Glenny-Lynn Vows Recited Last Saturday

Rev. John V. Hegarty officiated at the nuptial mass and ceremony and administered the nuptial blessing last Saturday morning, June 22, at 10 a. m. at the St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita when Miss Carolee Glenny became the bride of Lt. James Hugh Lynn, United States Air Force.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Glenny, 5 Rocking Horse Rd., Rolling Hills, are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Hugh Lynn of Hollywood and the late Hugh Lynn.

The chancel and altar of the church were decorated with white stock and gladioli.

Mr. Glenny walked with his daughter to the altar. She wore a white Italian silk gown trimmed with iridescent beads. A matching headress of Italian silk and beads held the illusion veil. Her only jewelry was a family heirloom necklace. The bridal bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Kathleen Carroll served as the maid of honor, wearing a long white nylon dress over pale green taffeta. She wore a natural leghorn hat and carried a pale green carnation puff ball.

Bridesmaids were Misses Josie Puetz, Lindell Moore and Margaret Ann Lynn. They were in floor length white nylon gowns over yellow taffeta. They also wore leghorn hats and carried pale yellow carnations.

Neighborhood Church Scene Of Miller-Danner Wedding

Aisle bouquets of gypsophalia and carnations and baskets of larkspur and fern decorated the Neighborhood Church in Palos Verdes last Saturday for the late afternoon wedding uniting Miss Nancy Ruth Miller and David Hyla Danner. Candles, burning in white standards, were lighted by Mrs. Marie Tremble and Miss Joyce Tremble.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Henry Miller, 155 Via Los Miradores, wore a floor length gown of white organza ornamented with Chantilly lace applique embroidered with seed pearls. The full flowing skirt fell into a sweep train. A pearl studded crown held the illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and ivy leaves. An antique lace handkerchief and a four leaf clover in her shoe were gifts from her grandmother, Mrs. H. L. Huxtable of Redlands.

Miss Rita Houston of Arcadia, was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. David Farmer of Redlands and Miss Nancy Ruth Jones of El Segundo. Their identical gowns were street length sheaths of green lace over green taffeta with a taffeta fullness at the back. They wore white petal hats and carried white Esther Reed daisies and camellia leaves.

Louis J. Matteson of Glendale was the best man and ushers were G. Henry Miller, Jr., Edwin W. Brink, Joe Reimuller, and Michael Harnage.

The Rev. Richard A. Dawson officiated at the marriage. A reception followed at the

Linda Louise Thayne Weds Donald Simpson on June 22

In an embroidered white nylon wedding gown over white satin, Miss Linda Louise Thayne walked down the aisle of the Wayfarer's Chapel last Saturday evening June 22, at 7:30 to plight her marriage vows with Donald Eugene Simpson. The gown, created by the bride's mother, had a sweetheart neckline, cap sleeves and a bouffant skirt. A pearl tiara held her shoulder length wedding veil and she carried white orchids atop a small white Bible.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thayne, 26407 Athens, Harbor City, was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Sally Speck serving as maid of honor wore lavender chiffon. Bridesmaids were Miss Susan Babcock and Mrs. Fran- cie Johnson. Miss Babcock wore blue chiffon and Mrs. Johnson was in yellow chiffon. The bridal attendants carried cascade bouquets of pink roses.

Tom LeMaster served as best man and ushers were Jerry Simpson and Edward Cooper.

The Rev. T. Deaconoff officiated at the double ring ceremony and a reception for the 200 guests was held at the Thayne home. Mrs. Gayle Grisham registered the guests.

Haynes Home is Scene of Granddaughter's Wedding

Simplicity marked the beautiful home wedding ceremony last Saturday evening at 8 p.m. when Miss Donna Haines became the bride of Frank Yancey, son of Mrs. Eva Yancey of Norwalk. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Haynes, 1340 Engracia Ave.

At an improvised altar of white gladioli and carnations interspersed with candles, the Rev. Tinsley of the First Christian Church in Long Beach conducted the marriage in the presence of 125 close friends and relatives.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her grandfather who gave her in marriage. She wore a white nylon lace gown over taffeta. Her illusion veil fell from a tiara and she carried white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Jean Williams was the matron of honor. She wore a pink chiffon gown and carried pink carnations. Dick Armend stood as best man.

A reception was held after the wedding. The decorated cake was served with coffee and punch. Kenny Williams registered the guests.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High in 1956.
