Hazel and Tom Bishop, Mil and Dave Knechols, Marilyn and Dick Loftus, Wendel Clutter, Lois and John Prannin and Mrs. Helma Johnson.

Doris Udy, 4514 Pacific Coast Hwy., had the neighborhood club to her home last Wednesday evening. Several games were played and lots of fun enjoyed by all the women.

Those present for the evening were Agnes Rogers, Merla Wilson, Mary Wilhelm, Lucy Pesusich, Dorothy Frey, Jeanne Bowman, Helen Hackbusch and Jackie Carne. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Duane and Katherine Dawson, 4420 Pacific Coast Hwy., had some very welcome company over the week end in the person of Katherine's brother, Master Sgt. Raymond Reynolds of the USAF.

Sgt. Reynolds is on 30-day temporary duty in Yuma, Ariz., from his regular station in Grand View, Mo. He managed a brief stay with his sister and her family for the first time since 1951.

A different way of celebrating her eighth birthday was celebrated by Jeanne Tripaldi, her sister Bonnie and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tripaldi, traveled with the girls to Santa's Village in the San Bernardino Mountains.

Linda Calohan, Judy Hampton and Donna Schenk accompanied them. They left at 9 a.m. and returned at 9 p.m., so a full day was enjoyed by all. The girls stopped for a picnic on the way up and after arriving they rode on the sleigh, Cinderella's pumpkin, entered one of the Christmas ornaments on the huge Christmas tree and took a ride in that.

The burro ride was also lots of fun for all. Of course, before leaving they all had a talk with good old Saint Nicholas himself.

With the Christmas season coming ever nearer, toy parties are becoming more numerous in Ellinwood neighborhoods.

Phyllis Birch, 5026 Pacific Coast Hwy., had a party last Monday eve to which she invited all of her neighbors to see her display of the latest toys and gadgets for the small fry. Phyllis will be a demonstrator this year.

Twenty people were gathered at Katherine Dawson's home last Thursday evening for a toy party.

They included Maude Buckley, Betty Olson, Delores Charter, Pinky Rameriz, Pat Fleener, Margaret Darnall, Dottie Santo, Liz Adams, Dottie Uden, Doris Udy, Dorothy Frey, Angelina Murietta, Leta Louzeur, Shirley Larsen, Glee Cullis, Stephanie and Suzanne Sherk brought home-made enchiladas which were served along with garlic bread, tossed salad, cake, cookies, coffee, milk and cold punch.

The girls enjoying earning merits for their beads while helping people are Marilyn and Charlene Hackbusch, Stephanie and Suzanne Schenk, Bonnie Tripaldi, Yvonne Whitecotton, and Shirleen Boe. Leader, Mrs. Marian Tripaldi and Mrs. Helen Hackbusch helped the girls.

At the PTA meeting tonight at the Newton School cafeteria at 8 p.m., Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of the Torrance Unified School District, will be the guest speaker and will answer any questions on the schools in Torrance.

Mrs. Otto Willett will also speak on "What is TEAC?" The first grad. mothers will be the hostesses for the social hour that follows the meeting.

All women, no men. That is what is in store for local theater goers when Accent Theatre present Clare Boothe Luce's modern classic, "The Women."

At Torrance High School Auditorium on Saturday, the opening night audience will view this brilliant sophisticated comedy as interpreted by a glittering cast of 35 women. Subsequent performances will be given on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 23 and 24.

Pat Cantle, who will be remembered for her performance in "The Fourposter" heads Director Stan Johnson's stellar cast as Mary, the idealistic wife bothered by "friends." Bonnie Anderson brings her professional experience to the role of Sylvia, the malicious femme fatale. Beautiful Beverly Hylls plays Crystal—the other woman.

Judy Sagenkahn brings her flair for comedy to the part of Edith Potter, the ever-pregnant, commiserating friend. Wanda Lawrence plays Nancy, the acid tongued career woman. Lovely Lola Kelley interprets Peggy the searching young wife.

Yes, thank you—all you good people—for the tremendous vote you gave me in the Nov. 6 general election. And a million thanks to those of you who worked actively in my campaign; and to the district newspapers for their fair treatment. And to my Republican opponent, Tom Brewer, my best good wishes.
