

Jobs Daughters to Install New Officers Saturday Eve

"Star of Joy" will be the theme when Torrance Job's Daughters Bethel 50, holds its semi-annual public installation of officers on Saturday evening, Dec. 1, at 8 at the Torrance Masonic Temple. Miss Linda Thayne will be installed as Honored Queen succeeding Miss Susan Babcock. Miss Thayne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thayne, 1029 W. 223rd St. is a senior at Narbonne High School.

Among other activities, she enjoys an avid interest in the Candy Striper Volunteers at the Harbor General Hospital, which has helped her to further her ambitions in pursuing a nursing career.

Other elective officers to be installed are Jeannette Wright, senior princess; Kay Smith, junior princess; Sharon Neely, guide, and Mary Margaret Blount, marshal.

Appointive officers, who will assume their new duties are: Caroline Janssens, chaplain; Marlene Fulton, recorder; Pat Smith, treasurer; Carol Waldrip, librarian; Sheila Hogan, musician; Bonnie Kail, senior custodian; Carole Fowler, junior custodian; Barbara Alter, inner guard; Jackie Lenten, outer guard; Karen Peterson, Kay Howard, Janalee Bristow, Phyllis Bryson, and Kathy Jones, messengers.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS ELECTION DEC. 4

Torrance Royal Neighbors will meet Dec. 4 to elect officers. Stella Norris, oracle, urges a good attendance as final plans for the Christmas dinner to be held Tuesday evening, Dec. 18, will also be made.

The annual bazaar was proclaimed a huge success and the card party on Tuesday night was well attended.

Fuchsia Society's Annual White Christmas Ball Dec. 8

Ring in the holiday season, the North Torrance Fuchsia Society announced their White Christmas dance to be held on Saturday, Dec. 8, at the Western Avenue Country Club. The society met last Tuesday for their regular monthly meeting at McMaster Park Hall.

The meeting opened with a flag ceremony given by South Bay Girl Scout Troop 171. Scouts participating were Zelda DuRea, Mary Ann Taylor, Susie Busby, Margarete Watson, Delela McCaw, Mary Jane McCray and Carol Dean Kendrick. They were accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Wilbur Watson.

Mrs. Susan Boettcher won the membership prize and Priscilla Beaudoin won the guest prize. Birthdays honored were Dorothy Soth, Jackie Bahajian, Doris Enright, Helen Kilgore, Dorothy McGrady, Eleanor Ruby, Shirley Rye, Evelyn Warden, Robert Cage, and Robert Payne. President Robert Payne presided over the meeting.

Three children from the Betty Thomas Studio in Torrance, presented musical numbers for the evening's entertainment. They were Carol Giles, Jerry Roberts, and Kenneth Roberts.

Lioness Club To Assist at Breakfast

The newly organized North Torrance Lioness Club is busy with plans to assist their husbands, the Lions, with a benefit breakfast next Saturday morning, Dec. 1, at the McMaster Park, 174th and Yukon Ave. The breakfast will be served from 7:30 a.m. until noon. The public is invited to attend.

This new group enjoyed an evening out as their first social event. They had dinner at an Italian restaurant and then visited the Long Beach Pike. Several members attended the Lions convention in Catalina.

The next business meeting of the Lioness club will be held Monday, Dec. 3 at the home of Mrs. Gerald Cunery, 17039 Elgar Ave., at 8 p.m.

Players to Give Benefit Performance

Hampton Players are giving a benefit performance of "Egad, What a Cad," in the auditorium of the Church of the Holy Faith, 260 N. Locust, Inglewood, this Friday and Saturday, Nov. 30 and Dec. 1. Curtain time will be 8:30 p.m. The cast, made up primarily of Torrance people, include Daisy Ford, local realtor; Dominica Hauser, Jean Menninger, and Pat Brown. Other members are Ethel Dugan, who is also president of Hampton Players, from Redondo Beach; Jay Pearson, Inglewood, and Glenn Hoeffner, Manhattan Beach. Dorothy Tunis, Hollywood Riviera, will direct the performance.

The evening's entertainment will also include olio acts. There will be a small donation. The benefit performance for the Church of the Holy Faith follows the successful presentation for the benefit of the Harbor Mental Health Clinic.

CHRISTMAS TEA SCHEDULED DEC. 7

St. Margaret's Guild of St. Francis Episcopal Church, Palos Verdes Estates, announces their Christmas Tea, to be held at the home of Mrs. George Tremble, 1725 Palos Verdes Dr. West, Palos Verdes Estates, on Dec. 7 from 3 to 5 p.m. Members of the guild will act as hostesses and handmade Christmas candles and garlands will be sold. Proceeds will go to the parish hall building fund.

Hi-Y Clubs To Conduct 'Car Wash'

Need a good car wash job? The Estrellitas Horizon Club and the Leuzinger Hi-Y clubs are conducting a car wash on Saturday, Dec. 1, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. at a garage at 853 W. El Segundo Blvd. in Hawthorne.

Proceeds made by the Horizon Club will go toward their three-state convention to be held at the Statler Hotel in Los Angeles in March.

Horizon Clubs consist of senior girls of the Campfire organization. Recent activities included a Horizon Club Day, sponsored by Gene Norman on his Campus Club Show. A large number of girls attended the Pomona Fair in September.

Installation of new officers and induction of new members was held recently at Warren Lane School in Inglewood. Outgoing president, Judy Erzberger handed the gavel to incoming president, Gayle Yeagan. Vice president Judy Fate was succeeded by Sandra Foltz. Mickey Neilsen is the new secretary and Barbara Lonsdale the new treasurer.

Gardenias were presented to the new members, Linda Lawhern and Jill Miller. Honored guests were Mrs. L. Lawhern, Mrs. M. Teague, Mrs. C. Yeagan and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller. The advisor, Mrs. W. Bennett, was presented with a corsage.

The Estrellitas are currently engaged in the process of binding and repairing the books in the library of the Baptist Home in Inglewood.
