MRS. ROBERT G. HAMMACK
... Makes Promises

Helen Roberts Exchanges Vows with R. G. Hammack

A dainty flower basket and the pearls worn by the bride added touches of sentiment to the lovely wedding ceremony Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church when Miss Helen Diane Roberts became the bride of Robert Glenn Hammack.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Bartlett Roberts, 205 Via Colusa, was given in marriage by her father. She wore the pearl earrings of her maternal grandmother and carried pink rosebuds and a white Bible given her by her grandmother when the bride was a young girl.

The flower basket carried by the little flower girl, Pamela Penrod, was used by the bridegroom's grandmother at her wedding. The bridal gown of white nylon dotted Swiss, featured a sweetheart neckline, a tight bodice and a very full skirt which dipped slightly in back forming a short train. The waistlength veil of nylon net was caught up in a circle, bound in white satin with white satin rosebuds. Dainty pink rosebuds made up the bridal bouquet.

The ballerina-length gowns of the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were in shades of pink and nylon dotted swiss. They also carried bouquets of pink rosebuds. Maid of honor was Linda Thistle, and Jill Aber and Beverly Oaks were the bridesmaids. The flower girls wore a floor-length gown of bright pink nylon dotted swiss. Officiating at the 2 p.m. ceremony was Rev. Nathan Bond, assistant pastor of the First Baptist Church. The organist was the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Verna Thistle, who also accompanied the vocalist, Sherwood Tierney sang "Oh Perfect Love," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Glenn Hammack, 1307 S. Catalina. Acting as best man was Robert Broddus, with Theodore Carrington and Lee Richardson as ushers. The bride's brother, Arthur Roberts was the ring bearer, and Miss Melody Mabin was in charge of the guest book. A wedding reception was held in the church parlors after the ceremony. Miss Audrey Stevens poured at the reception table. The immediate families gathered at the Roberts' home for supper that evening.

A graduate of Torrance High School, class of '56, the bride was a Song Queen, a Tartar Lady and a member of the Tri-Hi-Y, holding a number of offices in her class and in the student body government. The bridegroom, who is associated with his father in business and is manager of the Empire Food Center, graduated from Redondo Union High School and attended two years at El Camino Junior College and one year at Long Beach State.

After a brief wedding trip to Palm Springs, the couple will be at home during the month of May at his parents' home, while the senior Hammacks spend the month in Honolulu. The newlyweds plan a more extensive trip through the northern part of the United States in August.

GUILD MEETING WEDNESDAY

Ladies Guild of the Central Evangelical Church will hold its regular monthly business and social meeting in the guild hall at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, May 8.

Mrs. Alice Speegar will be in charge. Mrs. Hilda Findlay will lead the devotional.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mmes. Mable Haslem, Marie Taylor and Amanda Law.

CHICAGO VISITOR

Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas, 4005 Calle de Arboles, had as their week-end guest Gordon Argall of Chicago who was in California attending the third National Flight Test Instrumentation Symposium at the Hotel Statler. Mr. Argall is director of education research of De Vry Technical Institute, Chicago. He is also executive secretary of the National Electronics Conference. Mr. Thomas was a teacher at De Vry before coming to California as electronic engineer at Hughes Aircraft.
