PERSISTENT EFFORT
Every delegate to Congress from Hawaii since 1920 has introduced statehood bills.

IMMIGRANT FLOW
From 1776 to 1820 the number of Europeans who migrated to the U. S. totaled 250,000.

DR. GORDON J. IRVINE OPENS CENTER OFFICE

A graduate of the Los Angeles College of Optometry, Dr. Gordon J. Irvine has opened a new office in the South Bay Center.

Dr. Alfred Corwin, who attended both UCLA and the Los Angeles College of Optometry with Dr. Irvine, is associated in the new venture.

Specializing in contact lenses and blended bifocal lenses the firm also features a complete line of imported frames designed to make wearing glasses an attractive asset.

Frames from France, Germany, Italy and Spain as well as domestic frames are on display in attractive cases.

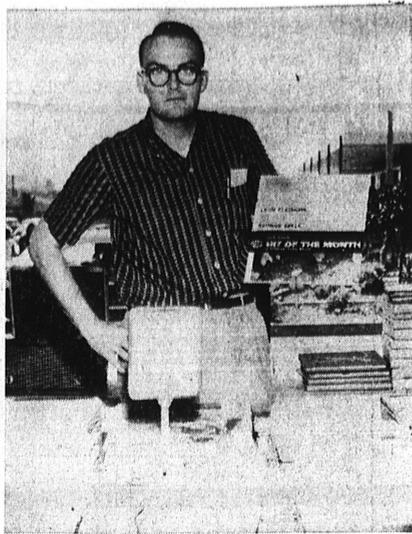

The latest in equipment for examination of eyes is available and the office is open evenings by appointment.

Dr. Irvine also has offices in Manhattan Beach and in the Redondo Triangle.
