

Lutheran Guild Is Organized

Organization of the Good Shepherd Guild, women's organization of the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd in Torrance, was completed when the group held its second meeting at the home of Mrs. Stanley Halverson, 5211 Stevann St., Tuesday evening.

As an auxiliary organization of the new congregation serving west Torrance and Redondo Beach, the society elected Mrs. A. C. Uglum, 136 Via Sego, as its first president. Other officers include: Mrs. A. C. Andreassen, 1904 Camino De La Costa, first vice president; Mrs. Neil A. Lewis, 5103 Ruby St., second vice president; Mrs. Jack E. Laisure, 5309 Wilma St., secretary; Mrs. John R. Gross, 5025 Jacques St., treasurer; Mrs. Robert E. Eng, 2613 Armour Lane, secretary of missions and Miss Blanche Michael, 19502 Hinsdale Ave., historian.

In the program preceding the business session the Rev. J. M. Girtz, pastor of Olivet Lutheran Church, Los Angeles, addressed the guild, speaking on his experiences during 13 years of service as a missionary to India. The Rev. Gerald W. Garlid, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, conducted the devotional service.

An organization for all women of the congregation, the Good Shepherd Guild will be affiliated with the Women's Missionary Federation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, which embraces women's societies in congregations of the church body throughout the United States and Canada. Monthly meetings are scheduled by the guild the second Tuesday evening of each month.

A social hour followed the business session and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Farrell, who visited here recently with the Nelson family was complimented at a linen shower given by Mrs. Nelson. The guest list included family friends. Silver and white with touches of pale blue was used in decorating.

The same colors were also emphasized in the refreshments. Attending the party were Mmes. Marjorie Lane, Irene Harris, Ann Meier, Mary Caldwell, Lois Rasmussen of Long Beach, Ada Leidaker, Leuette Nicole, John O'Neil, Charles Farrell of San Diego, Daisy Leighton and Ruth Leines.

JayCettes Working On Two Projects

JayCettes held their regular monthly meeting on July 16 at the home of Mrs. Jack Smith with Mrs. Bill Lyons and Mrs. Bob Johnston as hostesses.

A business meeting was conducted by Mrs. John Mangum, president, at which time plans were made for a paper drive to be held Aug. 30 and 31. The public is asked to contribute papers for this drive, proceeds to be used for a charitable purpose. Those having papers to be picked up may call Mrs. John Mangum or Mrs. Frank Dussel. Other members on the committee are Mrs. Fred Hansen, contact; Mrs. Bob Johnston, telephoning; Mrs. Gordon Jones, publicity, and Mrs. Bill Lyons, prizes.

Plans are also being made by the JayCettes to enter a car in the Rancho Days parade. The group is meeting this week at the Mangum home to decorate the car.

Also, during the business meeting Mrs. Jack Smith was appointed secretary and Mrs. Bob Johnston, treasurer.

The July board meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Cloward and the August board meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Leonard Radford.

A backyard barbecue will constitute the Aug. 20 general meeting. This will be held at the home of Mrs. Bill Lyons. All Junior Chamber wives are invited to attend.

During a social hour, several prizes were awarded in games played, and refreshments were served.
