

MRS. LOUISE COMPTON
... On 86th Birthday

P T A
Crenshaw

Summer Safety and Recreation was the topic featured at the final meeting of the Crenshaw Elementary PTA.

Miss Marilyn Jensen, assistant director of Torrance Recreation Department, spoke on the recreation facilities available for the summer months, especially the beginners' swimming classes which started Monday.

Mrs. A. Geronimo gave the inspirational. The executive board of Crenshaw PTA presented a skit "This Was Your Year" honoring Mrs. Clint Chapman, PTA president during the last year.

The safety committee put on a skit, "The Do's and Don'ts of Safety," directed by Ginger Bryant.

The kindergarten mothers were hostesses and served refreshments.

186th St.

The meeting of the planning committee of the 186th Street School PTA was held recently at the home of Mrs. Walter Stewart, program chairman for the coming year. Luncheon was served, and then the committee discussed several types of meetings that would have the greatest appeal to the members. It was agreed that programs that featured the faculty and classroom demonstrations were the most desirable. Plans for a beginning of the year picnic were tentatively made, to be completed at a later date. Music was considered a must, and is to be included as often as possible.

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Herman Eisenbeiss, president; Mrs. James Ellis, president-elect, and Mrs. Walter Stewart, Frank Daddi, R. Dean Bryan, J. T. Evans Jr., Billie Lewis, Hugh Allen, Donald Dittman, Stephen Penchoff, James McMillen, and Miss Ruth Engdahl, principal.

On May 22, a luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. James Ellis, president-elect of the 186th Street School PTA, to ratify Mrs. Herman Eisenbeiss as parliamentary for the coming year. Those attending the luncheon were Mrs. Herman Eisenbeiss, W. S. Stewart, Billie Lewis, Phillip Major, Hugh Allen, Donald Dittman, R. Dean Bryan, and Miss Ruth Engdahl, school principal.

Friends Pay Tribute to Local Woman

Mrs. Louise Compton was honored on her 86th birthday anniversary recently when many of her friends took part in a patio reception at the Lomita home of her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Rodepouch.

The reception table was covered in blue and centered with a large imitation birthday cake of ferns decorated with pink geraniums and topped with blue candles and a large "86". Presiding at the punch bowl and coffee urn was Mrs. I. A. Dykkesen of Wenatchee, Wash., daughter of the honoree, who made the trip here to be present for the occasion. Cake was served by Mrs. C. M. Brumelow, Jr., granddaughter of Mrs. Compton.

Guests were from the First Christian Church of Torrance, where Mrs. Compton has been a member for almost 25 years, as well as many of her Lomita neighbors.

Mrs. Compton is a native of Wenatchee, Wash., where she was a charter member of the Christian Church.

Carl Steele

At the recent meeting of the executive board of the Carl Steele PTA, the following chairmanships were ratified: Mrs. Leo F. Fisher, program; Mrs. Earl S. Barackman, room representative; Mrs. Henry G. Rix, hospitality; Mrs. William R. Sparks, Founders Day; Louis Bisou, legislative; Mrs. Howard L. Thompson, publicity; Mrs. Wiley E. Duncan, publications; Mrs. Jack V. Ekberg, record book; Mrs. Robert J. Evans, art; Mrs. William A. Freeman, membership; Mrs. Lorman M. Griffith, character music; and Mrs. Kale D. Milberger, parent education.

The resignations of Mrs. Cleo M. Christensen, honorary life membership chairman, and Mrs. Robert L. Golden, ways and means, were accepted. Mrs. George R. Pierce accepted the honorary life membership and was ratified. The appointment of a ways and means chairman is pending. Mrs. Donald J. Coleman was appointed chairman for the fall carnival.

Mrs. Albert Hawkins and Mrs. Jack Erving reported on the Coordinating Council meeting. Mrs. Erving joined the group discussing education. This group stressed the importance of attending City Council and School Board meetings. These meetings are open to the public and enable residents to obtain first hand information on what is happening and why.

Mrs. Hawkins joined the group discussing plans for a local park.
