Erv Falca, Giants hurler in the American Little League, continued to set records by twirling his fourth no-hitter in seven games. Falca fanned 18 batters to account for all the outs in the Giants win over the hapless White Sox 9-0. He also led his mates on the attack, getting three of the twelve hits garnered off the offerings of Dewiler and Flick.

The Pirates, behind the pitching of Steve Wirtz, downed the Red Sox 13-2. The Pirates hopped on the slants of Johnny Keyes for 13 hits. The big blow was registered by Dick McGuire, a grand slam homer during an eight run uprising in the third inning.

A fund-raising dance at the Redondo Elks Club was held Friday by the Pacific Coast Little League (South Torrance) and prizes were raffled off.

The League's Solons tripped up the Angels by a 11-5 score Thursday, scoring in every inning. The Padres downed the Beavers, 14-7, in a game that was highlighted by Bill Mosses grand slam home run in the first inning.

A triple header was on the PC Little League agenda Sunday with the Angels-Seals and Solons winding up in the victory column. Stars, Padres and Beavers were tabbed for the loss. The Solons-Beaver game was a 1-0 thriller as the Solons allowed only three hits in the six innings.

Al Whelan's Stars and Bill Turrentine's Yankees fought eight innings to a 3-3 draw recently calling for a play-off game at a later date for the Torrance National Little League teams.

Top home run hitter for the League is Steve Waters of the Braves. This 11-year-old sensation thus far in the season has tagged eight round trippers. He still has another year with the Little League.

Garland Roberts of the Phillies swatted a beautiful homer as the Phillies took the Cardinals, 12-4. Mike Cachinni and Rodney White both chalked up home runs for the Cards. But the Phillies weren't quite so lucky when they met the Stars, who sent them down to the sea with a 12-0 score.

The North Torrance Little League currently is being led by the Trojans with a 11-3 record. The Bruins and Indians are trailing a close second with 10 wins a piece. The Bruins have lost 2 while the Indians have dropped five.

R. Coleman, hurler for the Indians, is sporting a 5-1 record to lead the League's pitching power. C. Hubert is leading the major league in home runs. He has 10 to date.

In the minor division, North Torrance Bruins and Indians are battling it out for first place with eight wins each.

American League's Tigers came to life the past week, picking up victories over the Dodgers, 7-3, and downing the White Sox 5-2. Ronnie Rollins picked up the win over the Dodgers when Jim Palumbo came through with a two base smash. Glen Kuneo was the victim of the rally.

Mike Veneable was the big gun in the win over the Sox. He clouted a four-baser with a runner on base.
