Symbols of Service...

in every community where there's a Ralphs Grocery Company

The familiar Ralphs Sign means more than just another place to buy groceries. Wherever it appears, a community grows. Property values go up. Other businesses spring into being.

Community employment and buying power increase.

It means new convenience in shopping, new standards of cleanliness, freshness, volume and quality in food distribution.

New savings through lower shelf prices and "specials" seven days and nights a week. New "plus" dividends for you through valuable premiums free for Ralphs gold cash-register tapes.

And the brisk, clean-cut well-groomed "box boy" who carries your groceries to your car is more than just a convenience.

He, too, is a symbol... a symbol of the eagerness to please that has been inherent in the Ralphs organization for 84 years... a symbol of the career opportunities at Ralphs, for these "box boys"... many with their first jobs... may, and often do, become Ralphs managers.

Yes, the Ralphs Sign and the "box boy" who helps you, are Symbols of Service... another reason why today, as for 84 years past...
