

Brownie Troop 445

Brownie Troop 445 sponsored by Perry School PTA, celebrated its first anniversary at the home of their leader, Mrs. Helen Kohler, at 3816 W. 180th St.

Twelve members received year pins and five new members were invested, receiving Brownie pins.

Receiving year pins were Valeria Fulton, Ruth Hakala, Judy Hiroamoto, Patricia Holt, Kathy Kohler, Melissa McEntire, Christine Mikami, Catherine Price, Rebecca Louise Ramsey, Susan Romero, Janette Sturgis, Ivette Villar. The new members are Dianne and Lindy Henderson, Pamela Oliver, Cynthia Yamada, and Mary Alice Harrison.

At the same time, four flew up into Mrs. Card's newly founded Intermediate Girl Scout Troop. The Fly-ups were Kathleen Card, Sharon Chavira, Margrite Price and Michelle Ramsey.

In proper ceremony after completing tenderfoot requirements they received their wings from Mrs. Kohler, their Brownie leader, and crossed the daisy covered bridge into Scouting where Mrs. Card was waiting with their Girl Scout pins and together they recited the Girl Scout promise. The Fly-ups presented Troop 445 with a plaque of Girl Scout laws.

Refreshments were served by the Brownies.

MP GRADUATE . . . Pvt. Stanley H. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Moore, 21903 S. Figueroa, was graduated from the Military Police Training Center June 14

Harold W. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Roth of 553 E. 213th St., graduated from recruit training June 8, at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp", included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

In nine weeks of instruction, the "raw recruit" is developed into a Navy Bluepacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

Mac T. Barrett, radarman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Barrett of 1038 W. 209th St., returned to San Diego June 16, aboard the destroyer USS Floyd B. Parks after a five-month cruise in the Western Pacific.

James L. Haefell, seaman, USN, son of Mrs. Norma Haefell of 915 Bolder Ave., aboard the tank landing ship USS Floyd County, took part in "Operation Quickstep" June 8-14 off the coast of Southern California.

The operation was a reconnaissance in force against "aggressor" units who had supposedly overrun large sections of the Southwestern United States.

Army Specialist Second Class Francisco Espino Jr., 25, whose parents live at 2466 W. 248th St., Lomita, recently participated in an 11-day field training exercise with the 10th Infantry Division's 85th Regiment in Germany.

The exercises are designed to test the combat efficiency of troops stationed overseas.

Specialist Espino, whose wife, Rosemary, is with him in Germany, is an aidman in the regiment's Medical Company.

In the Army for more than eight years, he arrived over-

LP Records Stolen Here

A thief with a penchant for music relieved a delivery truck of 80 long-playing 12-inch phonograph records here Thursday.

Driver for the Record Rack Service, of Los Angeles, told local officers he had parked his panel truck behind Roth's Market.

The thief had taken the box containing the more than $600 worth of records while the driver was gone, according to police.

seas on this tour of duty in November, 1955.

YOU'LL BE ALL RIGHT, MRS. JONES, HAVE THAT PRESCRIPTION FILLED AND START TAKING IT RIGHT AWAY.

THANKS, DOCTOR? I'LL GO STRAIGHT TO Medical Arts

Industrial Subdivision Given Okay

Subdivision of 33 industrial lots located south of Lomita Blvd. and west of Pennsylvania Ave. was approved last Tuesday by the Regional Planning Commission.

The subdivision will be located in a 15-acre plot, with Jack Howard and Bob Flattery, Burbank, owners and subdividers.

In other action, the Planners approved a 118-home subdivision on 30 acres located southeast of Vermont and 208th St. The subdivider is Richard Barclay Hawthorne.

Planners also approved a 120-home development northeast of Crest Rd. and Palos Verdes Dr. East, presented by the owner and subdivider, Property Management Co., Gardena.

The petition of the Northern Properties Development Co. to put a service station on the southeast corner of Figueroa and Ocean St. in an agricultural zone likewise received favorable action.
