Orville Duncans Announce Carolyn's Wedding Plans

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Duncan, 1906 W. 235th St., are today announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carolyn, to Walter L. Klein, son of Walter Klein of Torrance and Mrs. Doris Peugh of Gardena.

The wedding will be an event of July 6.

Miss Duncan was graduated from Torrance High School in 1955. Mr. Klein attended Leuzinger High School before entering the United States Navy. He recently returned from a tour of duty in Japan and is stationed at San Diego.

Sisterhood Dance Party Saturday

Climaxing Temple Menorah Sisterhood's full year of social and fund-raising activities, will be a Square Dance and Chuck Wagon Party to be held on Saturday, May 25, 8:30 p.m., at Grant Community Hall, Perry Park, Grant and Slauson, in North Redondo. Delicious chuck wagon food will be available for sale during the entire evening.

Mrs. Melvin Schumacher, chairman of the affair, announces that a professional caller, Ralph Hill, will be present to call, lead and teach the dances to those attending. Mrs. Schumacher advises that persons desiring just to watch will also enjoy themselves.

Assisting with the plans for the affair are Mmes. Jack Bedford, co-chairman; Milford Sussman, Martin Schielsinger, Norman Lumian in charge of decorations; Walter Schwartz, Gene Alfred, Robert Lewis and Seymour Uberman in charge of chuck wagon food; William Sneider, phone committee. In charge of ticket sales are Mmes. James Berendt, Gene Alfred, Phil Weinstein, Sam Katz, and Stan Lieber. Persons desiring to attend may contact these persons.

ENTERTAINS FOR LUNCHEON GUESTS

Birds of paradise in a black bowl highlighted the grey, orange and black color scheme for the luncheon given recently by Mrs. George Betus, 23214 Robert Rd., for a number of the Las Vecinas members.

A delicious meal served in stark-white dishes emphasized the smart modern theme. Cocktails and canapes preceded the luncheon.

Those attending were Mmes. Lloyd Hennen, Henry Schmal, Carl Wolff, Quinton Johnson, Walter McClelland, Robert Zinn, Edward Fay, Robert Finkney, John Walli and Richard Niemala, houseguest of Mrs. Fay.

Officers to Be Installed At Las Madrecitas Tea

Installation of officers for Las Madrecitas, South Bay and Peninsula Auxiliary of the Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopedic Hospital will be an event of the get-acquainted tea to be held at Palos Verdes Country Club on Saturday, May 25, 1:30 p.m.

Purpose of the tea is to acquaint women who have expressed an interest in the group with the work of the auxiliary and the guild, according to Mrs. Harold D. Leslie, Jr., of Hollywood Riviera, retiring president and founder of Las Madrecitas.

Elected at this month's meeting at Palos Verdes Art Gallery were Mrs. Richard W. Bridge of Palos Verdes Estates, president; Mrs. Edward M. Kline of Hollywood Riviera, vice president; Mrs. Robert S. Cameron, Manhattan Beach, secretary; Mrs. Howard Langpap, Hollywood Riviera, treasurer, and Mrs. V. K. Anderson, Redondo Beach, historian.

Newly named committee chairmen are Mrs. E. J. Montagne, ways and means; Mrs. Michael Walsh, publicity; Mrs.

Lowell Klatscher, hospitality, and Mrs. Jack Kahlo, volunteer service.

Reservations for the tea may be made by calling Mrs. John Terre.

Special guests at the tea will be Miss F. Helen Parker, president of the Crippled Children's Guild, and Mrs. Harold D. Leslie, Sr., of the guild board. Other senior members of the board have been invited.

Pouring at the tea will be the Mmes. John Terre, Mel Margulies, Charles C. MacPherson and Richard Egan. Tea chairmen are Mmes. Walsh, Terre and Robert W. Clarke.

Diana Board Entertained

Mrs. Fred Iseman, retiring president of the Redondo Beach Dianas entertained her board members last Wednesday evening at a theater party. The group spent a delightful evening attending the show, "Around the World in 80 Days."

Following the theater party, Dianas returned to the Iseman home, in Seaside Ranchos, for refreshments. Mrs. Iseman also presented each member with a lovely hand painted atomizer, as a token of appreciation for work done this past year.

The board members also presented Mrs. Iseman with a beautiful chafing dish.

Members attending the party were Mmes. Keith Donelson, Austin Stirratt, Ray Henderson, James Horst, Lonnie Gorcham, Marshall Roe, Ralph Rector, Herbert Mueller, Reynolds Gorschuch, Robert Shank, George Jurisich, Diana Coordinator, Mrs. Austin McNeil and Iseman.

NOTE ANNIVERSARY

A dinner party at the Plush Horse last Saturday celebrated the 34th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Bergren of Hawthorne. With the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Darwin E. White of San Pedro and Mrs. Margaret Kelsey of Torrance.

Garden Club Has Potluck Dinner Meet

The North Torrance Fuchsia Society met Tuesday evening at McMaster Park hall for a combined potluck dinner and meeting.

Joe Taylor, from Redondo Beach, spoke on the raising of Epiphillum, plants which have their native habitat in the tropic jungles. He displayed a number of specimen plants and told the club members how to grow them in this area.

The business meeting was opened by president Robert Payne. Boy Scout Troop No. 761 led the flag salute. Boy Scouts participating were Glenn Terry, Mike Regan and Clifford Enright, accompanied by their Scoutmaster, W. M. Sinclair.

Two new members welcomed into the group were Mrs. Maxine Culver and Mrs. Ethel Edmonds.

The North Torrance branch of the California Fuchsia Society was one of the sponsoring groups of the Flower and Hobby Show held last week end. The hostesses from this branch were Mmes. Evelyn Warden, Hazel Smith, Margaret Clark, Louise Soth, Ida Heckinger, Maxine Culver and Ethel Edmonds.

This branch will also participate in the Lomita Flower Show in June.

Shower Fetes Mrs. Morrison

A pair of storks flanking a beautifully decorated white cake set the theme for the surprise baby shower given Wednesday evening for Mrs. Dave Morrison. Mrs. Henry Schmal, 428 Calle Mayor, was the hostess.

Bouquets of roses in pastel pinks completed the table decorations with the storks and shower cake. The gifts were presented to the honoree in a beribboned baby bassinet.

An evening of games and conversation was enjoyed by the following guests: Mmes. George Betus, Carl Wolff, Quinton Johnson, Edward Fay, Robert Zinn, James Reese, Joseph Early, George Moss-burger and the honoree.

Realty Unit

Women's division of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board planned a dinner meeting for June 28 at the Wayfarer's restaurant at the business meeting held last Tuesday at Huff's restaurant.

The group has also planned a breakfast get-together for June 2 from 7:30 a.m. until noon at the home of Mrs. Helene Miller, 1317 Beech Ave. Members and their families will be guests. Assisting Mrs. Miller will be Rose Craig, Edith Smith, Georgia Marlowe and Mary Toombs.

DESSERT SOCIAL

Strawberry shortcake and coffee was featured at the social given recently by Mrs. Schlyer Gardner when she entertained for a number of Las Vecinas members.

Roses of many colors, grown by the hostess, furnished colorful house decorations. A special guest was Mrs. Ernest Russell, a former member who has moved from the area.

Those present included Mmes. Phillip O. Downing, Ben Haggott, Quinton Johnson, Jasper W. Byrd, R. H. Ellis and Herschel Kopp.
