Local Firestone Store Improved
 Celebrating a grand reopening this week end is the Torrance Firestone Store at Marcellina and Cravens Ave.
 The downtown Torrance concern has been remodeled and the entire premises given a new paint job.
 The interior sales area has been pepped up with a new color arrangement.
 A number of Firestone specials will be offered shoppers this week end to celebrate the remodeling.

Camp Meet Scheduled
 An old-time camp meeting will be held at the North Torrance Foursquare Church, 18098 Prairie Ave., this Saturday night starting at 7 p.m.
 Rev. and Mrs. Leland Harsh, with their electric guitar and harmonicas, will be on the program. Brother Bill Smith, head of the Cottage Prayer Group of the Nazarene Church of Hawthorne, will be the emcee. Solos, singing, and special music will be featured.

Local Youth Hurt in Fall
 Thirteen-year-old Richard Wade suffered a skull fracture and internal injuries when he fell from a hiking trail near Monrovia last Saturday, according to sheriff's deputies.
 The son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wade, 131 Via La Soledad, was on an outing with the John Hess family of El Monte at the time of the accident. He was carried out of the mountain area by the Sierra Madre Mountain Rescue Squad.
 He reportedly fell 50 feet
 In the Chantry Flats area of San Olene Canyon. He is under treatment at Monrovia Hospital.
Ex-Skid Row 'Mayor' Will Talk Sunday
 The story of Arthur Lock, "mayor of Capitol Ave., the skid row of Houston, Tex., will be told by Arthur Lock himself next Sunday morning at 11 a.m. at the Harbor City Revival Tabernacle, 1032 W. Pacific Coast Hwy.
 According to Pastor Fred Martin, Arthur Lock was once a prominent oil man who became a skid row alcoholic for many years. Arrested 200 times, he spent much time in prison. He finally was converted and will tell his story Sunday.
 A Sunday School attendance drive is under way at the church. Classes meet at 9:45 a.m.
