Bay Alumnae Plans Annual Luncheon

Plans for the annual luncheon will be discussed when the South Bay Alumnae Club of Alpha Phi meets next Tuesday, 7:30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. C. E. Cook, 2309 Chelsea Rd., Palos Verdes Estates. Mrs. E. R. Johnson will serve as co-hostess. The annual luncheon, June 22, will honor South Bay collegiate members of Alpha Phi. Mrs. John Leeper will be hostess for the event at her Palos Verdes Estates home. Mrs. William MacDonald of Manhattan Beach was welcomed as a member of the group at the May meeting. Alpha Phi alumnae in the South Bay area who are interested in affiliating should phone Mrs. Robert Johnson or Mrs. Dewey A. French.

'Stag' Party For Tommy

Tommy Schuchman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schuchman, 5347 Linda Dr., celebrated his seventh birthday with a "stag" party last Saturday, May 25. A "strictly masculine" theme prevailed from the invitations to the conclusion of the party. Invitations were hand-lettered paper bags with the wording "no girls allowed." Little League colors, yellow green, red, white and blue were used in decorating the rumpus room at the Schuchman home. Horns and other noise makers were distributed as the guests arrived. The boys were then taken to the Walkers miniature golf course for a round of golf with Dana Fay winning the prize. On returning home, pictures were made and the huge birthday cake was served with ice cream. Helping Tommy celebrate were his brother, Bobby Schuchman, Dana Fay, Billie Betus, Wesley Steele, John Aldred, Dana Mailoux, Johnny Bain, Mike Hodges and Tommy Stewart.

P.E.O. TO MEET

Members of the South Bay Unaffiliated P.E.O. group will meet June 5, 12:30 p.m., for dessert at the home of Mrs. R. W. Boulger, 509 Knob Hill, Redondo Beach.

Lodge News

Two charter members were honored when the Torrance camp, Royal Neighbors of America, observed its 36th anniversary. Bertha Brennan and Florence Christopher were given the grand honors and presented gifts from the camp in honor of the occasion, according to Oracle Walker, who presided. Guest officers from camps in the South Bay District conducted the business meeting, with Mina Aitchison of Culver City accepting the gavel from the presiding officer. All guest officers were presented personal gifts from the Torrance officials. During the social hour a skit, "School Days," was presented with members of the Torrance camp appearing as Juvenile Royal Neighbors. Musicians for the entertainment were Susie Walker at the piano and Dorothy Malloy with her accordion. Wayne and Michael Malloy handled the drums, and Sophia Duncan, the musical bones. Alice Swanson was mistress of ceremonies. Decorating the refreshment table was a large birthday cake done in purple and white, the society's colors. Guests were present from Gardena, Redondo Beach, Culver City, Santa Monica, Long Beach, and one from Illinois and one from Michigan. One new member, Charlotte Hurley, was given the obligation of the society by the de-gee staff.
