

Kiwanis Club Planning to Help Underprivileged Families Here

The Lomita Kiwanis Club further assisted the Butch Hudgins' fund by donating additional cash toward the medical expenses that still exist.

The local club is also working to ready a committee to help brighten the coming holiday season for underprivileged families. Don Bowker said if anyone knows of anyone needing help at that time, please contact Committee Chairman Dick Beck at DA 6-9947 and committee members would be happy to investigate.

Division 19 of Kiwanis Clubs is holding training conferences for presidents-elect and other interested members at the Cockatoo Cafe on Sunday for all Kiwanis Clubs in the area.

All Kiwanis Clubs will be represented at the installation of Lt. Gov. Clyde Walker on Tuesday at the Hacienda in San Pedro. Walker is a member of the Hawthorne Club.

The Job's Daughters Mothers' Club, Bethel 137, met last Thursday in the Torrance home of Audra Conner.

Plans for the Christmas party were made, with the date set for Dec. 22 in the Lomita American Legion Hall. Additional plans included a gift exchange and a white elephant table. It was decided the party would be for the club members and their husbands.

Verna Chamberlain will be chairman of the party committee. Dorothy Buzan will be the co-chairman, with Mary Fowler, Cathrine Mulhere and Virgil Millett helping.

Thelma Eastin acted as co-hostess for the Nov. 14 meeting at which 24 mothers were present.

The Lomita Opti-Mrs. joined other members in enjoying a "gas" party hosted by the Southern California Gas Co. in San Pedro. After a dessert luncheon the group watched a home appliance demonstration, followed by a card party at which nearly 50 prizes were won.

Among the door prize winners were Lomita residents John Kellogg, Mrs. Jim Munson, Evelyn Dollarhide, and W. D. Arnold.

The Lomita Opti-Mrs. are planning a Thanksgiving dinner basket with plenty of extras for a needy family somewhere in the immediate vicinity.

Other activities of the members include selling Christmas cards.

A call for old paper, rags and grease has been issued by the students of St. Margaret Mary's school in preparation for their drive to be held at the school next Wednesday.

Donations should be delivered to the school by 11 a.m. on the 28th, or it can be picked up by calling DA 6-5276.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Biggs of 253174 Cypress Ave. welcomed their first son and second child on Nov. 4. The baby was named David Anthony and weighed 7 pounds 2 ounces.

The annual national inspection took place at the recent meeting of the Phi Sigma Phi sorority, Chi chapter.

Members of the board of trustees from Alhambra conducted the inspection to see if the club was up to date in its procedures.

A toy party is planned for the next meeting to be held at Mrs. John Thomas' home, 1203 Summerland Ave., San Pedro, on Nov. 28 at 8 p.m.

Dec. 22 has been set aside for the Chapter's Christmas party. The place will be announced later.

The place will be announced later.

Patrol leaders of Boy Scout Troop 255 assembled at the home of Scoutmaster Newell H. Brown to practice the Morse code with flags and the buzzer. Learning the Morse code will give the boys merits toward their Merit Awards.

Additional practice went into drills and ceremony rituals in preparation for their Court of Honor scheduled for Tuesday.

Topic of discussion was the plans for future campouts that would prepare their candidates for the Order of the Arrow.

Representing the leadership of Troop 255 were Michael Bradshaw, Robert Johnson, Jeff Pruitt, Michael Brown, Gary Jensen, and Charles Bradshaw.

Scout Troop 255 is sponsored by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

Christmas plans were completed at the regular association meeting of the 259th Place School PTA.

"A Child of Bethlehem," depicting the birth and boyhood of Christ, and the color film of "The Littlest Angel" will be purchased for the students of both 259th Place and Nor-mont Schools.

A batten screen for the goal set by the Community Chest agency had been $299. The largest portion of the amount had been collected in the first two days, and that by the end of the week the sum had reached $344.84.

Mrs. Roberts thanked the 24 mothers for their time, hard work and conscientiousness.

The 259th Place School PTA sponsored groups of Brownies and Girl Scouts have a particular need for leaders and girls in the second and third grade categories.

The girls and their leaders participate in many outdoor activities such as nature hikes, cookouts, and tours of places of interest.

Among other things the girls will learn craftwork and the art of building fires outdoors safely and properly.

Anyone interested can contact Mrs. C. E. Asptille at DA 6-6075.

After the business was conducted the mothers spent the remainder of the evening sewing.
