TOUR NEW BUILDING... Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Moon, 21531 Meyler Ave., are pictured here at the new home office of Connecticut General Insurance Co. near Hartford, Conn. The Moons flew east to attend a convention. They also spent several days in New York where they saw "My Fair Lady." The couple's four youngsters, Danny, Diane, Kristie and Mike, stayed with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Moon, of Torrance, and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wilshire, of Yucaipa, while their parents were away.

Mr., Mrs. David Childers On Honeymoon; Married July 27

David Childers, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Abella, 21002 S. Main St., Torrance, claimed as his bride Miss Margaret Catherine Valles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Valles of Wilmington, in a wedding ceremony at 10 a.m. Saturday, July 27, at St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Wilmington. Mrs. Pat Kaveney, wearing a pale blue faille dress with sequin trim and carrying pink and white carnations, was the matron of honor. Miss Dorothy Pentridge, also in blue faille and carrying a nosegay of pink and white carnations, was the bridesmaid. Little Diane Fitch in white tulle and lace was the flower girl. Then came the bride on the arm of her father. She wore imported Chantilly lace over bridal satin fashioned with long pointed sleeves, a bouffant skirt with insets of tulle pleats, which fell into a chapel train. The sweetheart neckline was outlined with pearls. Her bridal veil cascaded from a seed pearl tiara and she carried white orchids and stephanotis. Her jewelry was a gold locket, gift from the bridegroom. The rings were carried by Francis Palumbo. Arthur Turgeon served as best man and ushers were John Kaveney, Gilbert Valles and Jerry Dowling. A reception was held in the Wilmington Woman's Club. After a wedding trip down the coast, the couple will be at home at 820 Dennet Ave., Wilmington.

The bride was graduated from St. Anthony's in Long Beach and Harbor Junior College. Her husband was graduated from Banning where he was a football letterman.
