

Psychologist Talks Sunday To Unitarians

Dr. Mark O. Freeman, consulting psychologist from Beverly Hills, will be guest speaker at the Pacific Unitarian Society service at 11 a.m. Sunday at 1610 Acacia Ave.

His topic will be, "Self Knowledge through Psychology in Religion," expressing the opinion that the community has an important role to play in combatting neuroses. He will be introduced by Eugene Erickson.

The first student at the C.G. Jung Institute, Zurich, Switzerland, Dr. Freeman has done post graduate work at Harvard and is a member of the board of directors of the American League of Consulting and Applied Psychologists.

The Unitarians are hosting a series of guest speakers while the pastor, Dr. Harry Shuder, is on vacation.

Intern Pastor to Preach Last Sermon Sunday

Intern Donald Johnson who has spent this past year as intern pastor with First Lutheran Church, Carson and Flower, will preach his farewell sermon at the 8 and 10:45 a.m. worship services on Sunday morning.

He and his wife, Mary and little daughter, Ann, will leave Torrance next week to return to Dubuque, Iowa, where he will complete his last year of studies at Wartburg Seminary.

The Johnsons lived this past year in an apartment above the Halverson-Leavell Mortuary, where Mrs. Johnson helped in the office.

The position vacated by Intern Don Johnson will be filled by Intern Norman Schnable, who together with his wife will arrive in Torrance this coming week.

Bible School Set
The church will begin its summer vacation Bible School next Monday morning. The school will be held every morning, from 9 a.m. until noon for a period of two weeks. Classes will be held for children from five to 12. The Bible story lessons will be based on the Lord's Prayer. The classes will consist of Bible studies as well as handicraft.

Each day the women of the church will serve punch and cookies to the children.

'REMOVING MASKS' TO BE TOPIC

Rev. Donald Shelby, associate pastor, will speak on "Removing Our Masks" at the 9 and 11 a.m. services Sunday at the First Methodist Church, 1551 El Prado.

He will be assisted at 9 a.m. services by Frank Fisher Sr., lay leader, and at 11 a.m. by Robert Mason, Church School superintendent. The pastor, the Rev. John L. Taylor is on a two month tour of Europe and the Holy Land.

Eva Brundin, soprano, will provide the special music. She will sing, "Create in Me a Clean Heart," by Merle Miller.

Vacation Church School has been in session at the church for a week. The second week of the school begins Monday morning at 9 a.m. A service for the entire enrollment will be held on Friday morning at 10. Rev. Shelby will conduct the service, which is open to parents and friends. This will climax the school's program.
