

OSTEOPATHIC AUXILIARY INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

Mrs. Otto Frantzich, wife of a Gardena physician, was installed as president of the Auxiliary to the Bay-Harbor Osteopathic Society in a candlelight ceremony at the Hacienda Tuesday evening, May 7.

Installing Officer Mrs. Marcus S. Gerlach of Santa Barbara, incoming president of the Auxiliary to the California Osteopathic Assn., commended the Bay Harbor group on its first two years' achievements. She will be installed as State president at the forthcoming convention in Coronado, May 15-19.

The following officers were seated for the 1957-57 term: Mmes. Arthur D. Pedersen, president-elect; Hassan Momiary, of Manhattan Beach, first vice president; Ronald Runciman, of San Pedro, recording secretary; Robert Patterson, of Rolling Hills, corresponding secretary; Don Cortum, of Redondo Beach, treasurer.

Chairmen for the year are: Mmes. Dean Brown, of Gardena, membership; George Lee, of Inglewood, courtes; George Wall, of San Pedro, magazines; Richard Butler, of Palos Verdes, Christmas seals; Pershing Turner, of Manhattan Beach, scholarship; Paul D. Yates, of Hermosh Beach, parliamentarian; Clark B. Walsworth, of San Pedro, public health and child welfare; Ernest H. Fogelberg, of Rolling Hills, press, radio, and television; G. F. Quiros, of Redondo Beach, co-chairman of press; Allen Brown, of Palos Verdes, telephone; and Dr. Joanne Boyce, of Redondo Beach, clinic chairman for the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons, at Los Angeles.

The challenge of goals to be met by the Auxiliary during the coming year is not new to Mrs. Frantzich. As ways and means chairman this past year, she applied herself with determination and skill to the various projects launched by the auxiliary. The year previous to this difficult chairmanship, she was Christmas Seal chairman.

CRISP, COOL AND CHIC... will be the array of fashions to be paraded at the luncheon and show to be staged by the local court, Catholic Daughters of America, Sunday afternoon at Caprino's. After the luncheon, to be served at 1:30, there will be a display of men's fashions, summer fashions for milady, and an entire bridal party fashion show. Musical entertainment has been planned and there will be door prizes galore. Mrs. John Gittschier is chairman of the event and is being assisted by Mrs. Gerald Revell. The newest in hairstyles, jewelry and sunglasses will also be featured. Pictured in a perky preview of what's in store for fashion lovers are three new styles modeled by (from left) Mrs. Edward Winkelbauer, Mrs. James Carlin (standing), and Mrs. Dennis Flacy. A limited number of tickets are now on sale and may be secured by calling Mrs. John Gittschier.

New Wilson Home Gala Party Scene

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Wilson thoroughly warmed the handsome new contemporary-style home at 420 Via la Selva recently.

The housewarming, a complete surprise to the honorees, was attended by 40 couples, each of whom contributed to the gift of two turquoise lounges for the patio.

The couples planning the party were Mr. and Mrs. William Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sutherland. Additional food was provided by Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forshee.

The guests duly inspected the lovely home which was designed to the Wilson's specifications and built by Mr. Wilson, who is a contractor. The evening was spent dancing in the family room which was distinguished by its unique flooring, "resembling polished head brick," according to Mrs. Sutherland. Refreshments consisted of snacks, dips and drinks. One of the many unusual features is the entry way which is flanked with aquar-
