

LOS CANCIONEROS PLANS ANNUAL CONCERT THIS FRIDAY, SATURDAY

Los Cancioneros, composed of singers from the South Bay area, are now in the final week of rehearsals for another "concert pair" to be presented at Redondo Union High School Auditorium on Friday and Saturday, at 8:30 p.m.

This year's presentation, the Singers' seventh annual Community Concert, promises all the fun and excitement.

The first half of the traditional two-part program will include a formal concert featuring music by Bach, Brahms and Poulenc, as well as Negro spirituals and music in the lighter vein. The second half of each evening will find Los Cancioneros members in colorful costumes presenting "That Western Fever," a "dramamusical" written for the chorus by Paul Bennett, with Cancioneros' conductor, Don Bremer, as musical consultant.

"Little Black Box"

Bruce Buell will play the role of the amazing Mr. Timely in Bennett's story featuring Mr. Timely's adventures—and misadventures—with his "little black box."

Buell, a native Californian, is an announcer and staff member of KFAC and has also been associated with the Mutual Network and CBS Television. He has taken several roles in professional and semi-professional dramatic productions in Southern California. He and his wife, Ruth, accompanist for Los Cancioneros, have three children and live in Los Angeles.

Veteran Writer

Paul Bennett, writer-director of "That Western Fever," is a native of Denver, was educated on the East Coast, and came to California in 1930. During World War II he was with the Army Special Services, attached to the Air Corps at Lind Field, Fairbanks, Alaska, where he was editor of the post newspaper. He is an employee of North American Aircraft.

Bennett's wife, Phyllis, was for six years a member of Los Cancioneros and served as accompanist and chairman of the advisory board. Mrs. Bennett's most outstanding service to the group occurred in 1952 when, due to the sudden illness of conductor Barbara Mabin, she stepped from the chorus, on less than an hour's notice, to conduct the entire choral half of the spring concert. The Bennetts and their two children reside in Hollywood Riviera.

Fantasy Theme

For several years stage sets by Ray Wallace, Rolling Hills, have been a highlight of Los Cancioneros' concerts and this year is no exception. His sets for "That Western Fever" play a large part in creating the atmosphere of fantasy which is the theme of the production.

For tickets call DAVIS 3-3519 or FRONTER 5-1933. Admission is $1.25 and all sets are reserved.

HEAVY PRESSURE

A one mile walk exerts an accumulated pressure of about 500,000 pounds on average human feet.

Civil Defense Programs Set By Horlander

Capt. Douglas "Dutch" Horlander, local National Guard Commander, assisted by Master Sgt. Wilbur Phelps, regular army, planning a series of talks and programs on civil defense and survival training civic organizations in Torrance.

The purpose in presenting these programs, through the Torrance office of civil defense, under direction of George Powell, coordinator, is to make the people of Torrance aware of the imminent necessity for training and organizing for disaster, either enemy or natural.

Programs will range in length of time from 15 minutes to two hours, depending upon the requesting organization, and will consist of talks, films, and demonstrations.

Any organization interested in scheduling this type of program is requested to call the office of Civil Defense, Torrance City Hall.

The National Guard, for over 300 years has been primarily concerned with internal security and Capt. Horlander feels there is a great need for more interest in civil defense to be shown here in Torrance.
