Bluebirds Edge By Cardinals

Once again it took the Torrance Bluebirds until the ninth inning to emerge victorious as witnessed by fans last Sunday when the locals squeezed by the South Bay Cardinals in a 5-3 win.

The score was tied 3-3 going into the ninth, when the Bluebirds cut loose and decided to put the game on ice.

Jim Murphy grounded out to second for the first out, Bill Crawford flied out to second for a bad start.

With two out, Sherwood Tiernan walked and Frank Lucking slammed out a triple.
